A Guardian reporter had the pleasure of a visit to the show rooms of Chandler and Bell, 160 Kent Street. The enterprise of this firm is certainly commendable in carrying such a splendid stock of granite and marble. The importations are from Scotland, Sweden and New Brunswick, and include granite in over a dozen different shades and colors, in real handsome effects. Marble in white and blue, besides different lines of clouded marble. They have at present a large number made ready for the trade and many indeed are the handsome effects shown. They have more than doubled their business this last year and let their business this last year and we anticipate for this firm even greater success in the future. Read their ad carefully in tomorrow's issue.
