YESTERDAY'S STOCK and BOND QUOTATIONS

MARKET GOSSIP

(By Johnston and Ward's Special Wire)

CLOSING LETTER

MONTREAL, Que, Sept 7—The continued unsettlement in the stock market situation became more clearly defined during the afternoon as week-end influences accumulated. Although there was some increase in activity and bids were reduced in numerous instances throughout the corporation and mining lists, pressure continued light and the unsteadiness seemed to be attributed more to the attitude of buyers than to sellers. That cautiousness displayed by traders all through the summer continues to manifest itself.

It is learned that Kansas Mines will have a small power supply available on Thursday to try out a new small scale milling process.

BRX has cut a vein 8 feet in width from the crosscut at the bottom of its shaft. Details will be available later. There is the possibility that the new strike may prove to be the footway of the California vein.

Fin. Counsel.

MORNING MARKET LETTER

NEW YORK, N Y Sept 8—The market suffered a moderate further setback yesterday with most of the loss occurring around the noon hour. It started to sell off again late in the day but reversed to recover fractionally from the lows. Outside of American Smelting and U S Smelting the losses were generally nominal. The market is now approaching 90-91 and 34½-35 level in the D J Industrial and rail averages where it held for about a week prior to the advance of the last week in August. The breaking of this level would be distinctly discouraging but we are inclined to doubt such a development in the absence of especially unfavorable news.

FINANCIAL COUNSEL

MONTREAL, Que, Sept 8—A dull Saturday morning session was indicated at the opening today. The first half hour of business provided very little in the way of interest. Fractional firmness in Wall Street was matched by a similar condition amongst Canadian Corpn. issues, but the gold stocks continued their easier swing. No special influences at the moment are apparent in the golds and the market is inclined to be a technical one for the time being. In both Corpn. and Mining stocks the setback of this week left the lists substantially in their position of a week ago awaiting fresh stimulation.

Fin. Counsel.

BANON SAYS

MONTREAL, Que, Sept 8—"The general list was unsettled by further decline in U. S. Smelting. The collapse of this issue is to be investigated and cause determined. Whatever conclusions such an investigation may arrive at from a technical standpoint, it is obvious that the cause is lodged simply in the fact that the stock was astutely and thoroughly distributed, that important holders had palmed it off on the public in general. Volume expanded as prices receeded yesterday, but the overages seemed to have lost some of their momentum on the downside. Since prices, however are in for some further correction, traders should continue to sell on rallies and defer purchase for the time being.

Banon.

The market will have two events of importance next week to consider, the Maine elections on Monday and the announcement of the Treasury financing plans on the same day.

Stocks Settle Lower On New York Exchange

(By Frederick Gardner)
(Associated Press Financial Writer)
(A.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

NEW YORK, Sept. 9—Stocks settled a little lower Saturday in a routine market.

Speculation marked time all around pending the important Maine election on Monday and announcement over the week-end of the United States treasury's financing plans.

Results of the Maine vote were awaited on the theory it would show how the winds of popular favor were blowing with respect to the new deal. The textile strike and business trends were given secondary consideration in the market discussion of events.

The substantial gain in railroad carloadings last week, which lifted total loadings to a new peak for the year, was hailed as indication of seasonal expansion tendencies in business. But neither that nor hope for settlement of the textile controversy was sufficient to overcome the market's inertia.

United States government bonds slipped a bit while the financial district tried to guess the terms of the forthcoming treasury offering. Otherwise the investment market reflected much the same waiting attitude evident in stocks and commodities. The United States dollar, too, pursued a quiet and steady course in foreign exchange dealings.

Small losses overshadowed minor gains at the finish of share dealings. The Standard Statistics Co., average for 90 stocks sagged three-tenths of a point to 70.6. Turnover in the two-hours session was only 211,400 shares.

American Can, American Telephone, Bethlehem Steel, General Motors, Montgomery Ward, Du Pont, U. S. Steel and other important shares moved narrowly, closing with minor changes up and down.

Gold and silver shares straightened out into a steady course after their sharp declines earlier in the week. U. S. Smelting and Refining, which had dropped from a top at 141 to within a fraction of 119, closed a trifle higher after moving in a range of less than two points. Alaska Juneau recovered 5-8 of a point.

American Sugar, Continental Can Louisville and Nashville and Union Carbide lost 1 to 2 points.

New York City Traction shares alone distinguished themselves for strength. They were stimulated by reports of additional unification moves. Manhattan guaranteed jumped 5 1-2 points, Interborough shares 1 1-2 and B. M. T. more than a point.

The cotton market here closed before the government published its monthly crop estimate, showing a small increase, futures ended 10 cents higher to 25 cents a bale lower. Cereals were heavy, corn and wheat closing fractionally lower.

Recent slowing of automobile buying was evident in General motors' August report, showing sales to consumers in the United States totalling 86,958 units compared with 101,243 in July and 86,372 in August, 1933. World sales to dealers amounted to 109,278 against 134,324 in July and 97,614 in August, 1933. Cram's reports estimated automobile production this week had increased 5,5880 to 32,588 units on a recovery from the pre-labor day curtailment. That compared with 43,121 in the same week last year.

MINING

(Canadian Press)

TORONTO, Sept. 9—Mining shares found the going a bit heavy in the closing session of the Toronto Exchange and most of the active issues finished the day behind minus signs. Some of the cheaper gold shares turned over in substantial volume but the shares of the big gold producers were almost dormant and outside of Noranda the Base Metal and silver shares were scantily traded.

The session brought active selling of Central Patricia at a loss of 5 cents to 1.10 and San Antonio drifted down 15 cents to 5.20. Losses of 2 to 4 cents were registered for Sylvanite, St. Anthony, Siscoe, McKenzie, God's Lake and McVittie. Read-Authier and B. R. X. dropped 6 cents each, Bradian 5, Gunnar God 10, and Reno 7. Ventures remained unchanged at $1.

Some of the penny stock, particularly Chibougamau and Wayside traded heavily, the former at a gain of ⅝ and the latter holding unchanged at 10½.

Security Prices Sag On Montreal Stock Market

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

MONTREAL, Sept. 9—Security prices on the Montreal Stock Exchange continued their downward trend during Saturday's short and listless session. Eighteen issues made an appearance and only three gained ground, 11 being lower and four remaining unchanged from their former closing levels.

Weakness of interlisted stocks was still apparent, Brazilian Traction being off 1-8 at 10 after touching 9 7-8 during the morning. Canadian Pacific was also softer, closing at 13, off 1-4 although it changed hands at 13 1-8 in the course of the trading period. International Nickel was not traded in board lots.

The worst sufferers in the short session were Bruck Silk, down 1 3-8 at 14 and Canada Northern Power, being off 1 1-4 at 19 3-4.

The alcohol issues pursued opposite courses to each other. Canadian Industrial Alcohol "A" declining 1-8 at 8 1-2 and the "B" issue gaining 1-4 at 7 3-4. Fractions were lost by Montreal Power, Steel of Canada, National Steel Car, Massey Harris, Canada Cement, McColl Frontenac and Steel of Canada.

Agnew Surpass advanced a full point at 7 and St. Lawrence Corporation was up 10 cents at 1.95.

Stocks holding steady were Shawinigan Power, St. Lawrence Flour, Dominion Steel and Coal "B" and Dryden.

Sales 3,600 shares; bonds 6,000.

GRAIN

CHICAGO, Sept. 9—After ascending Saturday to new high price levels for the current movement, wheat eased down owing largely to profit taking incident to a week of almost continuous gains.

Late setbacks of wheat values were influenced also by a sharp dip in cotton quotations after issuance of the government crop report showing a yield above trade expectations. A cut in corn production figures was expected to be oficially reported Monday, but appeared to have been discounted in advance.

Wheat closed easy ¼-⅝ under Friday's finish, December new 1.07¼-⅜, corn ⅝-¾ off, Dec new 79, oats at ⅜ decline to ¼ advance, and provisions varying from 5 cents loss to 5 cents gain.
