FOR THOSE WHO READ

(Compiled for the Saturday Guardian.)

"Read we must, be writers ever so indifferent."—Shaftesbury, Characteristics.

"There are books which are of that importance in a man's private experience, as to verify for him the fables of Cornelius Agrippa, of Michael Scott, or of old Orpheus of Thrace,—books which take rank in our life with parents and lovers and passionate experiences, so penetrating so stringent, so revolutionary, so authoritative,—books which are the work and the proof of faculties so comprehensive, so nearly equal to the world which they paint, that, though one shuts them with meaner ones, he feels his exclusion from them to accuse his way of living."—Emerson.

"The Public Library is an integral part of Public Education. The only difference between the library and the school is that the former is under a different board of directors and has no age limit. It is a life school and a life pleasure ground."—Public Libraries.

"He whose imagination has been fed upon Homer, Dante, Milton, Burns, and Tennyson, with a few of the world's master pieces in single poems like Gray's Elegy, may dispense with the whole race of poetasters. Until you have read the best fictions of Scott, Thackeray, Dickens, Hawthorne, George Eliot, and Victor Hugo you should not be hungry after the last new novel,—sure to be forgotten in a year, while the former are perennial. The taste which is once formed upon models such as have been named, will not be satisfied with the trashy book, or the spasmodic school of writing."—A. Book for all Readers.—Spofford.

WEIGHED FOUR POUNDS. WHEN FOUR MONTHS OLD

Most of the sickness that comes to babies and young children is due to the stomach or bowels being out of condition. It is then that they are cross, peevish and upset the whole household. These are troubles that Baby's Own Tablets always cure promptly. Here is proof: Mrs. J. Stewart, Everton, Ont., says: "My little girl thrived so badly that at the age of four months she weighed four and a half pounds. Her stomach was badly out of order, and although the doctor treated her he did not help her. Then I got Baby's Own Tablets and right from the first they helped her and now she enjoys perfect health." If your little one is ailing try Baby's Own Tablets—always do good; cannot do harm. Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25c a box from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

THE AUTOMOBILE NUISANCE.

SIR,—I see by The Guardian that there is strong opposition against the running of automobiles on our public roads and streets, which endangers the lives and property of the travelling people. Those who require to go marketing very often are women or young people that would not be capable of driving a spirited horse if they met one of those automobiles. We have no right to allow such a nuisance on Prince Edward Island. We have plenty of horses and carriages on the Island to do all the driving required why allow business and comfort hampered with something not necessary? All men and women ought to raise their voices against these infernal machines.

I can speak for myself. I am somewhat crippled and am afraid to go driving alone in the summer season, fearing I would meet one of those terrors. Why should I be compelled to hire some one to go with me lest I might not be able to manage my horse if I met an automobile? Has any Government a right to put a tax of that sort on me, which they would be doing if they allow automobiles to take possession of the public highways and streets? I and many others will be compelled to hire a strong man to drive us if these machines are allowed on the roads. Otherwise we are capable of travelling alone and doing our business without automobile expenses.

Six hundred yards of pretty muslins in effects of greens, blues and violets on white ground. These are pretty 27 inch fabrics of the kind that regularly sells for 12 cents per yard, at the white goods sale our price is but 8 cents Moore & McLeod, 3-14dlii

A few days ago a lady at our dress goods department remarked to the salesman, I've had your "Monarch" broadcloth before—and I know it is all right but I won't buy this time till I see every cloth in town—perhaps there's something better to be had" "All right" said he. By and by the lady returned "There is nothing in Charlottetown to compare with "Monarch" give me six yards of this colour "she said. And that is the result every time. Monarch is $1 75 and it is worth it. Moore & McLeod. 3-14drii

People wonder how we can sell fresh new whitewear at prices so low as those that rule at our white goods sale. We'll tell you. We placed our orders months ago with the best maker in the Dominion—he made up the goods in his quiet season when he would prefer to take a lower price than have machines idle—we took every cash discount and every rebate for big buying and we are sharing the benefit with you. The slightest examination will show you that our whitewear in design—in range—in quality—in lowness of price is beyond competition. Moore & McLeod. 3-14drii
