Canadian Garden Service

Gordon Lindsay Smith

By Gordon Lindsay Smith

Most of us want results in a hurry, and this applies just as much to our gardens as to promotion in our regular work.

Letting and such tempting lines are grown under a wire netting, which is removable for cultivation.

SENNOTS ROAD AND VICINITY

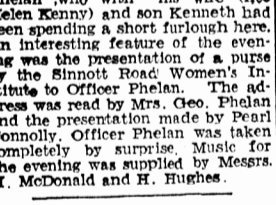

The sympathy of the community goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Sinnott, Morell on the loss of their baby son St. Clair at the early age of three months. Besides his parents he leaves his little sister Joan. He budged on earth to bloom in Heaven.

Happiest felicitations is extended to Miss Evelyn Phalen, daughter of Ambrose Phelan, Morell on her approaching marriage to Col. John Sharkey formerly of Cardigan. The marriage takes place in Toronto at an early date.

Among the eldest residents of Morell is Mrs. Thomas Kenny who recently celebrated her 89 birthday. She received many gifts and letters of congratulations on the occasion. This grand old lady is still active taking part in the knitting and quilting for the Red Cross. She is in full possession of all her faculties and enjoys life as if she were only half as old. We wish her many happy returns of the day.

Pie Louis O'Brien who spent a short furlough at his home has rejoined his unit at Saskatoon. While home he was presented with a suitable gift and address by the Sinnott Road Women's Institute.

On the night of April 26 a large group gathered at the home of Mr. John Kenny, Byrne Road, to bid farewell to Petty Officer Joseph Phelan who with his wife (nee Helen Kenny) and son Kenneth had been spending a short furlough home. An interesting feature of the evening was the presentation of a purse by the Sinnott Road Women's Institute to Officer Phelan. The address was read by Mrs. Geo. Phelan and the presentation made by Pearl Connolly. Officer Phelan was taken completely by surprise. Music for the evening was supplied by Messrs. K. McDonald and H. Hughes.
