UP FROM THE MEADOW.

(By J. Donald Adams, in the "Outlook," New York.)

A bird's song in the meadow Comes up the hill to me,
And I will find that glad, brave bird,
Wherever he may be.

Down the hill of daisies, with their drooping heads of white, Among the lark, dry grasses, under the broad sunlight,
I hear and follow the high sweet call.

On the parched air of August noon
The instant cooling accents fall
With silver softness like the moon.

Up through the golden veil of early-apple days
I mount the hill-top, and across the haze

Of midday summer sun
A flash of feather stirs the air,
And a new song's begun.

JACKSONVILLE ELDER

WRITES CHARACTERISTIC LETTER REGARDING LOSS OF APPETITE

He says:
"Vinol is just the thing.
For summer, winter, fall or spring,
Follow directions, take it right,
It will save your lagging appetite."
"I know for I have tried it. For weeks I could scarcely eat enough to keep a snake alive. I have taken three bottles of Vinol and now it looks like I will eat my head off. I am at the table three times a day eating as I did in the good old days when I split rails, dug wells, topped trees, plowed corn and hoed cotton.
Try Vinol and see how good it feels to be real hungry."

When you ought to be hungry and are not it is because your stomach does not feel strong enough to ask for food—a sure sign of impaired general health. Better than dosing the stomach with pepsin for temporary relief is taking Vinol, our delicious tonic which has the strengthening and blood-making power of iron, and the building-up value of cod liver oil. It quickly restores appetite and perfect digestion. If Vinol does not help you it costs you nothing.

FOX HUNTS.—Fox hunts are becoming quite frequent. Yesterday an alarm was telephoned in to the Canada Fox Exchange that a fox had been seen in the vicinity of John Andrews, East Royalty. A hunting party was immediately got together and started for the scene. They took with them three fox hounds. They spent the whole morning in search of the animal but beyond seeing a few tracks they were unsuccessful.
