DARKEN GRAY HAIR, LOOK YOUNGER

Sage Tea and Sulphur Darkens So Naturally that Nobody can tell

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite to impart color and a youthful appearance to the hair. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

LETTER OF CONDOLENCE.

TO MR. STEPHEN BERTRAM, FREDERICTON, P. E. I. DEAR BROTHER,—We the members of Refuge Division No. 201 Sons of Temperance wish to convey to you and the other members of your family our sincere sympathy in the great sorrow that has come to you through the death of your brother Sergeant Waldron Bertram, on the field of battle. We can assure you that his death is sadly felt by all of us and especially his close friends of whom he had many. Canada has lost still another good soldier and all of us a brave comrade. When the call came for volunteers he bravely responded to fight for humanity and has died gloriously for his King and country, and has nobly shed his blood on the field of glory. It is for these that he sacrificed his young life and in doing that he has rendered the highest sacrifice of man, and to regret the sacrifice which he has made would be to rob and dishonor him of the glory in which he has nobly crowned himself. But it is great consolation for us to know that your dear brother out of devotion to duty has offered up his young life for the great cause of human liberty and the defence of the empire. Our hearts go out to you in this your time of sorrow and above all we deeply sympathize with you while you mourn the loss of your beloved brother who is classed with the unretiring brave. No more at the sound of the long rolling drum, No more at the call of the bugle he'll come; No more at the roll call will our boy appear, For he sleeps the last sleep of a brave volunteer. No more among us in our ranks will he stand No more with us march with the foes of our land; On picket no more the lone watch will he keep, His watch is now ended he sleeps his last sleep. When the voice of rebellion first sounded afar He shouldered his gun and went forth to war, For his loved country's sake he heeded no fear, And he laid down his life as a brave volunteer. Weep not ye who loved him though not upon earth, And no more you will hear his loved voice at your hearth; He died for his country, Oh, weep not for fear, In heaven you'll meet him the brave volunteer. Signed in Love, Purity and Fidelity: LAURA WEEKS EDNA ABBOTT AGNES ARTHUR.

DOCTOR COULD NOT HELP HER

But Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Saved Her from a Serious Operation.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I suffered something dreadful from a displacement and two very bad attacks of inflammation. My doctor said he could do nothing more for me and I would have to go to the hospital for an operation, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sensitive Wash have entirely cured me of my troubles and I am now in good health. I am willing you should use my testimonial and hope to benefit other suffering women by so doing."—Mrs. F. PLATT, 9 Woodbine St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Operations upon women in our hospitals are constantly on the increase, but before submitting to an operation for ailments peculiar to their sex every woman owes it to herself to give that famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. If complications exist write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice.
