It is always interesting in the life of a great man, to know how the women of his acquaintance are dangerous, but they make things sure.

Health and cheerfulness mutually beget each other.

Thrust entirely, or not at all for a secret is often innocently betrayed by those who know but half of it.

TEA SHOULD be drunk as soon as it is brewed. That old habit of putting the teapot on the stove in the morning and keeping it on all day was no doubt a sign of hospital-ity, but it did not make for good tea. Every time you want a good pot of tea you should brew it freshly, always using an earthen-ware teapot and using water that has just come to the boil. Of course you must always have good tea. WEDDING IN U.S.—Miss Sophie Squarebriggs, daughter of Mrs. Priscilla Squarebriggs of Montrose, P. E. I. and Mr. Ellis Warren, A. Miller of Quincy, Mass., were married at the home of Major and Mrs. Leonard, 32 Bates St., on Sat- urday evening, Sept. 15th, 1923. The Rev. Geo. E. Heath, pastor of Park Ave., Methodist Episcopal church of Somerville, performed the ceremony. The bride looked very charming dressed in white satin canton crepe, draped at side and caught with a silver flow- er. A wreath of orange blossoms adorned her hair. The bride veil caught at sides of wreath hung over a long train. The bride car- ried a beautiful shower-bouquet of roses and maiden-hair fern, and was attended by her sister Jennie Squarebriggs who wore a pretty dress of orchard georgette with hat to match. She also carried a bouquet of roses. The flower girl, a little daughter of Major and Mrs. Leonard, looked very sweet in orchard georgette carrying a basket of pink roses. Mr. John H. Stewart, friend of the groom was best man. After the reception the bride and groom left for a wedding trip through the White Mountains. Mr. and Mrs. Miller will make their
