Nearly a million Canadian men and women in the armed services of the Dominion, more than a million in war industry, and all the others on the home front—have one goal in sight, a complete and speedy victory.

Teamwork counts as never before, for now the game is in its final, crucial stages. We must all put forth extra effort, use even more of our resources, to make the finish swift and sure.

It is urgent that in this Seventh Victory Loan we each buy at least one more bond than we bought before. It is our duty to our teammates; our duty to our children who will enjoy the fruits of victory. Let us do our duty gladly, that we may earn our place on our winning team.

NEW M-G-M FILM IS BLEND OF ROMANCE, COMEDY AND MUSIC

—Movie fans are in for a real musical treat at the Capitol Theatre, where Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Two Girls and a Sailor" started its engagement yesterday.

Here is a picture that has everything! It's an outstanding blend of music, comedy and romance that will keep you entertained every minute of the picture's running time.

M-G-M has rounded up a stellar cast, including Van Johnson, June Allyson, Gloria De Haven, Jimmy Durante, Jose Iturbi, Gracie Allen, Lena Horne and Harry James and Xavier Cugat and their bands — to name just a few of the luminaries—and has added the kind of music that's always high up on everyone's personal hit parade. Spiced with just the right amount of romance and comedy, the whole adds up to the best musical film of this or any other season.

But that isn't all, for there are songs by Jimmy, Lena Horne, Carlos Ramirez and Virginia O'Brien, a dance by Ben Blue, piano playing by Iturbi and his sister, Amparo Navarro, and the renowned One Finger Piano Concerto by Gracie Allen.

Describes Visit To Conway P. E. I.

(Island Traveller in Halifax Herald)

The easiest and most convenient way to reach Conway by car is to turn off the paved road a short distance this side of Portage. Conway is situated on the railroad about 28 miles west of Summerside. It is a neat little community and the 28 families who reside there, comparatively speaking, live quite close to one another. In other words the settlement is compact and seems to be thriving. Of course, many of the younger generation are absent now, due to the fact that they are serving their country.

The day of my visit most of the country schools in this section, or I might say in all sections of the province, were closed for a period of from two to three weeks so the pupils could assist in harvesting the important potato crop. Everywhere along the highways as I motored through this great agricultural country I could see men, women and children picking potatoes. The boys and girls of school age especially are doing a grand job in aiding the farmers this Fall and without their help the farmer would be in a difficult position with the scarcity of labor as it exists today.

A good number of these young people are also providing themselves with some extra cash, as wages for potato pickers are high. It would be better for all concerned if the weather man treated them more kindly, as continued wet weather has hindered potato digging.

A familiar family name in Conway is Ramsay, and it would appear to the visitor that about every other home contains someone whose surname is Ramsay. However, there also a few Palmers, Morrisons, Milligans and other well-known names around this district.

My first stopping place was the one general store and here I found the McNeills in control. After a short discussion of the none too favorable weather with the owner of the business, Oscar McNeill, and his good wife who helps him in the store, I went over to call on Postmaster John D. Palmer. John was just about ready to take off on his daily duty delivering mail to many rural families, so I spent a few minutes talking with Mrs. Palmer and their daughter Edith, who also assists around the post office.

As I was departing through the Palmer gateway I was hailed by Wallace Morrison, a well-known fisherman. Wallace and I had quite a long chat. Then I went on to call at the home of Roland Ramsay but Roland was not there, nor was his son Harry who drives a truck most of the time. However, I met Mrs. Ramsay who looks after the railway station and was surprised to hear that their daughter Glenn, who was always home on my previous calls, is now working in Summerside.

Another home I visited was that of Clarence Ramsay, a sectionman on the railroad, and here I met Mrs. Ramsay and her son Donald. I saw many other villagers during my short stay, among whom were Reg Ramsay and Erland Ramsay, both farmers, and Johnnie Murphy, another sectionman.

Teacher at the Conway school this year is Mrs. Clinton Morrison. Just before bidding farewell to Conway I must pay tribute to their Women's Institute, which has been making great contributions of work to the Red Cross. This Institute was organized about 10 years ago and now has a membership of 12. Last June they started holding weekly dances in the school house, the proceeds of which are to be used for the construction of a new school. On an average they realized approximately $30. from each dance. This small band of energetic women is to be commended for their initiative and efforts to improve the educational centre of their community. Officers of the Institute are:

President—Mrs. Erland Ramsay.
Vice-President — Mrs. Roland Ramsay.
Secretary - Treasurer—Mrs. Colin Milligan.

TRINITY Y. P. U. — The regular Y. P. U. meeting opened last night in the school hall with the business period, following which was recreation led by Murray Creed. The group then divided into discussion groups on "Right and Wrong" under the leadership of Miss MacDougall, Louise Cox, and Erma Tait. The worship service in Heartz Memorial Hall was under the leadership of the Fellowship Conveners, Jean MacLeod and Joyce Deacon. Call to worship and hymn, "In Christ There Is No East or West," opened this part of the meeting, followed by the scripture reading and prayer. Hymn, "Fight the Good Fight" was sung and a story on "The Gospel of Christ", was read. Hymn, "The Day Thou Gavest Lord Is Ended", and Mizpah benediction brought the meeting to a close. Peter MacDonald was pianist for the evening.

During the service at the church Mr. Walter Burdett sang as a solo "The Old Rugged Cross." The staff of the Island Motor Transport Company attended the services in a body. Pyke had been a bus driver with I.M.T. for several months.

AIRMEN ENTERTAINED — After the wings parade on Market Square yesterday afternoon the ladies of the Legion Auxiliary entertained the airmen at the Legion Home. While wings were being sewn on tunics a happy throng of shirt-sleeved boys were taken care of at the canteen where they were served sandwiches, cake, tea and coffee.

Fire Damages Building At Summerside

Fire which broke out about one o'clock yesterday afternoon gutted the upper part of a two and a half storey wooden building on Water St. Summerside, belonging to Mr. George Guergis.

The building has the modern grocery, belonging to Mr. Guergis on the ground floor, and on the second floor the offices of Mr. T.L. Compton, barrister and the living quarters of a Mr. and Mrs. Clarkin and their eight children. Mr. Clarkin is a member of the air force.

The fire, which is of undetermined origin, apparently started in a bedroom and was discovered by Mrs. Clarkin. She had her eyebrows and face singed and they lost their furniture and clothing.

Fire damage was mostly confined to the living quarters and the roof, but the stock of the modern grocery suffered severely from water damage. Firemen had the fire under control in about fifteen minutes after laying four lines of hose.

The building was partly covered by insurance but there was no insurance on the stock. Mr. Guergis is in Montreal at present and no estimate of the damage was available but it would reach $2,000—S

Death Yesterday At Halifax Of Mr. R. A. Ryan

The death occurred at Halifax yesterday of Mr. Reginald A. Ryan, age 63, following an illness of about two months. Mr. Ryan was a native of this city, being a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alexander A. Ryan. He was unmarried and the only relative left behind is one brother, Mr. George S. Ryan of the C. N. R.

Mr. Ryan left his native city in 1900 as a recruit to enter the garrison at Halifax, at the time of the replacement of imperial troops with Canadians in accordance with the military policy of the government adopted at that time. After undergoing the necessary training and securing the required qualifications he was promoted to Instructor, and as such, was sent many places in Canada as instructor wherever his services were required by the department.

At the outbreak of World War No. I he went overseas with his regiment, the Royal Canadian Regiment, which was among the first to reach the firing line. This regiment suffered heavy losses and not so many of its members returned to Canada at the conclusion of hostilities. At the close of the war Mr. Ryan accompanied the troop expedition to Russia as a Sergeant, and was able to return to Canada without injury of any kind.

Since his return to Canada from this expedition he again took up his task as Instructor, and was considered to be a most capable and well qualified officer. Some years ago he retried from the active militia on pension, and afterwards entered the services of the R. C. M. P. being assigned to duties in the Harbor district. He was well and favorably known as being a capable officer.

After a long service in the militia of Canada he will be laid to rest in the family plot at Sherwood Cemetery, beside the graves of his parents, the funeral taking place from the MacLean Funeral Home Sunday afternoon at 2.30 P. M. The Rev. James T. Ibbott will conduct the services.
