The fact that very few schooners laden with produce from this Province have so far arrived at Nova Scotia ports where they are eagerly awaited; is commented on by exchanges on the mainland. It appears that vegetables and other products of the farm are in demand and good prices offering for them.

"Bronze K.", the well known standard bred horse, owned by Harry Smith of Bible Hill, died of paralysis of the throat on Thursday the 24th. This valuable stallion was born in P. E. Island ten years ago, and was highly prized by his owner, and much admired by all horsemen.—Truro News.

The Limericks are coming in hand-somely. Some of the writers miss the mark by not taking note that the first line to be supplied must rhyme with the first two. One of the successful ones in the last contest, in acknowledging his cheque for prize money, expresses his pride in his poetry "brings three dollars a line."

Alex. Blue, who formerly lived at West River, in this Province, died recently at Collingwood, Ont. He had suffered for some time from cancer. During his illness every care and attention was given him by kind friends at Collingwood where he was treated in the hospital. His funeral was under the direction of the Sons of Scotland. The deceased had many relatives in this Province.

A new Marconi telegraph station is to be built at Pictou on a commanding site. It is said that it will have a radius of 100 miles in which area it will be possible to send and receive messages. Its principal work will be keeping tabs upon the movements of the winter steamers Minto and Stanley as they endeavor to maintain an continuous winter communication which, when accomplished by the Tunnel will not require the expenses of wire-less stations or ice-breakers.

Mrs. George W. Hyndman, Elgin Street, held her first reception since her marriage on Thursday afternoon and again yesterday. Mrs. Hyndman of Charlottetown, P. E. I., poured the tea and was assisted by Miss Mary Davies and Miss Helen Hall of Perth. White roses centered the tea table and white chrysanthemums were used in the drawing room. The hostess wore her robe des noces, composed of white satin and lace and yesterday she was in pale blue crepe de chine—Truro Citizen.

Notwithstanding the stormy evening of Wednesday there was a fairly good attendance at the Pictou of Wales Assembly Hall to hear Mr. Jilly. He told some laughable stories, each of which pointed a moral and accentuated his cheerful philosophy of life, gave eloquent if possibly too wordy pictures of the San Francisco disaster and the scenic glories of the Yosemite valley and gave some capital recitations. His versatility and variety of fical expression are remarkable, and the sentiments so wittily expressed would incite to uplifting and to a brighter and better life. He was frequently and heartily applauded.

A pretty wedding was solemnized in Winsloe South Methodist Church on Wednesday Oct 30 at 11 a. m. when Etzel Boundy, daughter of John Boundy, Winsloe, was united in marriage to Rev. Hugh Miller of O'Leary. Rev. J. M. Rice officiated. The contracting parties entered the Church to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Amos Boundy. The bride wore light grey crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and maiden hair fern. After the ceremony the guests repaired to the home of the bride's parents where a sumptuous luncheon was served. The presents were numerous and costly testifying to the high esteem in which both parties are held. Mr and Mrs Miller, left yesterday for their future home at O'Leary.

The Island Condition Powder is a good one. We can give testimonials in its favor from many of our leading farmers. Our sales are ever increasing. This speaks for itself. Etc. A. W. Reddin, P. E. I.

It is simply useless for correspondents to send The Guardian items of news unaccompanied by the names of the senders. In many cases neglect or forgetfulness is the reason the communications are unsigned. Nothing can be done however with these offerings except to consign them to the waste basket.

At Wednesday last night big audiences rounded out their Thanksgiving holiday by taking in the moving pictures, which were particularly interesting and amusing. Tonight there is to be an entire change of program and the pictures will comprise subjects that will furnish an evening of unequalled entertainment.

The police last night patrolled the City in a wagon in order to overcome the youngsters who were indulging in the usual Halloween pranks. They frightened a number of juveniles, but did not obtain anyone. There were evidences late at night that the boys had been out. Doors were and gates disappeared in many places and the benches in Queen Square Gardens looked as if an earthquake had occurred.

A telegram received in this City last night from Halifax, stated that Ivan Reddin had got twelfth place in the Halifax Mail's one mile road race, and that Collin McNevin the only other entry from this Province had not finished. As there were over eighty entries from all over the Maritime Provinces Reddin's performance was very creditable. It will be remembered that Reddin was the winner of The Guardian's road race here last summer, in which McNevin did not participate.

Mr. J. H. McNevin, of the P. E. I. has been elected to the position of Treasurer of the Maritime Provinces. He was elected at a meeting of the Maritime Provinces Association held in Charlottetown on Wednesday last. Mr. McNevin was elected by a large majority of the members present. He is a well known and popular member of the Association and his election is a great honor to him.
