Stanley paid a visit to his home recently in Wood Islands. All regret to learn of the departure of Jack McPherson who intends to reside in Charlotte town.

Local enthusiasm for golf is not abating but rather increasing. Saturday was a gala day at the Belvedere links, the delightful weather and special attractions having brought out a large crowd. The chief event was the final round for a bracelet, the gift of the gentlemen's committee. This round was played between Mrs. W. S. Stewart and Mr. Weeks of the one part and Mrs. W. W. Clark and Dr. Blanchard of the other part. It was won by the former and Mrs. Stewart became the owner of the bracelet. She received many hearty congratulations. The score was 3 up and 1 to play. It was a very pretty and well-contested game. The presentation of the bracelet was made by Mr. Pope, on request of President Longworth. An interesting contest in approaching and putting was engaged in by a large number, the winners being Mr. Weeks, with a score of 10 and Miss Bremner whose score was 12. A golf ball for each was awarded them. A dainty tea was served by Mrs. Mathieson and Mrs. Ings.

The Steamer Dageid is expected to leave Montreal on the 26th inst and is due here about Wednesday next. She will then sail for Newfoundland calling at North Sydney and Sydney. Carvell Bros, Agents. 6-2461.

Advertisers say that there is no better medium than the Rural Daily (formerly the Weekly Guardian) for advertising. The reason is that it circulates everywhere throughout the country districts of the Province, reaching an entirely different class of readers from that of the Morning Daily.

Isaac Peters, the Indian guide has received a letter from Joseph Bernard, Jr., Port Hill, stating that the smallpox on Lennox Island is not dangerous now as there is only one case and that the fishermen are now busy fishing and doing very well. The priest was to visit the Island yesterday. The death occurred on the Island on the 19th inst of Michael Peters of inflammation of the lungs and pneumonia.

The steamer Harland Saturday afternoon was crowded with excursionists and the sail was thoroughly enjoyable. The steamer is most comfortable and in every way suitable for the routes it is planned for. It made quite a stay at the bridge and many of the passengers took a run up the wharf and back. The afternoon excursions by the Harland are eagerly looked forward to and the next one will be to Capraud on Thursday afternoon.

Mary McLeod, relict of the late Rev. Dr. McKenzie Presbyterian elder, passed peacefully away at her home on Flat River on the 20th inst., aged 6 years. She has left to mourn two sons and three daughters viz:—John, B. C.; Mrs. Blair McMillan, Miss Lizzie, a trained nurse in Boston; and Christina at home. One daughter—Mrs. Dr. J.P. Blair—predeceased her. The surviving brothers and sisters are: D. A. McLeod and Angus McLeod at Belfast; John McLeod, Vernon River; Mrs. Robert McWilliams, Eldon; Mrs. Vm. McLeod, Vernon River; and Eudenia McLeod, Belfast. Mrs. McKenzie was a devoted Christian woman of exemplary character, universally respected and esteemed. The exceptionally large cortege which followed her remains to their last resting place at Belfast Cemetery testified to the high esteem in which she was held in the community and was an elegant tribute to her memory. The funeral services were conducted by Mr. McPhee her pastor, who spoke from the words: "Thou shalt be missed because thy seat hath been empty." Another earthly place on earth, one more occupied in heaven.

The Busiest Store on Charlottetown's Busiest Street.

Another great sale of Silks opens Today 49c

Seven hundred yards of pretty 18 to 19 inch taffeta worth 70 cents per yard for forty nine cents. They say "lightning never strikes twice in the same place" And after the great silk bargain we were able to give you the other day we never expected another so soon. Day or two ago came a letter from a big silk house offering a lot of odd lengths of silk from four to forty yards in each piece at a very low price. We wanted to offer a good bargain while we were at it and so we wired a still lower bid for the lot. To our own surprise after some debate, we got our way, and the silks will be ready for you bright and early Monday morning.

White	Copenhagen	Golden brown	Cardinal
Cream	Saxe blue	"Mid" brown	Maroon
Pearl	6 shades navy	Tabac	Garnet
Slate	Tan	Seal brown	Reseda
Pale blue			Myrtle

They are all nice, firm soft finish taffetas—worth up to 70 cents. It is really almost a shame to sell them so low—but we got them cheaply—and we are ready to turn them over in a hurry at a close price.

Samples mailed to out of town customers on application—but please "rush". Last silk sale we got mail orders for days after every yard was gone—some orders even from Nova Scotia.—HURRY IS THE POLICY.

Another Bargain in Corsets at 69c

Northern window will be filled with them this morning. Small corset factory up in Quebec failed awhile ago—and we got a "tip" that bargains were to be had. We got after them and today we offer you this large lot of nice fine white coutil corsets, moderate length, top finished with lace and ribbon, hose supporter at front and hip—worth 25 per cent more than our price. 69c
