Betty Ritchie, 24-year-old former Toronto school teacher, sobbed out her betrayal by a man she trusted, Gerard G. Demis, who has admitted the theft of $600,000 in jewels and furs. "I didn't know Gerard was a crook," she told reporters from her jail cell in Beverly Hills police station in Hollywood. Her red-rimmed eyes showed the strain of the past 24 hours following her arrest in a swank apartment loaded, police said, with $120,000 in stolen goods.

BEDEQUE W. I.

The South Bebedque Women's Institute held their February meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Henderson with seventeen members and one visitor present. The President Mrs. Reg. Forbes was in the chair and meeting opened by singing "It's a good time to get acquainted." The Secretary Mrs. Clayton MacClure read the minutes and sick and school committees gave their reports. It was decided to send two boxes of fruit and the Fernwood teacher Miss Shreenan was authorized to buy supplementary reading books for the Junior Grades.

A stirring discussion followed concerning Income Tax and its effect on farm life and it was decided that we had a debate next meeting on the subject "Should we or should we not encourage our children to remain on the farm." There will be four speakers on each side.
