

Only one Alabastine

SINCE Alabastine—the beautiful interior wall finish—was offered to the public many years ago, numerous cheap substitutes have been placed on the market. These substitutes are inferior in every way. They are not as sanitary, as easy to use, as wearable or as attractive as Alabastine.

The only way to get satisfaction is to ask for Alabastine by name and to see that the dealer gives it to you.

Alabastine is the only interior wall finish that will not rub off—that can be mixed with hot or cold water—that is sanitary and beautiful—that is low-priced yet of highest quality—that can be quickly, easily and inexpensively applied—that has 21 beautiful tints—that is more cleanly and economical than wall paper or paint. Send for free stencil catalogue and booklet "Homes Healthful and Beautiful."

successful and enjoyable was held in Bridgetown on March 31. Owing to two gentlemen and the inclemency of roads and weather, the dance was not as large as it would have been. The Rev. D. Clarke, pastor of the United Church, very capably acted as chairman.

It is a fact that the programme was highly appreciated as shown by the large and hearty audience and the hearty approval of the several members of the program. The concert was one of the best staged in Bridgetown. The Rev. D. Clarke, pastor of the United Church, very capably acted as chairman.

PLEASANT VALLEY WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

To the Members of Pleasant Valley Women's Institute. We have come to the close of our third year of Institute work. When we look back over the work of the past year we are grateful for the measure of good health and social and financial help we received from many sources. We had twelve regular meetings and two special, also carried out a very appropriate patriotic program at our November meeting, Armistice Day.

Early in the year we had a successful entertainment and box social which netted us good returns. In August, we had an Ice Cream Social with good receipts for money expended. In November we held a Bean Social and Entertainment at the home of Mrs. Andrew Stevenson. In July, we bought paint for outside walls of school, for various reasons it was not applied. We trust now that Spring has come that we can make satisfactory arrangements to have the painting done as soon as possible, also have sign board and flag pole placed on the school as was decided at a previous meeting.

Our Women's Institute placed in the school Maps of the World, King's Picture, Daughters of the Empire Calendar, Dictionary, Small hook to hang finished work on. Coat hooks for entry. Water pail, also voted money for History of Ping.

At school closing in June we treated scholars and visitors with ice cream. Christmas examinations had a tree in school with a gift for each child on it. We have an increase in membership over last year. We are sorry to lose Mrs. John Bertram, one of our active members as she goes to another community where Institute work is carried on. She will be a gain to them.

Let us look forward to another year of social fellowship and usefulness in our community. May we reach out a helping hand to any deserving cause outside our own district and may each member of us read our "Club Woman's Creed" and make it our own.

Comfort Depends On Good Digestion

Weak Stomachs Can be Made Strong Through the Use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

The sufferer from indigestion is greatly to be pitied. This trouble assumes various forms such as pain after eating, gas on the stomach, sour stomach and often vomiting after meals. The sufferer cannot get relief by cutting down his food to a starvation basis. That only still further weakens. What is needed is better digestion, not a poorer diet. And the way to get a better digestion is to so enrich the blood that the stomach will do the work nature intended. As a tonic for building up the blood nothing else can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. As this new blood courses through the veins strength and tone is given the stomach and the passage of indigestion disappears. Not only this, the whole system is strengthened and new life and vim comes to the former sufferer. The value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases of this kind is proved by the experience of Mr. E. G. Malcolm.

Port Malcolm, N. S., who says: "For several years I was a great sufferer from indigestion. I could not eat meat or potatoes, and often could not retain the food I did eat. Only those who have been afflicted with this trouble can realize the suffering I endured. I took a lot of doctors' medicine, but it did not give me more than temporary relief. I also took other remedies recommended, with no better results. Then I read in a newspaper the case of a woman whose symptoms were like my own, who found new health through Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I at once got a supply of these pills and had not taken them very long when I began to find relief. This encouraged I continued the use of the pills, and I can but sum up what they did for me by saying that they made me feel like a new man. Every trace of the trouble has disappeared and I can now eat and enjoy my meals as well as any one."

You can get these pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Father Morrison Writes From Chu Chow, China

The following interesting letter from Rev. Vincent Morrison of the Catholic Mission in Chu Chow, China, will be read with pleasure by many friends here—

The city of Chu Chow has a population of 40,000 people, and is situated on the Chu Chow river at a distance of one hundred miles from the ocean port of Wen Chow. The Chu Chow river, in the ordinary sense of the word, is not navigable, owing to the rocks, shoals and the terrible rapids encountered every few miles of the way. Nothing but a Chinese row boat can go up this river and it was only in this manner that we were able to make the trip from Wen Chow to Chu Chow. The journey occupied three days going against the current and fording the rapids. In all we had four row boats, two for our baggage and two for ourselves and the servants, and to get over the rapids the men had to get out and pull the boat over. Then they used a long bamboo rope which they put over their shoulders and walked along the river bank pulling the boat as they walked, while one of them steered the boat with a bamboo pole.

I am sure you have no conception of what a Chinese City is like. The only thing modern here is the Electric Light. This was introduced by a French Missionary Priest, Rev. Father Salou, who was an expert mechanic, and was taught the natives how they could use the water power for generating electricity for illuminating purposes. The result is that there is an up to date Electric Power plant in the city. But that is all. The streets are not as wide as the side walks of Charlottetown, and when you go along them you have to pick your way through the thousands of human beings struggling to get along, each one carrying a big bundle of something. There is not a horse, carriage, or wheeled vehicle of any description in the city. Every thing is drawn by man power, bricks, wood, merchandise, all carried on the shoulders by means of baskets and the bamboo pole. The pigs, hens and chickens are not collected through these so-called streets seeking food. There are no hotels, railways, buses, telephones, hospitals, doctors, lawyers or professional men of any kind in the city. The houses and stores are miserable ramshackles or buildings such as we at home would use for the most of our farming implements. The ground is the floor, and the pigs, dogs, hens and chickens, all live in the same room with the owner of the house. In the house there are no easy or soft chairs or sofa beds. They sleep on mats, and the quilt around them for a covering. When they get sick they invoke their local idol, and if they get better, they attribute it to the good favor of the idol; but if they die it is because the idol was angry at them, and punished them with death.

The Chinese people lead a very miserable life. They work hard for nearly nothing, just getting enough to buy rice to keep them from starving. Many of them eat only once a day, and then just barely enough to satisfy their hunger. They pick up and eat things we would throw in the garbage can. Never in all my life have I seen such poverty as exists here in Chu Chow. The district allotted us for the Christianization of the natives.

There are no newspapers published here, and hence the people are ignorant of what is going on in the outside world. Not even do they know what is going on in China itself. All that concerns the people here is where are they going to get rice for the next meal. Things are, however very quiet in China, notwithstanding the various reports in American and European newspapers. The students in Peking caused a little commotion, and the press in the outside world made a big thing of it, but there was nothing to it. These disturbances and commotions will continue until China has a strong Central Government that will unify and unite the country into one harmonious whole. What China needs most now is the Christian Religion and a strong ruler who would make his influence felt, and whom the people would respect, and who would have the authority and the means of enforcing the laws of the country. "Every Kingdom divided against itself shall fall and be brought to nought, and house upon house shall fall."

MALPEQUE

The Taxis boys of Hamilton entertained the members of the C. G. I. T. class in Hamilton Hall on Friday evening, April 30th. The evening proved to be a social success and much interest was taken in the debate which had been previously arranged for and in which the young ladies were asked to participate. The question "Resolved that a Bachelor is more benefit to a community than old maid" was freely discussed by the following young ladies who chose the pro side: Misses Alma Woodside, Mattie Ramsay, Matilda Owen and Mildred Ramsay while the con side was upheld by Allison Owen, James Ramsay, Ernest Lockerby and Wesley Crozier. The judges Mrs. John Simpson, Misses J. R. Cooney and Chas. Lowe decided that the victory had been won by the boys in their splendid defence of the con side. The remainder of the evening was occupied in contests singing, etc and the serving of the ice cream.

The following are the Presidents and the delegates of Auxiliary and Mission Bands of Princetown congregations who are in attendance at the Presbyterian of the United Church which is convening in Trinity United Church, Charlottetown this week. Miss Constance MacNutt is spending a pleasant few weeks with her aunt Mrs. Claude Sinclair, Amherst.

The many friends in this community of Mr. George B. MacNutt, Summerside learned with sincere regret his illness and trust that his recovery will be complete.

Mr. Russell Woodside who is taking Arts course in Dalhousie University returned on Saturday to spend the summer vacation at his home in Dalrymple.

Mrs. D. S. MacNutt who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Montgomery Jones of St. John N. B., during the winter returned to her home at Malpeque on Thursday April 29th.

The condition of the roads this year are vastly different to that of last year and indeed of many previous years. A year ago horses and wagons could be seen on the roads as early as first of April. While this year the sleighs are still in use, what is even more unusual is the fact that on April 25th crossing was made on Hamilton ice. It is believed that another week of alternating sunshine and snow will effect a complete change in the condition of the roads and the wagons and cars will soon again be in evidence.

Mr. and Mrs. Hume Hoggood, Malpeque enjoyed the privilege of celebrating their fortieth anniversary on the 27th inst. The pleasure of this day was greatly increased by the presence of their daughter Dr. Pearl Hoggood of Dartmouth, N. S. who is home expressly for the purpose of joining in the festivities which the day offers and Mrs. Mallet of Charlottetown, sister of Mrs. Hoggood was also present on the occasion. Mr. Hoggood has served during his married life as druggist in the employ of Peter MacNutt and son, and Mrs. Hoggood and daughters have been active in many ways in church and community life. During their residence here Mr. and Mrs. Hoggood have seen many changes, many have come and many have gone, but their household remains unchanged. It is worth while to review the memories of forty years, memories that bless, and to recount the blessings during these years, years that have been crowned with

"More rope" for The Salvation Army

The Salvation Army's mission is to throw a rope to help those shipwrecked on the seas of want, misery and suffering.

Mothers deserted, widowed or temporarily deprived of a helpmate, who may be in hospital or serving a sentence in prison; little children in need of food, clothing and shelter; men who have fallen low, lost their self-respect and courage—all are helped wherever they are found.

Thousands of men and women and children come under the protecting arm of The Salvation Army every year.

All this work is dependent entirely upon voluntary subscriptions—your dollars and the dollars of all who can spare them.

Every dollar given to The Salvation Army does a hundred cents' worth of good. The Army's work is so thoroughly organized and carefully administered that waste is eliminated and extravagance is unknown.

Help The Salvation Army to extend its rescue rope—to help more sufferers—to bring more happiness to the drab lives of little children and over-wrought mothers—to help more men into lives of usefulness and self-respect.

In Memoriam
MARION ADA MACKAY.

Psalm 23. "The Lord is my Shepherd"

Miss Marion Ada Mackay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Mackay of Campbellton, passed away about noon on April 22, 1926 at the home of her grandfather, Mr. Albert Welch at Cape Wolfe. She was married forty nine years ago. The deceased had suffered from pleurisy early in the winter and it was followed by further serious complications which kept the girl bedfast for some months. The change to the home of her grandfather seemed to rally her for awhile but she gradually slipped away into the land of eternal peace calmly and quietly.

The devotion of her Aunt, Mrs. Albert Welch, Mrs. Mary Lidstone; Mrs. Tom Cooke; Mrs. William Dodd, Mrs. Lewis Strang; Miss Minnie Murray; as well as many other neighbors and friends made the last weeks of the earthly life of their charge so much easier, better and brighter. In their turn they were rewarded by seeing the staunch faith of the girl in her Father God faltering never. In the midst of pain she would even burst into praise and sing a hymn; a great peace would pass over her, her face would lose the marks of anguish and her hours become quieter and more restful. Psalms also were constantly on her lips. She, although conscious of her approaching experience, never lost her grip on actualities.

As well as Mother and Father, Marion leaves behind her seven brothers and three sisters, as well as a host of friends and relatives. The Mother's heartfelt thanks goes out to all her friends who stood by her so royally in her hour of need.

Mr. Raeford Locke was the master of ceremonies and under his care all the funeral arrangements were carried out efficiently and expeditiously for all concerned, stranger as well as for his most

MR. JOHN AFFLECK.

The death of Mr. John Affleck of Mt. Stewart, occurred at his home on the evening of April 12, and he was buried in the family plot in the People's Cemetery on Wednesday afternoon, April 14th. The late Mr. Affleck was born at Black River, now known as Donaldson, and had lived until the coming June, would have been seventy five years of age. He lived for some years, during his early manhood, at Seartown, later on moving to Mount Stewart, where he lived for more than fifty years. He was married forty nine years ago, the 27th of last November, to Miss Elizabeth Birt, of Pisiquid, one of the most estimable ladies of the community, who survives him. The ceremony was performed by the late Rev. Mr. Fitzpatrick, an Anglican clergyman of many years ago, of Charlottetown.

Mr. Affleck was the father of thirteen children, eight of whom are living. They are as follows: Miss Bessie, of Boston; Alfred, Jonathan, Percy and Davison, all of Mount Stewart; Arthur, of the firm of Affleck and Proud, of Charlottetown; William, of Boston and Frederick of New York.

He left behind also, four living sisters and three brothers. The pallbearers, all old friends and neighbors, and were: George Jay, William N. McLeod, Daniel McAssey, David McDonald, Jos. Jas. McDonald and Augustina McDonald. The remains were carried to the grave by four grandsons and two nephews. They are Harold, Walter, Fred and Melvin Jardine.

The singing was by the choir of the Mt. Stewart United Church, the Rev. B. H. Penwarden conducting the service. A very large number were present to testify to the general esteem in which he was held. The late Mr. Affleck was a man very widely liked. A man of kindly and genial nature, he possessed, to an unusual degree, the capacity for making and holding friendships. Courteous and obliging always, he was ready to put himself out for the passing and expeditiously for all concerned, stranger as well as for his most

MRS. JAMES KELLY

A gloom of sadness was cast over Dundas and vicinity on January 18, 1926, when it became known that death had entered and claimed as its own Mrs. James Kelly, relict of the late James Kelly, formerly of Kinross, at the advanced age of 87 years.

Deceased had been in her usual health until a few hours before her death, which came as a shock to her relatives and friends. The late Mrs. Kelly was formerly Miss Jessie Beaton of Dundas, and in early life became converted and united with the Church of Scotland under the preaching of the Rev. D. McDonald, and remained a devoted member until the time of her death. After the death of her husband, who predeceased her a number of years ago, she resided with her brother, Angus, at Dundas.

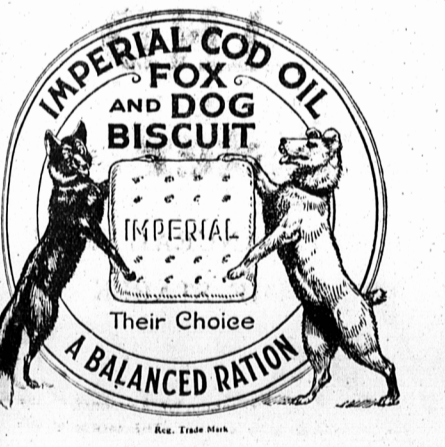

She leaves to mourn the loss of a loving sister, two brothers and one sister: Angus and Mary Beaton of Dundas, and Donald of Framingham, Mass., U.S.A., also a large circle of friends and relatives who will ever cherish her memory. Her funeral was held on January 20th, and despite the unfavorable condition of the roads, a large number assembled at the house to pay their last tribute of respect. The services were conducted at the house and grave by the Rev. Mr. Clark.

Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord.
