CENTRAL CALF CLUB COMPETITION

Second Annual Exhibit Eclipsed First—100 Animals From 18 Clubs Shown.

The elements refused to favor the second annual Calf Club Competition held at Charlottetown on September 21st and 22nd. For two days there was broken weather of a distinctly disagreeable nature, but rain and mud as only an Islander can understand it, and the danger of ditched cars and trucks with their loads of calves did not prevent the enthusiastic competitors from gathering from all points to this important event. Physically they may have been wet, but their spirits were by no means dampened. Not only were the Club members directly interested there to answer roll call but also their fellow members, fathers, mother, sisters, brothers and friends as well as a host of intensely interested livestock breeders, all of whom pronounced the Show a wonderful success.

were well satisfied with the Show and disposed of their duties with satisfaction to all.
