THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block--Charlottetown.

The latest news first of all. Benjamin Stewart, Mt. Herbert, spent Sunday visiting in Brookfield.

Miss Georgie Jenkins, Mt. Herbert, is visiting in Brookfield, the guest of Thomas R. and Mrs. Wood.

Rev. J. L. Batty, the noted lecturer of the Maritime Provinces, lectures at the First Methodist Church Thursday.

A notice of a birth from Richmond, Ont., has come to hand with no name signed to it. The same will be gladly published if confirmed.

The Guardian has informed its readers inadvertently that Christmas was six weeks away last Friday. The time is much shorter than that as it was only five weeks last Friday.

Rev. Ewen McDougall will preach Friday Nov. 27th at Brooklyn at 6.30 p. m. Sabbath 29th at Murray River at 10.30 and 6.30 and Peter's Road at 2.30. Also Pleasant Valley on Monday 30th, Belle River on Tuesday Dec. 1st, Pinette Wed. 2nd, and Point Prim Thursday 3rd at 6.30 p. m.

Rev. Dr. F. X. Morrison, pastor of St. Joseph's church, Berkeley, delivered a very interesting address at the meeting of the San Francisco Society held last month. He spoke of his visit to P. E. Island last summer and also gave an interesting account of the celebration at Quebec which he attended. He said the Island looked more beautiful to him while he was there than ever before—Maple Leaf, Oakland, Cal.

Care must be taken, when weaning the colts, to see that they are well accustomed to eating grain, and to give a light feed of grain daily after taking away from the dam. When the expense of raising a horse is incurred, the more it brings in the market, the greater will be the profits. The colt may be used a little in harness at from two to three years old and gradually educated for whatever purpose he is best adapted.

Among the visitors in the Bay Cities, recently says the Maple Leaf of Oakland, Calif., was Capt. A. L. McDonald of the Seattle, Wash., police department. Capt. McDonald, was born in Mt. Stewart, P. E. I., the son of Allan Macdonald, and for about fifteen years has resided in Seattle where he has by strict application to duty—a characteristic of the Maritime people, worked himself almost to the top of one of the best police departments on the coast. During his stay Capt. McDonald was given a party in his honor by Jas. A. McDonald at which were present many old friends from P. E. Island.

The home of Oliver and Mrs. Good, Winsloe, was the scene of a happy event on the evening of the eighteenth inst, when their daughter Maude was united in marriage to Edward Sellick of Fredericton, amid a large circle of relatives and friends. The bride, who was becomingly attired in cream nun's veiling, was attended by Miss Hattie Sellick, sister of the groom, who was prettily attired in pink cashmere. The groom was ably supported by Rubeen Good, brother of the bride. The Rev. Mr. Rice of Winsloe officiated. The wedding march was beautifully rendered by Miss Hazel Newson, Charlottetown, and costly presents received. The bride and groom are held. The happy couple left for Fredericton, where they will reside, followed by the best wishes of their many friends for future happiness.

A recent issue of the Nanaimo, B. C., Free Press contains an extended notice of the play entitled "The Pixies" which was put on under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Nanaimo Hospital. In speaking of the play it says: "The principals in this play were tactically well chosen. Miss Edina, who came over from Westminster to play the leading role, that of Queen Titania, can now number as her willing subjects not only the host of fairies and pixies, but every man, woman and child who enjoyed her winning personality, her rare dramatic ability, and her wonderful voice. She made an ideal queen and held the closest attention from beginning to end. But in her Scottish song between acts she showed herself at her best. She sang "The Highlandman's Toast," in so electric a manner that she was compelled to respond to a rousing encore. "Mary of Argyle" stirred the house even more, and again she had to appear, singing "I'm Over Young to Marry Yet." She was compelled to respond to five encores during the evening, and received several beautiful floral tributes to her charming young womanhood and her sterling worth as an artist. She can always depend upon a warm reception in Nanaimo. (Miss Munn, who visited this Province in the summer of 1907, is a daughter of Angus Munn, formerly of Little Sands but now of Westminster, and will be remembered by many relatives and friends in this Province.)
