A lobster cannery, owned by Thomas M. Linkletter, M. L. 16, near the River ferry, was destroyed by fire yesterday. Loss was estimated at $3,000, partly covered by insurance.

WINS MAJOR PRIZE—Among the winners of the Canadian General Electric "Electrical Standard Living" contest, announced today, appears the name of Mrs. Robert Cotton, 6 Park Terrace, Charlottetown, who won a prize worth $500.00. This prize is in the form of certificates which may be applied on the purchase of any General Electric appliances or merchandise at published retail prices. The contest proved to be the most popular as was evidenced by the thousands of entries sent in from all parts of Canada. The Canadian General Electric Company congratulates Mrs. Cotton on the success of her entry.

DEATH REGRETTED—Mrs. Peiray Gay passed away on Friday, May 27th, a few days after being confined in the Provincial Sanatorium, before her marriage. She was the wife of the late Mr. Peiray Gay, who died in 1937. Mrs. Gay was 65 years of age, and her passing so sudden was a great loss to her family. She was a devoted and loving mother and wife. She is survived by her husband and several children.

RETURN FROM OTTAWA—A committee from the Queen's County Unemployed Association which interviewed Federal representatives and ministers at Ottawa returned to Charlottetown this week. The committee included J. Trainor, chairman, Daniel Goughlin, secretary, and Arthur G. Brown, and Arthur Gormley. Interviews were held with Hon. Norman Rogers, minister of labor and Hon. A. Dunnington, minister of finance, in addition to conferences with local representatives. The committee suggested proposals to the Federal Government and announced on their return that they had assurance immediate attention would be given local relief work.

INTERESTING COLLEGE NUMBER—The May issue of St. Dunstan's Review, which has made its appearance, and is of more than usual interest. A well merited tribute is paid to Mrs. Lucy G. Clark, who for the past twenty-one years has contributed a poem to the initial page of each issue of the magazine. Her work has been unexcelled in any literary publication. "Scouting and our Schools" is the subject of the review article by Rover Scout J. V. Walsh. Other articles include the alumni prize essay, "The Benefits of Rural Education," by Edmund J. Roche, and "Some good practical points on the subject of the school," by Frank O'Connor. Editorially the students are complimented upon their loyalty and generosity with the school, and the Review issue, which certainly reflects credit upon all concerned in its publication.

APPEAL CASE BEFORE COURT—The appeal case of Mrs. Verne Moore, defendant appellant, opened before a full bench in the Supreme Court at Charlottetown yesterday. Chief Justice J. A. Matheson, Mr. Justice A. E. Arsenault are hearing the appeal. The case was originally heard by Mr. Justice C. Saunders who gave judgment for the plaintiff for $4,000. It involved an action for damages alleged to have resulted from an automobile accident on the highway near Augustine Cove School last summer. Messrs. J. J. Johnston, K. O. and G. J. Tweedy, K. O. are appearing for Moore while Messrs. H. F. McPhee, K. O., Henry Noonan, Summerside, and Hon. Thane A. Campbell, K. O., are acting for the plaintiff. Mr. Johnston will resume his argument when the case re-opens today.
