

Woman's Realm Social and Personal Fashions Literature

Happenings Of The Week

The first appointment to Princess Elizabeth's household was made on Monday with official announcement that the King has appointed Lady Mary Palmer to be lady-in-waiting to the Princess.

An interesting visitor here this week is Miss E. M. B. Warren, an English artist well and favorably known in Canada and the United States, who due to war conditions is now a resident in Ottawa.

Miss Lois Mackinlay of Albany, N. Y., is being welcomed on her annual summer visit.

Mrs. Murray, wife of Lieut. Durrell Murray, arrived last evening from Brookline, Mass., to visit her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Murray.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. MacPhail of Ottawa, are spending the week at the old family residence.

Miss Beulah Beer is among the holiday visitors at Stanhope Beach Inn.

Dr. and Mrs. David MacKenzie of Montreal arrived in the City last week and left for Eldon where they will spend the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph V. Ames of Sherbrooke, Quebec, arrived in the City this week to spend the summer at Stanhope Beach.

Miss Winnifred Gillan arrived by plane last Saturday from Worcester, Mass., and is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Beer and Dr. C. H. Beer.

Miss Alder of the staff of the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, is having a most enjoyable holiday at Cavendish.

Miss Nettie Warren has arrived from London, Ont., on her annual summer visit.

PROBLEM SOLVED. Angus was displaying to his neighbor, McDonald, the second-hand car he had bought.

GOT HIS NUMBER. After a busy day the airman returned to his station. The ground staff eyed his machine in amazement and dashed wires.

RECENTLY ARRIVED MEMBERS OF THE CANADIAN WOMEN'S ARMY CORPS AT THE MAPLE LEAF CLUB IN NAPLES.

Recently arrived members of the Canadian Women's Army Corps at the Maple Leaf Club in Naples enjoy a dish of ice cream.

Recently arrived members of the Canadian Women's Army Corps at the Maple Leaf Club in Naples enjoy a dish of ice cream.

Recently arrived members of the Canadian Women's Army Corps at the Maple Leaf Club in Naples enjoy a dish of ice cream.

Recently arrived members of the Canadian Women's Army Corps at the Maple Leaf Club in Naples enjoy a dish of ice cream.

Recently arrived members of the Canadian Women's Army Corps at the Maple Leaf Club in Naples enjoy a dish of ice cream.

Recently arrived members of the Canadian Women's Army Corps at the Maple Leaf Club in Naples enjoy a dish of ice cream.

Recently arrived members of the Canadian Women's Army Corps at the Maple Leaf Club in Naples enjoy a dish of ice cream.

Recently arrived members of the Canadian Women's Army Corps at the Maple Leaf Club in Naples enjoy a dish of ice cream.

Recently arrived members of the Canadian Women's Army Corps at the Maple Leaf Club in Naples enjoy a dish of ice cream.

Recently arrived members of the Canadian Women's Army Corps at the Maple Leaf Club in Naples enjoy a dish of ice cream.

Recently arrived members of the Canadian Women's Army Corps at the Maple Leaf Club in Naples enjoy a dish of ice cream.

Recently arrived members of the Canadian Women's Army Corps at the Maple Leaf Club in Naples enjoy a dish of ice cream.

Recently arrived members of the Canadian Women's Army Corps at the Maple Leaf Club in Naples enjoy a dish of ice cream.

Ellen's Diary

By An Island Farmer's Wife

I was back to schedule when I assisted James early this morning on the road this morning. Not that I really bear so much of the burden but then as he sometimes will admit my "company's worth something."

I stood at the gap beside the lane to keep the cows from pasture while the cows slipped quietly by me to the meadow below the house from whence they are taken to the milking. Then I let the following James with one of the other farm-horses on his studies for the morning ration of grain.

It was Jeanie who called my attention to some visitors she discovered at the house. They were with ours to the man to breakfast.

There was bread-making at Alder's this morning. The many modern methods used in the present "stiff of life" are both interesting and varied.

When I finally had the Saturday work pretty well attended to, I was not to be excused to my red roses and then promptly for the passing of time.

The wedding was finished this afternoon and then after chores were over, we went again at the lawn cutting.

James has a great idea this evening. He has been thinking of a book to write. It is no excuse to say that he is too busy to write.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Mahony, 915 Fifth Street, New Westminster, B. C., are the proud parents of Major John Keefer Mahony, of the Westminster Regiment who has been awarded the Victoria Cross for heroism in leading his company to establish and maintain against terrific odds a bridgehead across the River Meifa, Italy, on May 24, last.

Dorothy Dix Says—

ENGAGEMENT TIME FOR THOUGHT

Most Divorces Could Be Prevented If Couples Checked Each Other's Characters

A young man asks: "Just what should an engagement mean to a young couple who have promised to marry each other?" Well, in my opinion, the chief thing it should mean is that their engagement has given them a little interlude in which to search their own hearts and all wool and a yard wide and that will stand the hard work of every-day life, or whether it is just a yard of pink chiffon that will go into rags and tatters before the honeymoon is over.

And the next thing they should do is to put in the months of waiting during an engagement in trying to find out what sort of a life companion the party of the other part will make.

And what about John? Has he any line of conversation that can interest an intelligent woman after finding? Does he have to be handled with gloves to keep him from going into a tantrum? Does he have a Yale lock on his pocketbook to which no wife will ever find the combination?

COUPLE TAKE OPTION ON EACH OTHER. An engagement should be regarded as just an option that a couple take on each other, not as a binding contract like marriage.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

And another week filled with momentous happenings world-wide has gone down the river of time.

As Long as I Live

By EMILIE LORING

Her parents were charming, with an up to the minute knowledge of world happenings, politics, books, art and sports. They had hosts of friends, they were so good-looking that eyes were to gaze at them as they passed; they were generous to a fault. Their love of this social side of life, the beautiful and the choice had trapped them after her chilling and fever. She couldn't remember a time during the last few years, when Monday morning hadn't found her mother figuring bills and her father shaking his white head over them.

For each dozen eggs produced, a hen will eat about seven pounds of feed.

To afford success a quick exit through bulkheads if trapped below decks, a new plastic kick-out plate has been perfected which is generally made to withstand steady pressure, yet will break under sudden impact.

A GIANT IRRIGATION SCHEME THAT WILL MULTIPLY FERTILITY. From South Australia comes the good news that on the River Murray the greatest irrigation scheme has reached success by which hundreds of millions of gallons of water will be carried great distances to add to the fertility of the land.

Who do you want to see? The crisp voice of the girl at the switchboard snapped Joan out of her reflection.

He'll see you, Scott Rand is the man you want.

Scott Rand passed another door marked Philip Bard, another which he claimed to be an inquiring world that the Production Manager did bustle in, before she opened one marked Art Director. Two greenish eyes regarded her gloomily as she entered. The desk behind which he sat the man in white.

Will you look at these proofs? Joan asked eagerly.

Yes, Joan Crofton. Say, I've heard of you. You did that big dog-soup campaign, didn't you? 'Soap! Soap! Be-u-tiful soap,' or words to that effect.

It seemed but an instant before a slight, forlorn looking man entered and closed the door behind him.

Scott Rand was on his feet. His hair reared as he tapped a page of the portfolio with one hand and waved the other in the direction of Joan.

LITTLE GIRL'S DOUBLE BREASTED SWEATER. He opened the door for her, a courtesy Joan had not expected from the man who had remained tilted back in his chair when she entered.

She went out into the street with her head high and an all-right glow in her heart.

He opened the door for her, a courtesy Joan had not expected from the man who had remained tilted back in his chair when she entered.

She went out into the street with her head high and an all-right glow in her heart.

He opened the door for her, a courtesy Joan had not expected from the man who had remained tilted back in his chair when she entered.

She went out into the street with her head high and an all-right glow in her heart.

He opened the door for her, a courtesy Joan had not expected from the man who had remained tilted back in his chair when she entered.

She went out into the street with her head high and an all-right glow in her heart.

He opened the door for her, a courtesy Joan had not expected from the man who had remained tilted back in his chair when she entered.

She went out into the street with her head high and an all-right glow in her heart.

He opened the door for her, a courtesy Joan had not expected from the man who had remained tilted back in his chair when she entered.

She went out into the street with her head high and an all-right glow in her heart.

He opened the door for her, a courtesy Joan had not expected from the man who had remained tilted back in his chair when she entered.

She went out into the street with her head high and an all-right glow in her heart.

He opened the door for her, a courtesy Joan had not expected from the man who had remained tilted back in his chair when she entered.

She went out into the street with her head high and an all-right glow in her heart.

He opened the door for her, a courtesy Joan had not expected from the man who had remained tilted back in his chair when she entered.

She went out into the street with her head high and an all-right glow in her heart.

He opened the door for her, a courtesy Joan had not expected from the man who had remained tilted back in his chair when she entered.

Living & Leisure

The Woman's Realm

He either fears his fate too much, Or his desires are small, Who dreads not put it to the touch, To win or lose it all. —James Graham.

And sure there is music even in the beauty, and the silent nose which Cupid strikes, far sweeter for there music wherever there is harmony, order or proportion; and thus far we may maintain the music of the spheres.—Sir Thomas Browne.

For each dozen eggs produced, a hen will eat about seven pounds of feed.

To afford success a quick exit through bulkheads if trapped below decks, a new plastic kick-out plate has been perfected which is generally made to withstand steady pressure, yet will break under sudden impact.

A GIANT IRRIGATION SCHEME THAT WILL MULTIPLY FERTILITY. From South Australia comes the good news that on the River Murray the greatest irrigation scheme has reached success by which hundreds of millions of gallons of water will be carried great distances to add to the fertility of the land.

Who do you want to see? The crisp voice of the girl at the switchboard snapped Joan out of her reflection.

He'll see you, Scott Rand is the man you want.

Scott Rand passed another door marked Philip Bard, another which he claimed to be an inquiring world that the Production Manager did bustle in, before she opened one marked Art Director. Two greenish eyes regarded her gloomily as she entered. The desk behind which he sat the man in white.

Will you look at these proofs? Joan asked eagerly.

Yes, Joan Crofton. Say, I've heard of you. You did that big dog-soup campaign, didn't you? 'Soap! Soap! Be-u-tiful soap,' or words to that effect.

It seemed but an instant before a slight, forlorn looking man entered and closed the door behind him.

Scott Rand was on his feet. His hair reared as he tapped a page of the portfolio with one hand and waved the other in the direction of Joan.

LITTLE GIRL'S DOUBLE BREASTED SWEATER. He opened the door for her, a courtesy Joan had not expected from the man who had remained tilted back in his chair when she entered.

She went out into the street with her head high and an all-right glow in her heart.

He opened the door for her, a courtesy Joan had not expected from the man who had remained tilted back in his chair when she entered.

She went out into the street with her head high and an all-right glow in her heart.

He opened the door for her, a courtesy Joan had not expected from the man who had remained tilted back in his chair when she entered.

She went out into the street with her head high and an all-right glow in her heart.

He opened the door for her, a courtesy Joan had not expected from the man who had remained tilted back in his chair when she entered.

She went out into the street with her head high and an all-right glow in her heart.

He opened the door for her, a courtesy Joan had not expected from the man who had remained tilted back in his chair when she entered.

She went out into the street with her head high and an all-right glow in her heart.

He opened the door for her, a courtesy Joan had not expected from the man who had remained tilted back in his chair when she entered.

She went out into the street with her head high and an all-right glow in her heart.

He opened the door for her, a courtesy Joan had not expected from the man who had remained tilted back in his chair when she entered.

She went out into the street with her head high and an all-right glow in her heart.

He opened the door for her, a courtesy Joan had not expected from the man who had remained tilted back in his chair when she entered.

She went out into the street with her head high and an all-right glow in her heart.

He opened the door for her, a courtesy Joan had not expected from the man who had remained tilted back in his chair when she entered.

She went out into the street with her head high and an all-right glow in her heart.

He opened the door for her, a courtesy Joan had not expected from the man who had remained tilted back in his chair when she entered.

She went out into the street with her head high and an all-right glow in her heart.

He opened the door for her, a courtesy Joan had not expected from the man who had remained tilted back in his chair when she entered.

She went out into the street with her head high and an all-right glow in her heart.

VANILLA ADDICT

Montezuma, the Aztec ruler of Mexico, is reported to have been fond of vanilla. He drank as much as 50 pitchers a day of a vanilla flavored liquid.

HINTS ON RETROUVE. Don't depend too much on your good looks to make you successful. If you have had manners, habits, thoughtfulness and clean, bright, your beauty will count for little.

A baby bear when first born is about the size of a gray squirrel and weighs only about half a pound, although its mother may weigh 500 pounds.

NOT TIMELINESS. We sometimes hear the Mediterranean referred to as a "tidal sea," but the statement is not correct. The tides in the western half of the sea are measured only in inches, but they are much larger farther east.

Coffin-Shaw Nuptials

Trinity United Church, Charlottetown, P. E. I., beautifully decorated with mixed flowers, was the scene of a wedding of wide interest on July 10th, at four o'clock.

Frances Alexandra Coffin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Coffin of this city, became the bride of Mr. Cyril A. R. Shaw of Montserrat, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Allan Coffin of Charlottetown. The brother of the bride, Rev. E. T. Coffin, officiated, assisted by Rev. T. MacLennan, Minister of the church. Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. John Dewis, the groomsmen being Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy White, both of Charlottetown.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a long white dress of brocaded satin in princess lines, with sweetheart neckline and long sleeves. Her hair was in a heart-shaped hair style and trimmed with white forget-me-nots. She carried a bouquet of roses, an exquisite shower of Biedermeier roses. Mrs. Dewis wore a long sheer dress of pale pink with white finger-tip length sleeves. Her little hat in Dutch style, was made of matching flower petals and carried a bouquet of Queen Elizabeth roses.

The bride's mother wore a dainty pink afternoon dress and large black hat with white gloves and a corsage of white carnations.

During the signing of the register, Mrs. Ralph L. Douglas, Montreal, sister of the bride, sang "I Walk Beside You" by Martin. She was accompanied by Prof. A. Roy Kendall who presided at the organ also in the playing of the wedding marches and special nuptial music.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the beautiful home of Mrs. L. H. Coffin, 141 Brighton Ave., where intimate friends and relatives were present. The bride's party was brilliantly decorated with white and pink, and tall ivory candles. The wedding cakes were lavishly decorated with pink roses. Mrs. M. P. MacDonald, of Montserrat, and Mrs. Edgar E. Allan presided. The bridesmaids were Mrs. James Dewar, Miss Irene MacLeod, Mrs. James Shaw, Mrs. John Gordon, Mrs. Douglas Coffin, Mrs. James Wilson and Miss Joyce Coffin.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. T. E. MacLennan, and the groom responded.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Shaw left on a motor trip through New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. Travelling the bride wore a two-piece dress of light pink crepe with a floral hat in pink and blue. She carried a bouquet of the same colors, and wore white shoes and gloves.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Shaw wish them long years of happy married life.

THE COOK'S CORNER

FOUND CAKE

This is a lovely modern version of a fine old-fashioned cake. It requires four eggs, so is one to make when you can spare them. Its recipe is so simple that even a beginner is very modest. No butter is used, yet our blend of flavors (provided you use high-grade ingredients) is most delicious. It is not likely that you will actually identify ginger as a flavor, but the ginger gives it a pleasant surprise. It is best blended into the ensemble (about 1/2 cup) and the flavor to be more delicate (save the amount). Make it another delightful cake with which to flavor a pound cake.

1/2 teaspoon baking powder 1/2 teaspoon salt 1/2 teaspoon ground ginger 4 eggs, well beaten 4 tablespoons shortening 1 cup fine granulated sugar

Measure and mix together these times the flour, baking powder, salt and ginger.

Cream shortening and gradually blend in the sugar; add beaten eggs a little at a time, beating well after each.

Add the sifted dry ingredients, a third at a time, to the creamed mixture, blending well, but lightly after each addition.

Turn into a buttered and lightly floured small tube pan.

Bake in a slow oven, 300 degrees, about 1 1/2 to 2 hours.

TO HEAD U. S. RED CROSS. WASHINGTON, July 13. (AP)—President Roosevelt today appointed Dr. Basil O'Connor, head of the National Foundation of Infantile Paralysis, as chairman of the Central Committee of the American Red Cross to succeed the late Norman H. Davis.

O'Connor is a former New York law partner of Mr. Roosevelt.

READY FOR COMBAT. Allied paratroops jump with radio sets, weapons, ammunition and light equipment necessary to support them upon landing.

Questions and Answers on Price Control will appear in The Guardian as a regular feature each day. The questions are those which have reached the Wartime Prices and Trade Board from housewives in this region. The answers are provided by the Board Readers. Persons who have intelligent questions are invited to send them in writing to the Women's Regional Advisory Committee, c/o War Time Prices and Trade Board.

Q. For years I have had my hair treated for 25c. This is not a hair cut, but a neck trim. The barber now charges me 50c. Is he allowed to raise the price like that?

A. If he trimmed your hair for 25c during the basic period in 1941 he is not allowed to raise his price unless he first obtained permission from the Board, and it is doubtful that the Board would allow this increase.

Q. How do I obtain tea-coffee coupons for children who have become 12 years of age since No. 4 book was issued?

A. If they reached the age of 12 in 1943, they should have been supplied with the tea and coffee coupons when their 12th birthday was celebrated. If they have reached 12 since the time you will have to wait until the No. 4 book is issued.

Q. I am going to the Y. W. C. A. Camp for one week in August. Will it be necessary for me to take my ration book?

A. No, for such a short stay it is not necessary to take your ration book. It is only necessary to take your book if you intend to stay for a period of 14 days or longer.

Recently arrived members of the Canadian Women's Army Corps at the Maple Leaf Club in Naples enjoy a dish of ice cream.

Recently arrived members of the Canadian Women's Army Corps at the Maple Leaf Club in Naples enjoy a dish of ice cream.

Recently arrived members of the Canadian Women's Army Corps at the Maple Leaf Club in Naples enjoy a dish of ice cream.

Recently arrived members of the Canadian Women's Army Corps at the Maple Leaf Club in Naples enjoy a dish of ice cream.

Recently arrived members of the Canadian Women's Army Corps at the Maple Leaf Club in Naples enjoy a dish of ice cream.

Recently arrived members of the Canadian Women's Army Corps at the Maple Leaf Club in Naples enjoy