A business change of considerable interest has taken place here during the past week. Bowness and Newsome of Crapaud have sold their business at Crapaud to Geo. Wood and his son Brent C. Wood. The firm will take charge immediately. Messrs. Bowness and Newsome have done a large business and both members of the firm are very popular with the public, and it is regretted that the enterprising young men are to leave the province, going to the Pacific Coast, as soon as they can close their business. Geo. Wood the senior member of the new firm is a well known and popular farmer of Albany. His farm will be taken over by his two sons Howard and Raymond Wood. The junior members of the firm has been a successful farmer at Victoria. He has sold his farm to Ross Boulter. The Messrs. Wood Co., will enlarge the premises occupied by Bowness and Newsome by the removal of a partition, by which they will add a large section to the firm. They will also add several lines to those carried by the old firm.

On Monday the second, sixty (60) auto were brought to the Island by the car ferry and over five hundred passengers were landed the same day.

The following from Fredericton, N. B., are visiting Tryon, Eldon E. Dazett, Mrs. Lillian Merrithew and Miss Annie Turra.

Ellsworth, Fields was visiting friends at Tryon this week. He is the son of the late Rev. Mr. Field who was for several years pastor of the Baptist Church here. The young man is being warmly welcomed to the community especially for the sake of his father's memory still beloved by many of the older members of the congregation. Mrs. Fields is residing in St. John, N. B. Her friends are pleased to know she is in good health.

St. Peters And Vicinity

Mr. John W. Sanderson, Greenwick, is No. 1 in completing his hay crop--40 acres this year, all in good shape. They hay crop on the average is a good crop in this section.

Mr. Arthur Sanderson, who had the misfortune to lose his lovely farm buildings and barn by fire last fall, has the frame of a magnificent one "raising out of the ashes," and a good crop to put into it.

Mr. Leith Sanderson, one of our prosperous young farmers, has purchased a new model Chevrolet recently.

Mrs. Hattie E. Coffin, of Boston, who has spent the past month with friends here, has been joined by her son, Ira, and have opened up the old homestead for the summer.

Mrs. R. A. Hyndman and Miss Laura Whitman returned to their home from Moncton, where they took part in the C.N.R. broadcasting concert recently held there.

We regret to chronicle the continued illness of Mrs. Alice Hyndman, widow of our esteemed friend the late A. B. Hyndman, Esq.

Mr. Harry Morris, our lone sportsman, is enjoying himself as usual this summer in his bungalow at Schooner Pond. He recently had a visit from Mr. Ralph Parker, postmaster, Farmington, Mass., and friend Mr. Mills. They had great luck with the speckled beauties.

Quietness serene, where so recently all was agog with activity, applies to
