DRIFTING VESSEL PICKED UP

LIGHTNING PIERCES CANS

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire) NORTH EAST PUBNICO, N. S., Oct. 2.—Two coffee tins were pierced with holes the size of a walnut when lightning hit the store of Miss Deserta Smith. The cans did not bulge an inch when struck. No other damage was done in the store.

When a mother detects from the writhings and fretting of a child that worms are troubling it, she can procure no better remedy than Miller's Worm Powders, which are guaranteed to totally expel worms from the system. They may cause vomiting, but this need cause no anxiety because it is but a manifestation of their thorough work. No worms can long exist where these Powders are used.

—CONCERT ENJOYED — A further expression of co-operation and goodwill in neighboring communities was shown on Friday evening, September 28th, when a group of talented young people from Montague gave a delightful entertainment in the hall on Whim Road, in the interest of the Whim Road branch of the Women's Missionary Society, United Church. The Reverend Gordon, G. Pringle, who sponsored the entertainment, acted as chairman, and his humorous stories and remarks which accompanied the announcement of each selection were a real and most enjoyable part of the program. A selection was given by a mixed quartet consisting of Mr. Harry McGregor, Miss Alva Brehaut, Mr. Allison McLean and Mr. Howard Vickerson, accompanied by Miss Vivian Armstrong. Readings were given by Mrs. Gordon C. Pringle, and by Miss Frances Coffin, a solo by Miss Armstrong, accompanied by Miss Alva Brehaut, and a solo by Miss Ellen Coffin, accompanied by her sister, Miss Frances Coffin, a violin solo by Mr. Archibald Hume, accompanied by Mrs. Hume; a selection by a male quartet, consisting of Mr. Allison McLean, Mr. Howard Vickerson, Mr. Herman Martin, and Mr. Martin Curry, accompanied by Miss Alva Brehaut; a duet by Mrs. Harry McGregor and Mr. Allison McLean, accompanied by Miss Alva Brehaut. All of these selections were splendidly done and heartily enjoyed by the audience. The program ended with the chorus "My Old Kentucky Home" and the singing of God Save the King. The members of the Whim Road branch of the Women's Missionary Society are deeply grateful to the Reverend Gordon C. Pringle and to all the other members of the group who contributed so generously of their fine talents, and in direct donations of money to their fund. A number of residents from Montague were also present.
