Dean Moves From Cub Bench To Coaching Line

CHICAGO, May 14—(AP)—The inimitable Dizzy Dean tried to quit baseball today but wound up by moving from Chicago Cubs' bench to the club's coaching lines—at a double.

In a surprise move which climaxed a day of Dean developments and actually left the once-great pitcher momentarily speechless, the Cubs refused Dean's request for voluntary retirement, gave him his unconditional release and signed him as a coaching aide to Manager Jimmy Wilson.

"Boy, has this club been good to me," said Dean when the Cub General Manager, James Gallagher, announced Dean would remain with the team. That remark succinctly summed up Dean's case. For the Cubs gave Dean a new contract as a coach, starting his pay today, and will give him the remainder of his reported $10,000 player contract at the end of the season.

Thus ends—for at least a year—the playing career of one of baseball's great pitchers, one who won 30 games and lost only seven for St. Louis Cardinals in 1934 and who in six seasons as a Cardinal averaged 22 victories a year.

MODERN TOUCH IN COURT

SAINT JOHN, N. B., May 14—(CP)—The old county court room here may have a modern touch soon. The municipal council has authorized the chairman of its buildings committee to ascertain the cost of installing a loud speaker in the witness box.

Atristus, owned by James Heffering, is one of the leading filly candidates for this year's renewal of the King's Plate. She's shown here with Henry Palace aboard. She worked a mile in preparation for the guineas in 1:49 3-5.

Homers beat Yankees for Fourth time

NEW YORK, May 14—(AP)—Home runs sent New York Yankees reeling to their fourth straight defeat today as Cleveland Indians reinforced their hold on first place in the American League with a 4-1 triumph behind the veteran Mel Harder.

The 31-year-old curve ball specialist, gaining his fourth victory without defeat, held the Yankees to six hits and was supreme except for the fifth inning. Then singles by Joe Gordon and Gerry Priddy and a long fly by pitcher Red Ruffing accounted for New York's lone run.

At Boston, Joe Cronin's grand slam off Pete Appleton in a seventh inning clinched a 10-7 victory for Red Sox over Chicago White Sox.

The White Sox enjoyed a 6-3 lead until the seventh.

At Philadelphia Johnny Lucadello, sent in at third base in an effort to improve St. Louis Browns' hitting, did just that, driving in three runs as his mates trounced Athletics 10-5.

At Washington a 16-hit attack, plus some weird fielding feats by the Tigers, gave Senators a 4-4 victory for a sweep of the two-game series with the league champions.

Dodgers on Trail of new Win streak

NEW YORK, May 14—(AP)—Brooklyn Dodgers, who earlier this season won nine games in a row, increased their current winning streak to seven games today with a 6-2 victory over Cincinnati Reds behind the eight-hit hurrying of Whit Wyatt.

The triumph at Cincinnati gave the National League leaders a sweep of their two-game series and a record of five victories in six games against the Reds this spring.

At Pittsburgh, the veteran Bob Klinger pulled a ball game out of the hat for Pirates with a fine sample of relief hurling and a timely double, enabling the Pirates to beat Philadelphia 12-7.

Manager Frankie Frisch started his newest pitcher, Nicholas Strincevich, obtained from Boston, but Nick Etten spoiled his day with a three-run homer in the first inning. Danny Litwhiler connected with another Philly homer in the second off young Loyd Dietz and Joe Marty made one of Russ Bauers.

30-day trainees To become pool

OTTAWA, May 14—(CP)—Men of 22, 23 and 24 years who took 30 days' compulsory military training under the old short-term training plan may be regarded as a pool to bring future compulsory training quotas up to strength should there be insufficient 21-year-olds. It was said authoritatively tonight.

At the same time both National War Services and the National Defence headquarters reported that the number of 21-year-olds available for four-months compulsory training is ample for immediate needs.

"I'm not saying the time won't come when we'll call up men of 21 years who already have had the 30-day training, but no such thing is contemplated immediately," one Defence department source said.

The next draft goes to camp in June. Defence Minister Ralston has announced that men called into the reserve army, on completing their training will be drafted for active service duty in Canada, thus releasing men now in the active army for duty elsewhere.

Win Senior Cadet Rifle competition

OTTAWA, May 14—(CP)—The Dominion of Canada Rifle Association tonight announced that Windsor-Walkerville (Ont.) Vocational School had won the Small Bore Competition for Senior Cadets held during January, February and March.

The Windsor-Walkerville team had a score of 3,526, or 97.94 per cent.

Leading teams in other provinces:—

New Brunswick—Fredericton High School, 12th with 3,411 points.

Nova Scotia—Le Marchant School Halifax, 147th with 1,715 points.

Warns of dark Days ahead for Universities

HALIFAX, May 14—(CP)—Dr. Carleton Stanley, president of Dalhousie University, warned graduates at the annual convocation yesterday that dark days lie ahead for the universities of the world.

"We meet today under dark and lengthening shadows, and our future for some time to come is obscure," he said.

"In several ways today we are racing against time. There is a race against time in the North Atlantic, there is a race against time in the Middle East. Bleak and cheerless months lie ahead of us, and many defeats, it may be because we were late in entering the race.

"But to my mind there is another race, about which I am much more fearful than I am about the military outcome of the war. Will there be a renaissance of learning before all learning is lost?"

"Will a few young devoted scholars try to understand again what European civilization is, and has been, before all the older scholars have left the stage? Over most of Europe, the books and monuments have been burnt and bombed.

"To destroy European civilization in America, you do not need to burn its records in a single fire. Leave those records unburned for a few generations and the effect will be the same."

Dr. Stanley said it was a "plain and evident truth" that hardly any university in Canada is "concerning itself greatly" with serious and fundamental study to conserve our intellectual heritage.

"I know I have one foot in the grave," Dr. Stanley said when he later was assigned to the fleet, "But I want to come back."

Oldtime Admiral Back in service

ALEXANDRIA, May 14—(AP)—Admiral Sir Walter Cowan, who joined the Royal Navy in the days when sails, instead of turbines, drove the fighting ships, is again serving at sea with Admiral Sir Andrew Cunningham, Commander in Chief of the Mediterranean fleet.

Sir Walter, who retired in 1931 and is now 69, had some difficulty persuading the Admiralty to allow him to return to the quarters. When war broke out he applied for a fleet assignment but the Admiralty bluntly replied: "No, too old."

"I know I have one foot in the grave," Dr. Stanley said when he later was assigned to the fleet, "But I want to come back."

Dr. E. S. Giddings Heads Tennis Club

Mr. J. E. Sterns presided at the annual meeting last evening of the Charlottetown Tennis Club in the absence of President Dr. G. G. Houston now in military service at Halifax. The meeting was held in the office of A. W. Matheson, M. L. A. Reports of committees showed a serious decline in interest during 1940. There is every indication that this will not be true of 1941. The courts are now ready for play and only tennis weather is required to witness an array of talent from the Charlottetown airport. A warm welcome awaits players from our gallant air force. The following executive were elected for the ensuing year: Hon. President, Premier T. A. Campbell. President, Dr. E. S. Giddings. Vice President, George Chandler. Secretary Treasurer, Miss Helen Tidmarsh. Additional Executive:—Miss Eleanor Bourke, Gordon Hutchison and George Ayers. Chairman of Committees:—Grounds: M. MacKinnon. Tea: Miss Lillian Duchemin. Membership: Wm. Moreside. Entertainment: Miss Felice Arsenault. Tournament: Stuart Chandler.

Warrigan is Favorite

TORONTO, May 14—(CP)—A two-time breeder of the King's Plate winner, Willie Morrissey has put the sign on Warrigan, the big son of Osiris II-Wa Vines, as the horse to beat in the 82nd running of the Canadian classic Saturday.

Morrissey won the Plate in 1938 with Bunty Lawless and his Willie The Kid, carrying the colors of Miss Miss Kane, swept home to the pot of gold at Woodbine Park last year.

Russia seeks Decision on trade

WASHINGTON, May 14—(AP)—Russia asked the United States in effect today whether it still wants to trade with the Soviet Union.

In his first call on State Secretary Cordell Hull in more than a year, Constantine Oumansky, the Soviet ambassador, sought clarification of the United States attitude on commercial relations with Russia.

He demanded a sound knowledge of sail-handing rather than familiarity with steam engines. He served in the eastern Mediterranean in campaigns at the turn of the century. He held captain's rank during the first Great War and from 1917 to 1920 commanded the first light cruiser squadron of the Grand Fleet.

He was Commander in Chief of the American and West Indies Station, 1926-28, and in the year preceding his retirement served as British Naval Aide to King George V.

Dartmouth And Conn-Martels Undefeated In Candlepin Bowling Tourney

DARTMOUTH, N.S., May 14—(CP)—Undefeated after three days of competition, Conn-Martels of Halifax and Dartmouth's trundlers continued tonight to show the way in the Maritime Eastern Maine Candlepin Bowling Tournament.

Not only did these strong teams lead the field. They held a monopoly on the individual scores.

Conn-Martels, who have won all their eight starts, scored 1672 against the Halifax Wolverines, to top Dartmouth's best effort by 8 pins and Don Himmelman's 404, made Tuesday night, remain the best three despite Bert Publicover's great effort in an afternoon game against Yarmouth.

Publicover, however, displaced Conn-Martels' Cal Rafuse for high single honors, scoring 165. Trying for the high three, Publicover fell down in the last two boxes, finishing with an even 400.

Dartmouth also holds the high team total—Conn-Martel, Halifax 1672.

High single—Dartmouth, 597.

Individual high single—Publicover, Dartmouth, 165.

High three—Himmelman, Conn-Martel, 404.

Best match of the day was Dartmouth's 22-point verdict over Yarmouth. The latter rolled 1642, third best score of the tournament, but it wasn't enough. Publicover's 400 sparked the harbor town squad.

Hardly had Dartmouth posted their 1664 score when Conn-Martels completed their conquest of the Wolverines with a 1672 total.

Standings:

Conn-Martels, Halifax	8	0
Dartmouth	7	0
Imperial, Halifax	5	3
Fredericton	4	4
Yarmouth	4	4
New Glasgow	4	5
Glace Bay Aces	3	5
R.C.A.F., Dartmouth	2	7

McSpaden wins War relief Tournament

BROOKLINE, Mass., May 14—(AP)—The unusually heavy 21-ounce putter favored by Harold (Jug) McSpaden of Winchester proved the ideal weapon for the Country Club's slow and grumpy greens today when he put together two sub-par rounds of 70 and 68 to win the "big eight" 36-hole medal golf tournament for the British War Relief Society.

McSpaden had 14 one-putt greens while turning in his 138-total, three strokes better than that of his closest rival, Ben Hogan, golf's leading money winner.

There will be softball practice for the New Dome Hawks tonight at 6:15 sharp. The following players are asked to be on hand: McCourt, Jackson, Williams, Chandler, McDonald, Cox, Gallant, Power, Tawell, Shepard, Martin, Lund, Arsenault, McNeill.

Harry Corbett, Mgr.

Manager Billy Southworth (REAR), of the St. Louis Cardinals, is up against it to decide which of his rookie pitchers he'll let go when the May 15 deadline for squad slashing comes up. Here he dallies with the enigmie-minie-mo system because they're all good. LEFT TO RIGHT: Johnny Grozicki, Ernest White, John Gornicki, Sam Nahem and Howard Krist. Somebody should tell him the Leafs could take one of them.

Orioles beat Royals

MONTREAL, May 14—(CP)—Baltimore Orioles snapped a seven-game losing streak today as they lacked a 4-3 defeat on Montreal Royals which dropped the Royals a full game behind the International League leading Newark Bears.

Four runs in the sixth inning, three of them unearned, brought Al Sherer his third defeat of the season against as many wins although he gave up only five hits in the seven innings he worked. Max Macen pitched the final two innings and allowed but one more blow.

At Toronto, Newark Bears and Maple Leafs divided honors in a doubleheader.

Tom Padden's home run in the opener gave Newark a 2-1 victory after Porter Vaughan had pitched three-hit ball for Toronto for eight innings.

Herman Besse, making his first start for the Leafs, won the second game 2-2 largely on Al Rubeling's lustrous clubbing.

At Buffalo, the Bisons protected their slim grip on third place when Freddy Hutchinson turned in a 2-0 shutout for the third straight Buffalo victory over Jersey City Giants.

At Rochester, Hy Vandenberg pitched two-hit ball to beat Syracuse Chiefs 2-1 but two were out in the ninth before his Red Wings mates pushed over the deciding run against Ted Kilenans.
