CANUCKS AND CHICAGO WIN N.H.L. GAMES

First Victory Of Season For Colorful Mt'l. Team

Black Hawks Assume Leadership Of U. S. Section With 3-2 Win Over Bruins.

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Montreal Canadiens finally crashed through for a victory tonight in the young National Hockey League season, defeating New York Rangers 3-2 in a battle of the tall ends in Madison Square Garden before 8,000 Canadian fans, unsteady in their first four games, played superbly tonight to earn the decision which came in the second period on an odd goal. Earl Seibert, Ranger defenseman deflected the puck into his own net with his skate. Armand Mondou had passed the disc out from behind the net and it bounced off big Earl's blade past the surprised goalie Andy Aitkenhead.

Sturdy bodychecking of Roger Jenkins and G. T. Carson, plus close backchecking by the forwards, held off Ranger attacks from forward lines which Manager Lester Patrick shook up for the game. Ranger's second straight home defeat. He sent Bun Cook to the second line, moving Butch Keeling up to left wing on the first with Frank Boucher and Cecil Dillon. These combinations seemed to lack the intuitive team work of the old Boucher-Cook-Cook passing plays. Bun Cook and Murray Murdoch collected the first goal on an snappy rebound play, from man Murdoch scoring, but Rangers came out of the first period down a goal following scoring by Jack McMill and Joe Lamb.

McMill scored his first goal in professional hockey when he took a pass from Nels Crutchfield, his partner on McGill University's championship squad of last year, darted through the Seibert-Johnson defence and slid a low shot under the falling Aitkenhead. Canadian's most effective line of the night, Jack Riley, Mondou and Lamb, opened a neat passing attack from which Lamb secured his first goal of the season.

After Mondou's gift goal in the second period Frank Boucher put Rangers back in the fight with a well executed play and a steaming shot. All through the scoreless third period Rangers tried desperately but the Habitant defence held firm.

SUMMARY
First Period

2.—Canadiens, McMill (Crutchfield) 10-40.
3.—Canadiens, Lamb, (Riley and Mondou) 16-42.
Penalties: F. Cook, Crutchfield.

Second Period
4.—Canadiens, Mondou, 5-50.
5.—Rangers, Boucher (Johnson) 11-14.
Penalties: Mason.

Third Period
No score.
Penalties: Larocq, Ile.

BLACKHAWKS 3, BRUINS 2

BOSTON, Nov. 27.—Chicago Blackhawks jumped to the top of the National Hockey League's American division tonight by defeating Boston Bruins 3-2 for the second time in three nights. It was a fast and bruising conflict, similar to the Sunday affair in Chicago when the Hawks gained a 4-0 verdict. The fast-skating visitors tallied twice in the second period when Johnny Gottselig and

MAY COMPETE IN RYDER CUP SERIES

Change Urged in Deed of Cup, So As To Allow British Open Champ to be Eligible.

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—A stroke of diplomacy, silhouetted against a commercial motive, may pave the way for Henry Cotton, British open golf champion, to be a member of Great Britain's team of professionals which will come to the United States next summer for the fifth renewal of the international Ryder Cup series.

Under the deed of gift of Samuel Ryder's trophy, competed for biennially, participating knights of the niblick must not only have been born in either the British Isles or the United States but reside there as well.

These qualifications have prevented Cotton's participation since 1929, for the sharpshooting Briton, who won his native championship last summer with a four-round total, is stationed at a club in Brussels, Belgium, and last summer signed a new contract there.

George R. Jacobs, President of the Professional Golfers' Association of America, has written the British P. G. A. urging a change in the deed of gift which would make birth, instead of both birth and residence, the only qualification for membership on the team.

"Henry Cotton is England's best golfer and it would be ridiculous for the British to send over a team without him," said Jacobs. "I have written officials of the British P. G. A., suggesting they try to get Samuel Ryder, who put up the trophy, to change the deed of gift assuring them the U. S. P. G. A. would heartily approve of such action."

JAPS MAY SEE SIX-DAY RACE

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—As soon as Babe Ruth and the touring major league ball players get through demonstrating the nation of United States peacetime to the Japanese, the six-day bicycle riders may invade Japan to show the Islanders why insomnia is also a part of the North American sports scheme of things.

Harry Mendel, promoting next week's semi-annual race here, announced today that Charles Hugo, Chicago theatrical agent with Nipponese experience, is negotiating for races in Tokyo and Osaka for next April. The race in Tokyo would be held indoors; that in Osaka outdoors under a tent, the first time anything like that has been suggested in all the history of the whirriges.

London Tecs Get Goldworthy

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—LeRoy Goldworthy, right wing, today was loaned to London Teumehes of the International Hockey League by Chicago Blackhawks of the National League, for an indefinite period. He will be subject to immediate recall.

With the return of Milt Romnes to the fold, the Hawks today started trimming their staff.

Abegweits Tackle Moncton's Mighty Hawks Tonight

Tonight the hockey fans, and who isn't a hockey fan just now, are in for a real treat. The great Moncton Hawks, Allen Cup winners tangle with the Abbies. All agree the games at The Forum this season, have been sparkling, keeping the spectators in a high state of excitement but standing out in a class by itself was the Moncton-Abbie games.

ABBIES CLASH WITH HAWKS TONIGHT

WITH A CHANCE for both teams to assume leadership of the Big Four League should Wolverines lose to the Beavers at Saint John, Abbies and Hawks are expected to furnish the tid-bit of the hockey season when they cross sticks at the Forum tonight. Riding the crest of a winning streak after garnering five points out of their last three games the local squad are going after two more in no uncertain manner. Coach Harold Gross is to throw the same lineup into the fray that has proved so successful lately. They all came through the Beaver game "in the pink" and yesterday afternoon were on for a short drill to check up on some slight mistakes that were noticeable in Monday night's game. Fans will remember the great struggle the teams waged in the Hawks' last appearance on local ice. That game, regarded as the best ever played on Island ice, is still being talked over. And present indications from the Forum box office point to a near capacity house.

HAWKS IN SAVAGE MOOD

WITH THEIR Maritime hockey supremacy threatened, the Hawks are expected to be in a savage mood as they skate out for the opening whistle tonight. As happens all teams, the Nicklin pack have been in a slight slump but in their game with the Wolves Monday they showed unmistakable signs of recovery and with the rest in between are expected to be right at their peak. They are champions of North America, a title they won through sheer class and ability, and when clobbering are a treat to watch in action.

BEAVERS HOST TO WOLVES

WOLVERINES AT Saint John where the other battle of the league is to be staged. Almost unbeatable on home ice Marsh, Farrell and company are expected to topple the visitors from their top perch in the standing. Since losing their opening game the Beavers have taken every team in stride before the home fans and our guess is that tonight will prove no exception.

IT'S A MIGHTY tough task to gain a commanding lead in the loop as results to date show. Almost anything is liable to happen. Supporting Abbies and Hawks tied tonight and Beavers won, the result tomorrow morning would show all four teams on an even basis. Pretty close battling.

KEEPING in line with the big tink palaces, local officials have installed a sound system at the Forum. As each score is made at the game it will be given to the fans over the speakers. The move will dispel the doubt that always arises as to just who scored the goal and the officials are to be commended on their attempt to have things up to date.

STRONG TEAM IN OFFING

ABEGWEIT intermediates held a brisk workout at the Forum yesterday morning, and judging by some of the speed and hockey ability on display last year's champions, Montague Primrose, will have to look to their laurels.

SEVERAL FORMER senior players and three of last year's junior champs are among those seeking a place on the team besides a large number of newcomers, and present indications point to the Abbies being the strongest intermediate squad that they have had in years.

LESTER PATRICK believes he has already reaped dividends from the hockey school he conducted at Winnipeg. His line of Connolly, Lynn Patrick and Mason has stood up so far. It is still early to rate their ability because a more highly rated duo, the Messers, Manus and Webster, have gone to the minors, although their stay is likely to be only temporary.

LESTER'S YOUNG line is helping him a lot so far. In the past he has been censured because he showed little preference for youthful material, but so far his step in that direction has been bold and decisive, as he hasn't been afraid to give them plenty of work. As the season goes along they may not get so much action, but if he manages to keep three recruits going at their present speed, the old professor will be entitled to give himself a few cheers, which he no doubt will at the earliest opportunity.

Y., acting for E. Roland Harriman of New York, paid $1,550 for Volovics while Vic Fleming of Syracuse bid in Commandant for $1,400.00. One hundred and one horses went under the hammer during the day and brought $42,315.

May Stage American Wimbledon

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Combination of the men's and women's national tennis championships into an "American Wimbledon" next summer, was forecast today by Walter Merrill Hall, President of the United States Lawn Tennis Association.

The sanction and schedule committee has recommended such action, Hall said, and he thought it likely the executive committee also would view the proposal favorably when it meets in New York Dec. 8 to lay plans for the national convention at Cincinnati in February. The final decision will be up to the National meeting but Hall said he believed there was a strong feeling in the U. S. L. T. A. that the experiment was worth a trial.

Wolves Change Name To Consols

Halifax Sextette Will Take The Ice Attired In New Uniforms On Friday Night.

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) HALIFAX, Nov. 27.—Halifax Wolverines officials announced tonight that henceforth their hockey sextette now leading the Maritime Mercantile Hockey League would be known as the British Consols, Friday night they will take the ice attired in new natty uniforms in a different color scheme—purple and white. Manager John H. Conn and H. E. Pike, Halifax wholesaler, expressed satisfaction over the change in nomenclature, seeing in the move a renewed interest in the "Big Four" series.

The new backers of the team stated they were willing to sponsor a Canadian commercial hockey championship along the lines the MacDonald Brier Tankard Curling Bouspiel series is conducted in Toronto each spring.

The proposed hockey series would bring together teams from the far west, the middle west and the east and would some day the sponsors hope rival the Allan Cup series in interest.

TROPHY OFFERED
HALIFAX, Nov. 27.—J. A. Hanway, K. C., president of the Maritime Hockey League and the new Maritime Mercantile Hockey League, came to Halifax on business tonight and ran into a lot of talk about the possibilities for a Canadian commercial championship series.

"An excellent idea," he remarked as he heard a proposal for a national competition along the lines the MacDonald Brier Tankard curling bouspiel series is conducted in Toronto each spring.

Local hockey promoters suggested the hockey series would bring together teams from the far west, the middle west and the east and would some day rival the Allan Cup series in interest.

A trophy emblematic of the championship of the Maritime Mercantile League has been offered to Big Four officials by Stanley C. MacKenzie, Halifax merchant.

The new crest was formed to carry on the Maritime Hockey League schedule after the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association refused to grant transfers for any players who moved after Jan. 1, 1934.

With a large number of new recruits, Charlottetown Abegweits and Saint John Beavers were almost barred from Allan Cup competition by the edict Halifax Wolverines and Moncton Hawks dropped their unseasoned imports at the end of the Mercantile schedule, however, and ice strong teams for the Canadian amateur playdowns.

It is understood that players participating in the commercial league will not lose their amateur standing.

Meanwhile the four teams in the league will change their names to represent various commercial interests.

Manager John H. Conn announced tonight that Halifax Wolverines would take the ice Friday night in new uniforms of purple and white and would be known in the new league as the British Consols.

Pays $7,300 For The Master

(A.P. By Guardian's Special Wire) NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Adding to an already powerful stable that includes one of the favorites for the 1935 Hambletonian, E. J. Baker, of St. Charles, Ill., today bid in the Master, a well bred yearling trotter, for $7,300 to top the first day sale of Milt-Harries rears at the Old Glory Auction.

Consigned to the famous auction by Dr. Ogden M. Edwards' Walnut Hill Farm of Donerail, Ky., the royally bred son of Peter Volo went to the stable that houses Greyhound, well considered for the Hambletonian next.

The second highest price of the day was paid by Ken White of Lexington, Ky., who bid $4,600 for Decision, sired by Protector. Decision was also a member of the Walnut Hill consignment of 62 head, which went for $23,990, an average of $750.
