In Memoriam

MRS. ELLEN VICKERSON

Word has been received by Mr. Mack Vickerson of the sad and unexpected death of his mother, Mrs. Ellen Vickerson, widow of the late William Vickerson, in Moose Jaw, Sask., on March 21st in the 88th year of her age.

MR. JOHN P. BRADLEY

There passed peacefully to his eternal reward on March 23rd at the residence of his nephew, Mr. John P. Bradley, Grafton Street, Charlottetown, a prominent, we can truthfully say—the leading light, the most outstanding member of St. Joseph's Parish, Kelly's Cross, in the person of Mr. John Bradley.

In his young men and the rising generation, as the deceased, if any of its youths possessed ambition and were destined to occupy a place of prominence in the world, Mr. Bradley took the lead in publicly acknowledging and congratulating them on their decisions.

If the writings, both prose and poem, were collated in book form, they would form a collection easily comparable with those of some of the poets prominent in the poetic and classical arena.

His funeral took place to Kelly's Cross Church, Monday morning, March 25th where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Mons. Maurice McDonald, assisted by Revs. P. L. McMahon and Rev. Dr. Curran.

A Tickling In Her Throat For Years

Mrs. Peter Johnson, Port Alberni, B.C., writes:—"I had been troubled for years with a tickling in my throat every time I would lie down, and at night I would cough so I could not sleep, and could hardly do my work. I would cough until I would vomit."

and after the first bottle I had no more cough, and now I am never without a bottle of 'Dr. Wood's' in the house." Price 85c, a bottle; large family size 60c. at all druggists and dealers. Put up only by The T. Millburn Co., Ltd., Toronto, Ont.

new. The pastor and people of this congregation have reason to give thanks to the Father of all mercies for any measure of success that has attended the efforts of his people.

GRAND RIVER DRAMATIC CLUB AT MISCOUCHE

The Grand River Dramatic Club scored another success on Easter Monday when they presented their play "Down East" in Miscouche Hall. There was a large audience, despite the disagreeable evening. There was romance, chivalry and comedy, enough to keep attention alert. For amateurs, every character took to the part assigned in what might be called a natural pose.

Eastern Guardian

—EASTERN AGENTS—Mr. J. W. Murdoch is Guardian Agent in Montague and will be pleased to receive new and renewal subscriptions.

—CONGRATULATIONS are extended to Mr. James G. MacDonald, Creek St. Andrews, who is caulking ships in Charlottetown. This grand gentleman is the age of 80.

—SEASON ADVANCING—The vanguard of the lobster factory hands arrived at Naufrage to prepare for the 1929 season. There are three large factories at Naufrage, which, from now on, will be a brisk place.

—LAND PURCHASE—A. J. McCormick, teacher at Monticello, purchased the John Grensell farm, at Big Bush, Lot 44, and had it surveyed last week showing it to contain 72 acres of good dry land.

—CARNIVAL ENJOYED—The children's carnival was held in the Georgetown rink on Tuesday and the children presented a pretty sight on the ice in their varied and exceedingly original costumes. There was a large number of onlookers who enjoyed the fun as much as the children. Mr. J. A. B. McConnell, Misses Bell Bruce and Myrtle Dingwell judged the costumes. The girls' prize was won by Miss Edna Lavers, her costume representing a bride. Master Merrick Easton won the boy's prize, his costume being that of an artillery man.—A

MEMORIAL LIFE-SIZED STATUE OF THE LITTLE FLOWER

The daughters of the late Clement McDonald, Clear Springs, Mary, Katie and Georgina, have recently donated a life-sized statue of the Little Flower to St. Margaret's Church, in memory of their parents. Mr. and Mrs. Clement McDonald, natives of the parish. The beautiful statue, probably the finest and most costly ever erected in the diocese, was selected by the parish priest, Rev. Father McPherson, and just recently erected beside the large statue of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and is not only a thing of beauty, but very necessary sacramental, as there are now so many devotees to the Little Flower. These girls did surely a meritorious act.

—WELL KNOWN RESIDENT—Seldom were the people of Georgetown more shocked than when they heard of the death of Mr. Jesse W. Clark, which occurred in the Prince Edward Island Hospital. All that medical aid and kind nursing could do was done, but God willed otherwise. He lived for nineteen years in England and enlisted in the war in 1914. He and his wife and family came from England nine years ago and made their home in Georgetown where he was loved and respected by his many friends, who shall long cherish his memory. He carried an atmosphere of good cheer and sunshine upon all with whom he came in contact. His loved ones will often sigh for the vanished hand and long for the voice that is still, but all to no avail. He leaves to mourn his heart-broken widow, three daughters and one son, also one sister, Mrs. Buffett in Souris and two brothers, George and Wallace in U. S. A., also one sister in Newfoundland, besides three half brothers, Jim, Roland and Jack in U. S. A. and one half sister, Mrs. Cowan, Lower Montague. His remains were forwarded to Georgetown, accompanied by his wife and son William and were taken to the home of Mrs. Melville Ross. His funeral took place on Wednesday, April 3rd and was largely attended. Rev. Mr. Fulton of Zion Church, Charlottetown officiated. The hymns were, "Asleep in Jesus" and "Rock of Ages". The many beautiful tributes and letters of sympathy show the high esteem in which he was held. The pall bearers were: Arthur Jenkins, William Fouchere, Glen Jenkins, Daniel Martell, J. H. Skinner, and James Condon. Sincere sympathy is extended.—A
