Save Trade-In Value of Car. REFINISHING JOB BY LAFFERTY & STEELE WILL SATISFY COMPLETELY. Save the surface and you safeguard the trade-in value of your car. Wise motorists realize this and for that reason are having their cars refinished by Lafferty & Steele, located at 2 1-2 Grafton St. in Charlottetown. This business, established in the Fall of 1945, is operated by Messrs. Lafferty & Steele, both veterans of World War II. They not only do complete refinishing jobs to your satisfaction, but they straighten fenders, do body repairs, stonishing, "touching up", they have a full range of colors and can "blend" in so that you can't tell where the work was done. Often cars have come to Lafferty & Steele Auto Body Shop so thoroughly damaged that the owners have given up all hope of using them again; but with their equipment on the shop to use it effectively, they are able to remove every trace of damage and restore the original beauty and usefulness of your car. They can make your car look like new again no matter what the damage.

EX-SERVICEMAN OPERATES ARGYLE SERVICE STATION. One of the many ex-service men starting up a business of their own is Fred A. McLeod, proprietor now of the Argyle Service Station on the Malpeque Road. A member of the Air Force for five years Fred McLeod took over this well known stand shortly after being discharged and despite the fact that the station had been closed down for the matter of five years under his guidance it is gradually getting back the goodwill of the many motorists who had made it their stopping point in years gone by. Handling the well-known McColl-Frontenac products in gas, oil and grease Mr. McLeod has his brother associated in business with him and they are looking after the wants of motorists efficiently whether wants are gas, oil, grease, wash job, simonizing or repair work. They are well equipped to handle a large volume of trade and in addition to the above have a long list of accessories such as batteries, Firestone tires and tubes, AC Spark Plugs, light bulbs, condensers, points, in fact everything a motorist is in need of. You can be sure of courteous, quick service at the ARGYLE SERVICE STATION. So keep it in mind when in need.
