

AMHERST, N. S., Dec. 4.—In the sheep, Cephas Nunn, Winslow, Oliver Sanders, Trilby, Boswell Bros., Lane and John Tweedie won the greater number of prizes and Stewart Bros., Murray River, won the cup in swine. The Tuesday evening meeting was well attended. Dr. P. C. Gauthier of Prince Edward Island was chairman. He spoke at considerable length, calling on the people of the Maritime Provinces to think more of the advantages they possessed and to boost their Province. His speech was one of the best heard for some time from the platform of the Winter Fair Building. It was frequently punctuated by loud and prolonged applause and created the atmosphere which as the Assistant Live Stock Commissioner Mr. Arkell said, made it somewhat easier for the speakers of the evening to do justice to their subjects. Mr. Arkell surely did justice to his. His voice carried well and his well chosen remarks were much appreciated. It is not often an audience hears a speaker who has such a fine command of language and whose sentences are so nicely turned.

Hon. Murdoch McKinnon was the next speaker. He was listened to with marked attention and impressed his hearers with his earnestness and enthusiasm.

R. H. Harding who was judging swine and sheep and who visited the Province during the summer also spoke at considerable length as did Professor Stevenson of the College of Agriculture, Truro, N. S.

Among the prominent farmers visiting the Fair from Prince Edward Island are: Z. M. Laird of Kelvin Grove who is accompanied by Mrs. Laird, Walter Lee of Victoria; Fred Clark of Victoria; Austin Scales of St. Eleanors, Amos Rodd of Milton, Gavin Harding of Grahams Road, E.H. Arsenault of Mt. Carmel, Horace Wright of Bedouque, W. Clark of North Wiltshire, Peter Brodie and W. J. Gibson of York. There were also present Hon. John Mathieson, Premier, Hon. Murdoch McKinnon, Commissioner of Agriculture, Professor Theodore Ross, Charles Williams, Horticulturist, T. A. Benson, Expert Poultryman.

Nearly all the first prizes for seed came to Prince Edward Island. A. B. Dewar of Charlottetown, P.E.I. Island had perhaps the best exhibit of apples in the show. They were large, even well colored and free from spot, scab or other defects.

In class 13 for Gurnseys Roper Bros got one 1st, three 2nd and one 3rd.

Stewart Brothers of Alliston, Kings County, P. E. I. won the Silver Cup for the Grand Championships for pen hogs and seven first prizes and some seconds and thirds.
