were three children Inez MacInnis, Helen MacAleer and Joseph Dorsey as Yennie, Yanny and Yonnie. The plot centres about the widower who makes a very arduous bridegroom but is finally by the skillful planning of the youngsters forced to accept matrimony as the lesser of two evils. Specialties between the acts consisted of tap-dancing by Lorraine Richard; duet, "Clementine" by Arnold MacGraw and P. MacInnis, also a solo "You're the only Star in my Blue Heaven" by Arnold MacGraw. The play was followed by dancing, music for which was furnished by Gordon and Raymond MacTavish and a sing song with Mrs. James MacAleer at the piano. A delightful lunch was served to the cast of the play by Rev. W. E. Monaghan.—A
