The Latest and Most Important Reading Matter Selected From This Week's News for the Charlottetown Guardian's Saturday Subscribers

MONDAY

—PAINFULLY INJURED.— Mr. Charles Crowley, a respected citizen of Kensington, had the misfortune on Sunday to break his leg and dislocate his ankle. The accident was the result of slipping on a platform at the rear of the house in which he lives. The limb was seet by Dr. G. E. Gillis, and under such competent skill Mr. Crowley is recovering as rapidly as possible.

—WEDDING BELLS.— A very pretty wedding took place at 6.30 a.m. last Wednesday at St. Mark's Rectory, Kensington, when Miss Rose Sudsbury, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hall Sudsbury of Spring Valley, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Thomas Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell, Burlington. The marriage was solemnized by Rev. G. T. Spriggs. The bride wore a lovely gown of white silk canton crepe trimmed with fur, and was attended by Miss Adeline Campbell. The groom was attended by Mr. Herdon Mann. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell left on the morning train for a short honeymoon trip to the mainland, the bride travelling in a navy blue suit with hat to match. They will reside at Burlington. Congratulations.

In response to a telegram from the Acting Under-Secretary of State, Ottawa, informing His Honor, Lieutenant-Governor Heartz, that the Government had been requested to advise him of the death of Her Majesty, Queen Alexandra, His Honor has sent the following telegram of sympathy and regret:

Acting Secretary of State, Ottawa;

I have the honor to acknowledge the telegram of the Acting Under Secretary of State of the 20th inst., informing me of the death of Her Majesty, Queen Alexandra, and have to request that you will convey to their Most Gracious Majesties the deep sympathy and sorrow of myself and loyal subjects of this Province on the passing of our beloved Queen Mother.

Respect for the memory of Her Majesty the Dowager Queen Alexandra was marked during the morning service at St. Paul's yesterday.

Very lovely flowers placed upon the Communion Table are to be presented today to the Patients in the Prince Edward Island Hospital.

Rev. Mr. Raymond touchingly referred to the Advent of the beautiful Danish Princess, whose arrival in England on that snowy day in March 1863 was heralded with wondrous rejoicing throughout the land.

Down through the intervening years as Princess, Queen and Mother by her grace and charm, the Sea-King's daughter has been loved and revered across the length and breadth of the Empire that today is sorrowing.

Mr. Raymond concluded by reading Tennyson's Welcome to Alexandra, March 7th, 1863; which will be found in another column in this issue.

After the sermon the congregation stood during the playing of the Dead March, followed by the Hymn, "Now the Labourers Task is O'er." Fitting reference was also made at the morning service in St. James Church by the Rev. W. Bruce Muir, who spoke feelingly of the life and good works of the Queen Mother, her consistent religious life and the love entertained for her from the time of her arrival in England to the day of her death.

At St. Peter's Cathedral, Rev. E. M. Malone made reference at the morning service to the passing of Queen Alexandra speaking of her as being conspicuous as woman, mother, wife, and queen, and as being an example to the womanhood of the Empire. After the offertory, the Russian Anthem, "For the Departed" was sung as a tribute to the memory of the late Queen Mother.

At the United Church Rev. A. N. Gillis also paid touching tribute to her late Majesty.

At Hampshire, the home of her son, on October 25th., 1925, Mrs. Robert Edwards departed this life and entered into that haven of rest where there is fulness of joy and pleasures that are forever more. She had reached the ripe age of 86 when the call came. Her illness of six months duration was endured with great patience and Christian resignation. Tenderly ministered unto and waited upon by loving and devoted members of the family she lingered for the above period of time. Mrs. Edwards was the last surviving member of the former Bowman family. Her brother William passed within the vail on November 7th, 1924. She lived a long, useful and respected life in the district of her birth and has now passed on to receive her reward. When nearing the end of her journey she expressed her wish to partake of the Holy Sacrament in remembrance of the great, atoning Sacrifice of Christ.

She leaves three sons and one daughter to mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate mother, Robert on the homestead, Chester and Mrs. James McLeod, also living in Hampshire, and John, residing in the U. S. A.

The death occurred at his home in Alberton yesterday morning of Mr. Herbert Champion, aged 49 years. He underwent an operation in Montreal a year ago, but although he seemed to be regaining his health, six months ago his condition again became serious and since then he gradually sank until the end came. He was the son of the late Captain John Champion, one of the pioneers of the fox industry in this Province.

The late Mr. Champion was also extensively engaged in fox ranching, and also conducted a large lobster packing business. He was one of the most prominent and highly respected residents of Alberton, and was Church Warden in the Anglican Church for many years.

He leaves to mourn besides an aged mother a widow, one daughter, Blanche; also two sisters, Mrs. Arthur Henry of Malpeque, and Mrs. William Leavitt of Alberton. He was a cousin of Mr. Ernest Champion of Carvell Bros.

BRIDAL SHOWER.— A miscellaneous shower was held on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. G. W. Profit, Spring Valley, in honor of Miss Rose Sudsbury, whose marriage takes places this week about one hundred friends were present. Mrs. James A. Campbell capably presided at the piano, and rendered Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus, while the bride elect was conducted (by Misses Lila McLeod and Ella Ramsay) into the nicely decorated living room, followed by Misses Roma Campbell and Lottie Profitt, who were daintily dressed in white, and who carried a gaily decorated basket heavily laden with gifts of all kinds, including a hundred dollar cheque. The gifts were presented by Misses McLeod and Ramsay, the reading of the verses attached to the gifts caused much laughter; the bride elect gracefully thanked her friends for the generous evidence of their esteem and goodwill. After the presentation a most enjoyable time was spent with games and music.

Eighty-five pairs of silver black foxes, shipped by the W. K. Rogers Co. Ltd., leave this morning by special car for Montreal, where they will be placed on board the "Welland County," bound for Havre, France.

Of the shipment, which is under the charge of Mr. Jack Aylward, who accompanied another shipment of a similar nature some time ago, and Mr. Tom Fullerton, who expects to remain in France for a year as rancher, by far the largest portion of the animals is going to a ranch at Megere Haute Savoie, which is situated in the Alps on the French-Swiss border. The remaining foxes are consigned to Germany and Belgium, and in connection with the latter shipment it is interesting to note that King Albert of Belgium who has recently visited and taken a great interest in fox ranches, is personally interested in it.

Every animal of the shipment is Canadian National registered, and Brackett scored.

The W. K. Rogers Company are now preparing another large shipment for the United States, which, it is expected, will leave Wednesday morning.

The death occurred at Wood Islands West on October the tenth of Mrs. Dougald MacNeill age seventy three years.

She was the daughter of Mr. John MacMillan (Miller) and Effie MacLean.

The deacesed had been in delicate health for a number of years and despite all medical skill and loving care could do, death came to relieve her of her sufferings. Throughout all her illness she was never known to complain, but bore her suffering with Christian fortitude, firmly trusting in Him "who doeth all things well." She was of a lovable, cheerful disposition, and was greatly loved by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. Truly it can be said of her "she had no enemies."

Besides a large number of relatives and friends there are left to mourn a grief stricken husband, and the following sons and daughters, John and Effie at home, Mrs. J. D. MacMillan, Dedham, Mass; Malcolm Dan of the West; Albert, Inspector of Canneries, Regina, Sask., and Mrs. Malcolm MacNeill, Wood Islands, also the following sisters, Mrs. Wm. Davidson, Los Angeles, Cal., and Bessie of Boston Mass and Mrs. A. Kemp, Quincy Mass. Two sisters and two brothers predeceased her. The funeral was held on Sunday and dispite the inclemency of the weather was largely attended, service being conducted by a former pastor, Rev. A. E. Stewart. The pall bearers were L. B. MacMillan, A. S. MacMillan, A. J. MacMillan, John MacKenzie, W. D. MacKenzie and Capt. J F. MacDougall Interment took place in Wood Island Cemetery

Mrs. George Keefe, of this city, is still in the City Hospital suffering from shock and concussion as a result of an automobile accident that occurred at Worthy's Corner yesterday morning about half-past ten. Her two sons, aged 5 and 9, were also cut by flying glass when the Dodge sedan in which they were riding with Mr. Keefe, was struck by a Ford roadster and driven against a lamp-post. The post was snapped in two by the impact and the Ford overturned, but both drivers were absolutely unhurt.

The collision occurred as the Dodge owned and driven by Mr. Keefe, was proceeding along Euston Street towards Gallow's Hill. As it was crossing the intersection at Elm Avenue, a blind corner at which there has been already more than one accident this year—the Ford, owned and driven by Mr. George Sutherland hit the closed in car amidships. The latter was driven against the curb and lamp post, one of its wheels was demolished, and practically all the glass in the car was smashed. The Ford, which turned completely over, and rested on its hood, received damages to radiator and hood.

It was just at the time when many people were on their way to church and a huge crowd at once gathered. The injured lady and both children were taken to the City Hospital where they had their wounds dressed. Both youngsters were able to be taken home shortly afterwards, but their mother, who is more seriously hurt, an artery in her head having been severed, is still a patient. Last night she was reported as resting comfortably.

Mr. Hugh Gillis, aged fifty, a resident of Orwell, died at the P. E. I. Hospital on Saturday as the result of burns received while attempting to lead his favorite mare from a burning barn last Friday morning.

Mr. Gillis, it seems probable, was overcome by smoke while in the building, but was able to make his way outside. When discovered by neighbors who were attracted to the scene by the smoke he was lying unconscious at the well, while the horse was found dead at the barn door. The deceased, who was badly burned, was at once taken to the P. E. I. Hospital, where, despite the best of medical care, he passed away on Saturday.

By a curious coincidence the late Mr. Hughes had just sold his farm, and only the day before, had been in the city arranging for the transfer. The flames that caused his death also destroyed the farm outbuildings, equipment and all the year's crop. The deceased was a well respected citizen of the district in which he lived and the regrettable tragedy has cast a deep gloom over the whole countryside.

TUESDAY

—DIED SATURDAY.— The death occurred in Summerside on Saturday morning of Mrs. William Ball, at the age of 69 years. The late Mrs. Ball was out and about on Friday as usual and the news of her death came as a great shock to her friends. Heart failure was the cause. Her husband predeceased her about a year ago. The deceased has resided in Summerside about 10 years, coming here from Union Corner.

—DIED AT BEDEQUE— The death occurred at Bedeque on Thursday, November 19, of Mr. William G. Taylor at the age of 82 years. The deceased was one of the oldest and most prosperous residents of Bedeque and was high ly esteemed by all who knew him. There are left to mourn two sons, Messrs. Edmond and Preston Taylor, both at home and one daughter, Mrs. Fulton Simpson, of Belmont, Lot 16. The funeral took place on Saturday at 1.30 p.m from his late residence to the People's Cemetery.

The annual installation of the officers of the Knights of Columbus was held last evening at the K. of C. home and was well attended.

The District Deputy, Mr. Adrian Arsenault, Summerside officiated, and the usual installation ceremony was carried out.

The officers are as follows:

Grand Knight, Mr. H. V. McPhee.
Deputy Grand Knight, Mr. H. Blanchard.
Advocate, Mr. William Flynn.
Lecturer, Mr. A. R. McInnis.
Trustee, Mr. A. Hennessey.
Treasurer, Mr. W. E. Trainor.
Warden, Mr. Wilfred Coyle.
Inside Guard, Mr. Peter Trainor.
Outside Guard, Samuel Burgess.

The installation was followed by speeches from the District Deputy, the State Deputy, Mr. J. A. McDonald, the Chaplain, Rev. Maurice McDonald and a number of others

The death occurred on November 3rd, 1925, at her home, 18 Bayfield Street, City, of Mrs. J. K. McKenzie in the 64th year of her age.

Although not enjoying her usual good health strong hopes were held for her recovery, but God willed otherwise and she passed away very suddenly after an attack of about twenty minutes duration of heart failure. She was a woman of sterling Christian character, beloved by all both young and old who had the pleasure of her acquaintance especially by her children and grand children who will ever cherish her memory as a beloved mother and grandmother. She was one that never felt better than when she was helping those in need. She leaves to mourn and cherish her memory a grief stricken husband, five daughters and three sons namely: Katie, Mrs. Geo. R. Herbert, Winnipeg, Man.; Jessie, Mrs. Neil Morrison, City; Margaret, Mrs. Frank Rash, St. Louis, Mo.; Sarah, Mrs. Clement Newell, Halifax; Fannie at home; Norman at home; John, baker for L. A. Hynes, City; Albert at Carvell Bros. Also 14 grand children and four sisters and three brothers.

The funeral which was held from her late home to Canoe Cove Cemetery was very largely attended. There was service at the home at 12.30 P. M. on the 10th by the Rev. Ewen McDougald and Rev. C. E. Robertson and another service in the Church at Canoe Cove where a very large number of friends came to have the last look on one they loved so well.

WEDDING BELLS— A pretty autumn wedding, which will be of interest to many of our readers, is that of Mary Edna Fish of Hallburton, and Melville Hunter Spindle of Dundas, which took place on Saturday, Oct. 17, at 8.30 p.m. in the Methodist Episcopal church, Newtonville, Mass. Rev. A. D. Parker officiating. The music was furnished by Miss Josephine G. Collier and the church chancel was effectively filled with palms. Preceding the entrance of the bridal party, Mrs. Norman Marshall, of Boston, accompanied by Miss Collier sang "Thanks be to God" by Dickson. The bride was gowned in white satin, and wore the traditional veil with orange blossoms, she carried a shower boquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Those attending the bride were Miss Martha Jane Fish, sister of the bride, as maid of honor. Miss Lina MacLauchlan of Mount Stewart and Miss Louise MacWilliams, O'Leary, as bridesmaids. The maid of honor wore a gown of yellow georgette and carried Ophelia roses. The bridesmaids were dressed in turquoise blue frost crepe and carried yellow chrysantemums. Mr. William M. Spindle of Chicago, brother of the groom was best man and the ushers were Mr. L. Vance MacEachern, Cape Wolfe, and Mr. J. Ingham Fish, brother of the bride. The reception immediately following the ceremony was held in the church parlors, during which several appropriate piano and violin selections were given by Mrs. E. E. Chamberlin and Miss Emily Chamberlin of Newtonville. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Spindle will reside in Somerville, Mass.

WEDNESDAY

RED CROSS BRANCH FORMED.— On Friday evening, November 13, a Junior Red Cross Branch was organized in Elliotvale School. Twenty three members were enrolled in the society. After roll call, the nominations and election of officers took place. Following are the officers: Director, Daniel A. MacCormac, (Teacher). President, Miss Rosella Magennis; Vice-President, Miss Loretta Power. Treasurer, Miss Bertha Gill. Circulation Manager, Miss Margaret Carmichael.

TEACHER'S MEETING— The teachers of Mt Vernon School Fair section held the second of this year's meetings on Nov. 18th. Miss Mary MacCormac was elected president, and Miss Catherine MacLean, Secretary-treasurer. It was decided to subscribe for "The School" magazine, and to correspond with the Supervisor of Women's Institutes in regard to having an Institute organized in the section. Questions relative to teaching methods provoked a lively and profitable discussion. The next meeting will be held in Mt. Vernon School on Dec. 2nd. at 4.30

His Honor, Lieutenant Governor Heartz, received the following telegram last evening from the Acting Secretary of State, Ottawa:

Official funeral Queen Alexandra 11.30 a.m. Friday, Westminister Abbey. Private committal Windsor, Saturday. His Majesty has directed flying of flags at half mast on Government buildings until next Saturday.

British War Office has telegraphed all commands as follows:

"Issue instructions for officers to wear mourning bands until further orders. Drums to be covered with black and black crepe to be hung from colors staff of infantry and from standard staff of cavalry."

Peacefully and quietly on Sunday, Nov. 1st., 1925, Mrs. John Darke passed from the scenes of earth to that city that hath foundations whose builder and maker is God. During the former period of her life Mrs. Darke, in company with her husband, resided at Brookfield. After Mr. Darke's departure she came to North Wiltshire and during the latter part of her life made her home with her only child and daughter, Mrs. Howard Balderston. In the former part of her life Mrs. Darke was an active and vigorous woman, and lived in the enjoyment of health above many. But now life's work is ended and the goal reached. She leaves several brothers and one sister who resides in the West. Mr. Thomas Bertram and Hammond Bertram of Pleasant Valley and Fredericton are the only members residing in P. E. Island, David and the remaining brothers are in Western Canada and in the U. S. A.

Mrs. Darke was a kind mother, and an entertaining hostess in her home.

The funeral service, conducted by Rev. H. Pierce on November 3rd., was conducted by her relatives and friends from the surrounding country. She was laid to rest beside her husband in the Cemetery at Greenvale, there to await the resurrection morn.

SUMMERSIDE, Nov. 24—The November term of the Supreme Court opened in Summerside yesterday morning with the Chief Justice presiding. There was one criminal case on the docket. The King vs. Benjamin Sonier, indictment for burglary and for being found in a dwelling house by night. A true bill was found on both counts on the indictment.

The prisoner was arraigned and pleaded not guilty. The case comes up for trial this morning.

In a civil case of James Skerry vs. F. J. E. Wright, Mr. J. A. Bentley moved to stay further proceedings and dismiss the action. After some argument the hearing of the application was adjourned to December 3rd in Chambers.

The Grand Jury reported the jail to be in a sanitary condition there being no complaints from the prisoners.

The following were the Grand Jurors: Thomas B. Gillispie, Borden, Foreman; Peter Knox, Tignish; Frank Shea, Waterford; James Manderson, Central, Lot 16; Maxime L. Gallant, Cape Egmont; John Kennedy, O'Leary; Peter Greenan, Coleman; John Burrows, Wilmot; John H Casey, Peterville; Lester Wallace, Alberton; Clayton Green, Albany; Elijiah Gard, Alberton.

Yesterday afternoon and evening were spent by delegates of the Churches of Christ—known as Disciples of Christ—in an earnest conference as to means and ways of extending and enlarging their work on Prince Edward Island. The conference was an enthusiastic one, and definite steps were taken, not only to revive old charges, but to break up new ground, that properly comes under the supervision of Disciples in this Island.

While at the present time every congregation of Disciples is under the pastorale care of a minister, it has been felt for a long while that in order for this body of believers to take the position that their history and gospel demand they must enlarge their stakes.

By a resolution, unanimously passed by a standing vote, an invitation was extended to Rev. C. E. Armstrong of Montague, to become pastor at large for this province. In selecting Mr. Armstrong the conference felt that Mr. Armstrong's long experience on the Island, his splendid executive ability, his earnest and faithful preaching, his fine Christian character, and his unquestioned tenacity of purpose place him in a position where he will command the respect, the co-operation and the heartiest sympathy of all the churches connected with this particular communion.

Mr. Armstrong, with becoming modesty, assured the conference that he would give the gracious invitation and call to this larger service his most prayerful consideration, and, in doing so, paid a fine tribute to that noble congregation of Montague where he has been pastor for nearly nine years.

It is felt that Mr. Armstrong, if he accepts the call—and many feel that he will accept—will be the means of infusing new life and inspiration into the needy fields of the church, as well as being the instrument of blazing new trails of gospel truth and liberty, in a field made famous by such men as Alexander Crawford, John Knox, Donald Crawford, Archibald MacLean, the Stevensons and a score of others "of whom the world is not worthy."

CALEDONIAN CLUB.— The installation of the new officers took place in the club rooms last evening. The retiring president Mr. T. F. White presided. The new officers are as follows:—Chief, Mr. T. F. White, President, Mr. J. G. McFadyen; First Vice-President, Mr. D. J. McDonald; 2nd. Vice-President, Mr. John Anderson; Financial Secretary, Mr. A. B. Brown; Recording Secretary, Mr. T. M. McMillan; Corresponding Secretary, Mr. A. M. Roy; Treasurer, Mr. John McPhee. Permission was granted to the Charlottetown Orchestral Society to use the rooms once a week until April 30 for practice. The St. Andrew's Celebration Committee provisionally reported that satisfactory progress was being made and that a very successful celebration was anticipated on Monday, Nov. 30th. In addition to a supper to be provided by the Ladies Aid of P. E. I. Hospital a dance and social will be given the combined ticket for which may be obtained from Mr. F. C. Currie, Mr. George P. Nicholson, Mr. A. B. Brown and other members of the committee.

There passed to her Heavenly home on Nov. 5th, Mary McPhee an old and deeply respected resident of Glen William.

The deceased was in her 87th. year and was a native of Kilmuir, Isle of Skye, having immigrated to this Island with her parents in her childhood.

The late Mrs. McPhee was possessed of many fine intellectual gifts, among which was a remarkable memory, which remained with her through her declining years. It needed but the refrain of a Gaelic song or a story and she was translated to the dear scenes of her early childhood among the Highlands of Scotland. Yet as the span of her mortal life grew less she loved more to speak of her Home beyond and the loved ones waiting her there.

She is predeceased by her husband and one son the late Rev. S. D. McPhee.

The following children are left to hold dear the memory of a beloved and delightful mother.

Mrs. Margaret McDonald, Milton, Mass; Mrs. Roderick McLeod, Boston; Mrs. John Bell, Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. James Nicholson, Orwell Cove; Mrs. Alex McLeod, Glen William; John to whose care her declining years were entrusted, at home.

The funeral service was conducted by her pastor Rev. M. D. McDonald after which her remains were laid to rest in Caledonia cemetery beside those of her husband who had predeceased her by some years.

The recount finished last evening at 5 o'clock, and the final standing of the four candidates is as follows: Jenkins 8173, Messervy 7445, McKinnon 7404, Sinclair 7414. Though these totals are somewhat higher than the ones standing on Declaration Day, the relative standing of the four candidates has not been changed and the election of both Messrs. Jenkins and Messervey has been corroborated. Mr. Messervey's majority over Mr. Sinclair has been reduced by but one vote.

The changes brought about by the recount are as follows:

	Gains	Losses	Net Gain
Jenkins	27	21	6
Messervy	24	11	13
McKinnon	31	19	12
Sinclair	27	13	14

At the beginning of yesterday's proceedings Mr. W. E. Bentley, K. C., and Mr. W. F. O'Connor, K. C., appeared under protest for Mr. Messervy, who was represented by counsel for the first time during the recount. He stated that he had not appeared or been represented at the proceedings previously, on the advice of counsel, and the protest was on the grounds that he had not received the notice to attend that is required by statute, it was on this ground that they denied the jurisdiction of the Court to count Mr. Messervy out. At the conclusion of the recount Mr. Bentley unconditionally appeared for Mr. Messervy. The counsel present made short speeches in which they remarked on the excellent manner in which the Court had been conducted. Mr. W. F. O'Connor, K. C. of Ottawa, spoke of the presiding judges celerity and unobtrusive dignity. He said that he would not extol his impartialty since that was a trait to be found in all Canadian judges.

Judge Stewart, replying, spoke of the co-operation he had received from the counsel on both sides and the smoothness with which the proceedings had been conducted.

Judge Stewart will make his official report to Mr. McFadyen, the returning officer, today, and the election writ bearing the names of Messrs. Messervy and Jenkins, will be at once sent to Ottawa.

—DIED IN CALGARY.— Word has been received in Summerside by Mrs. George Godkin announcing the sad news of the death of her brother, Mr. William H. Brown at Calgary, Alta., on Sunday, November 22. No particulars were received.

PAINFUL INJURY— Little Wilfred Inman, aged about 9 years, second youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Inman, was thrown to the sidewalk by two dogs who were making an attack on each other on Monday. The little chap struck his head on the curb and was carried into J. G. Jamieson's Drug Store, where he received first aid treatment. He was then driven to his home where he is receiving medical attention. Although the injuries to his head are not serious, he will be confined to his bed for several days.

—OBITUARY.— There passed peacefully away at Clinton on November 11 one of the most highly respected members of the community in the person of Mr. Cornelius Sullivan. Although the deceased had been ailing for some time his condition did not become serious until about a week before his death. Despite all that loving care and attention could do he expired on Thursday at the home of his brother Mr. Thomas Sullivan at the age of 77 years. He leaves to mourn one brother, Mr. Thomas Sullivan, Clinton, and 3 sisters namely Mrs. A. N. McIsaac, Donaldston, Mrs. Catherine McKinnon, in California and Mrs. Norah McQuire, Sydney, N. S. The funeral took place on November 12 to St. James Church, Summerfield, Rev Father Frank McDonald officiating —FIRE INSURANCE.— At the last meeting of the P. E. I. Mutual Fire Insurance Co. the following losses were ordered to be paid:—Joseph Z. Cormier, Abram's Village, ($650.00); Octave Blanchard Brockton, ($600.00); James Devine Hunter River, ($430.00); Charles Paynter, French River, ($43.00); William Molyneaux, North River, ($15.30); Lester Bryenton, Rollo Bay, $110.00); A resolution of sympathy was passed and sent to Mrs John Johnston, wife of the late president. Mr. Oscar Johnston, son of the late President, was appointed director to fill the place of the deceased for the balance of the term. Mr. Fulton Simpson was unanimously elected as president for the balance of the term and Mr. James H. Simpson was elected Vice-President for the rest of the term.

A most enjoyable "At Home" was given at the G. W. V. A. rooms Monday evening by the members of the Executive and their wives to the members of the caste of the play, "Who's Wife," the Orchestra and the ladies and gentlemen who assisted with specialties, on the evening of the production of the play.

As is the case in every undertaking of the G. W. V. A. the arrangements were faultlessly carried out and the guests of the evening made to feel positively at home during the entire proceedings.

The guests were cordially received by Mrs. H. A. McDougall, Mrs. G. E. Sherron, Mrs. (Dr.) I. E. Croken and Mrs. P. E. Palmer.

Shortly after 8.30 the company sat down to cards which continued until almost 10 o'clock.

An impromptu program was then greatly enjoyed. This consisted of violin solos by Miss Kathleen Hornby Messrs Harry Porter and H. Webber; vocal solos, Mrs. W. E. Fletcher, Miss Annie Dammerell, Messrs Robt. Stevenson and Leigh Dingwell; Comic songs, Messrs E. M. Dixon and Wm. Whitlock; vocal duet, Prof. W. E. and Mrs. Fletcher and Scotch dances by Miss Helen McDonald, Prof. Fletcher presided at the piano.

Refreshments were served by the wives of the members about 11 o'clock after which dancing was enjoyed, the music being furnished by Mr. Albert Blanchard at the piano.

As the guests departed they personally expressed their appreciation to the members of the G. W. V. A., not only for the pleasant evening but also the fact that their assistance in aiding the Organization had been appreciated.

THURSDAY

—FOX FAIR— The express car containing the bulk of the half million dollar fox exhibit at the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto pulled a draw pin at Belleville, Ontario and for that reason was detached from the train. The accident occurred while the foxmen were sleeping and did not become known until Montreal was reached. Mr. George Callbeck, the biggest winner at the show stayed in Montreal from 7 a.m. Sunday until 5 o'clock that evening waiting for the foxes which had been transferred to another car. He had one car attached to the Ocean Limited Sunday night and came along with the shipment. He arrived in Summerside with the foxes on Tuesday afternoon at 3.20 having got over with the car in a special freight trip of the Carferry. Mr. Callbeck had 12 foxes at the show and captured 4 firsts, 1 second, 1 third, 1 fourth, 2 sixths, 1 seventh, and 3 championship trophies. Through an omission Mr. Callbeck was not credited with the trophy donated by the Canadian Fur auction sales for the best pair of matched silver foxes at the show, which he won. Mr. Callbeck also took first and seventh in the medium silver adult males class. This class which is herewith published locally for the first time resulted as follows: First—George Callbeck, second—George E. Brown, Margaret, third—Pure Canadian S. B. Fox Co., Summerside, fourth—Geo. E. Brown, fifth—Summerside Ranching Co., sixth—Ruthevan and Brett, Alliston, Ont., seventh—Geo. Callbeck, eighth—Black Syndicate, Winnipeg. There were 47 entries in this class. Very few of the prize winners were sold, the owners retaining practically all their stock.

The case of the King vs. Benjamin Sonier for burglary and for being found in a dwelling house by night, occupied the attention of the Supreme Court in Summerside all day yesterday. When the court adjourned at 5 p.m. two witnesses for the Crown had been examined. The Attorney General and Mr. Heath Strong, K. C., appeared for the Crown and Mr. Ernest Strong and Mr. J. J. Johnston for the prisoner. The court meets again this morning at 10 o'clock.

The following telegram from A. F. Sladen, Secretary to the Governor-General, was received last evening by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor.

His Honor Lieutenant Governor Heartz.

His Excellency the Governor-General has decided that the period of mourning for her late Majesty Queen Alexandra, to be observed at Government House, will be one month, from November 20 to December 17, inclusive; half mourning December 18 to December 30 inclusive.

This same period of mourning will be observed here at the local government House, in common with the other provincial Government Houses.

ORDINATION— At the Presbyterian service held in Montague on Sunday evening, the 22nd, William R. Webster, Alex J. MacLeod and Dan MacKinnon, recently elected elders, were ordained to that holy office. They readily answered the questions put to them without 'mental reservation". The session of St. Andrew's Church, Cardigan and Malcolm Nicholson, Head of Montague, assisted Mr. MacVicar, Rev. A. S. Stewart who is rendering great service to the cause here, gave the prayer of ordination. The large congregation who witnessed that solemn service were reminded that Presbyterianism stands for a system of doctrines that will never see the decrepitude of old age; but will live in the unfading freshness of self-renewing youth and the unbroken vigor of manhood to the end of time, and will outlive time itself.

In the early evening hours of Sunday, Oct. 11, 1925, there passed peacefully to rest one of the oldest and most respected residents of Hazelbrook in the person of Samuel Noy at the ripe old age of 82 years. Being a lifelong resident of the community and possessed of a kindly and cheerful disposition he held a high place in the affection and esteem of a wide circle of relatives and friends which was evidenced by the large concourse which followed the remains on Tuesday the 13th. to the last resting place in the family plot at Pownal.

There are left to cherish the memory of a kind and loving husband and father a widow and one son F. C. Pope at home.

The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Littlejohns, assisted by Rev's. Henry Pierce and R. W. Lindsay. The pallbearers were six nephews of the deceased, viz: William Noy, James Noy, P. J. Noy, William Ings, Ernest Ings, Earle Ings.

EARL HERMAN.— The death under unusually sad circumstances of Earl Herman, aged eighteen, eldest son of the late Mr. John P. Herman, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. George Carver of Pownal, occurred Tuesday. Earl went out alone shooting in Pownal Bay about 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. At 5 o'clock his body was found in the boat, which was half full of water, and which had drifted ashore, on the other side of the bay. He was bruised about the face; and the theory is that he had taken a weak turn and fallen in the boat sustaining fatal injuries. The late Earl Herman was a young man of fine physique. He has taken part in athletic contests, winning the shot putting events. He possessed admirable qualities of mind and heart, was of very friendly disposition and made many warm friends who will learn with great sorrow of his untimely death, when just on the threshold of manhood. He leaves to mourn besides his widowed mother, one sister, Lona, and three brothers Louis and Jack at Pownal, and Roy in Halifax. The latter arrived last night and the funeral will be held at Pownal today at 2 p. m.

In the death of Herbert Champion, Alberton and Prince County loses one of its best citizens. Only a year ago on the advice of his physician he went to Montreal and underwent a serious operation. For a time it seemed as if his recovery was permanent but about two months ago he was obliged to remain in bed. Here he was carefully attended to by his doctor, nurses and loving wife. He pased away peacefully on Friday morning the 20th.

The funeral was held on Sunday 22nd. at the Anglican Church in Alberton and was the largest seen there for many years. The Rev. G. F. Spriggs, of Kensington assisted by Rev. G. A. Christie, of Alberton conducted the service at church and grave. The pall-bearers were Messrs W. C. Lawson, J. W. Waugh, Edward McRae, Herbert Fraser, James McQuaid, T. C. Bell.

The late Herbert Champion was one of the outstanding members of the Anglican Church in Alberton, of which he was Warden for many years. In business he took a prominent place and was most successful in all his undertakings.

He is survived by his wife, and one daughter Blanche, his mother Mrs. Capt. John Champion, two sisters, Mrs. William Leavitt of Alberton, and Mrs. Arthur Henry of Malpeque.

Passed suddenly and peacefully to his everlasting rest on Sabbath the 15th November 1925, Joseph S. Hume of Linnean Street, Cambridge and formerly of Brooklyn P. E Island.

Mr. Hume was in his usual health until the morning of his death and having risen early that morning as was his wont, he was suddenly seized with some heart affection, which continued only for an hour, when he calmly fell asleep. It was remembered that he had frequently uttered both the prediction and the desire that he should receive his heavenly Call without prolonged illness.

Deceased was a convert of what was known as the Third Revival in the Church of Scotland on P. E. Island passing through soul experiences that were both remarkable and abiding. He was for many years an elder in the Church of Scotland where the tenderness of his prayers and the rich compass of his voice in the praises of the sanctuary will be long remembered and missed.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. D. M. Lamont late of Charlottetown. For the accommodation of the many friends and sympathizers the service was held in the Church on Hampshire St., and was filled to capacity.

Deceased is survived by his widow, Catherine daughter of the late Ewen Lamont of Tyndale, P. E. I. by one son, Ewen an officer in the U. S. Navy, by five daughters, Emily, Mrs. Kidston; Sarah, Mrs. Steimeist;. Margaret, Mrs. MacMillan, Elizabeth, Mrs. MacDougall; Florence Mrs. MacNevin and by sixteen grand children.

Pall-bearers were Mr. L. J. Rossop, Mr. George Lee, Mr. Geo. MacDougall, Mr. Angus Morrison, Mr. George Harper and Mr. C. Fudge. Interment took place by motor to cortege at Cambridge Cemetery.

The death in the Montreal General Hospital, Montreal, on the tenth instant of Mr. R. W. Ewen formerly a merchant of Peters Bay in this Province, was sad and unexpected. In the prime of health and vigor of life he contracted a slight cold on Oct. 29th. which developed into pneumonia. He entered the Hospital on Nov. 5th. and on the 10th. passed away. His remains arrived at Charlottetown on the late train of the 14th. and were conveyed by motor to the home of his sister Mrs. Oswald Dingwell, Marie, on Sunday the 15th. his remains were deposited in the old Presbyterian Cemetery at Midgell The funeral services at the home of Mr. Dingwell were conducted by the Rev. D. M. McLeod assisted by the Rev. H. Penwarden. The funeral cortege was one of the largest in the memory of the oldest inhabitant, bearing mute testimony to the general respect for the deceased and his family he having carried on business for many years in the vicinity. The pall-bearers were the nephews of the deceased viz: Claude B. McEwen, Bruce W. McEwen, Lloyd McEwen, Emery McEwen, Fulton and Winston Dingwell.

He leaves to mourn, a widow, Miss Davison and three sons two of whom are in the Canadian West and one daughter Mrs. Spillett of Portland U. S. A. none of whom except his widow and young son Watson, were able to be present at his funeral.

J. Walter McEwen, merchant of Bristol, H. D. McEwen, M. L. A. also of Bristol; B. L. McEwen, Charlottetown are brothers of the deceased and Mrs. Oswald Dingwell of Marie and Mrs. W. Pigott of Rainy River, Ont. are sisters to all of whom we extend our sympathy in their bereavement.

FRIDAY

CAHILL—NOONON — Self has St. Peter's Church Seven Bay been called on to witness more pleasing event than on Friday morning, Nov. 17, when Pauline Cahill youngest daughter of George Cahill and the late Connick, a popular young lady that parish and Mr. John Noonon of Boston but formely of Bedeque were united in the bonds of matrimony. Rev. Wm. McCabe officiating. The bride was becomingly attired in a Hudson Seal coat and hat to match and carried a bouquet of Lilies-of-the Valley. The bride was assisted by her cousin Miss McCarvell while the groom was ably supported by his brother Henry Noonon of Summerside. Previous to her marriage Miss Cahill was tendered a miscellaneous shower at which she was the recipient of many useful and valuable gifts including one which shows the high esteem in which popular young couple are held. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Noonon left on the morning train en-route to Boston where Mr. Noonon holds a good position followed by the wishes of a host of friends in wishing them a long and happy wedded life. They were accompanied as far as Cape Tormentine by Mr. George Cahill, brother Lolyd and Miss Mary Carvell.

THE COACH'S JOB

Something of the taskmaster, general and the diplomat, and a the doctor must be hidden away in man who would be the coach of a cessful football or track team.

Emergencies of all kinds are his routine. A thorough knowledge of aid is as essential as a knowledge of game played by his men.

Bumps, bruises, strained ligaments and muscles are every day happenings but the coach never becomes contuous of them. He knows that if neglected, they may result in anything

Trainers everywhere keep Absorbine Jr. in their lockers. They use it only for sprains, cuts and bruises, for the skin and blood protection its disinfecting properties. In one convenient container it combines sanctions of a number of preparations

It is the first of all the First requisites in use in all of the best athletic clubs.

And there are just as many everyday uses for Absorbine Jr. in the home Canada as there are in the training camps. Always keep it in the house where you can "jump to it" in an emergency.

$1.25 at your druggist.