THE PRINCE EDWARD.—Large audiences were present at the Prince Edward Theatre last evening likely drawn hither by the announcement that the famous drama "Absinthe," the feature of two continents was to be presented. Much was expected and the anticipations of the most sanguine were realized. To attempt a description of this magnificent photo-play would spoil the pleasures of those who purpose seeing it. It must be seen to be appreciated and opportunity will be afforded at both matinee this afternoon and tonight's show. Two side-splitting comedies and a vocal selection by Miss Blaisdell completed an entertainment of extraordinary merit.

AN EXCELLENT CHANCE FOR THE FOX INVESTOR

The Willow Hill Silver Black Fox Company, Limited, have recently had their authorized capital stock increased and are now offering to the public a portion of their increased capital stock at the par value of $100 per share. The Company are including in their ranch five pairs of proven breeding foxes that have already proved to be a veritable gold mine to the present shareholders, and also five pairs of their young stock except in so far as it has been necessary to change the blood. The stock issue for the ten pairs of foxes including an up-to-date ranch is $230,000. Foxes will be ranched at actual cost, which has never exceeded one and one-half percent of the earnings. THE PEOPLE'S.—"The Rajah's Diamond Rose" was the title of an exceedingly interesting picture shown at the People's Theatre last night to large crowds. The film was one of the best put on any screen in Charlottetown for some time—excellent in regard to both the moral of the story and the manner in which the film was produced. "The Late Mr. Jones" was a good comedy, funny in the extreme, and "The Flirt" and "The Wedding Write-up" were also splendid pictures.
