Carleton and Vicinity

Rev. J. Harvey Bishop and Mrs. Bishop, of The Manse, Carleton, are visiting Mrs. Bishop's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Barclay of Winnipeg.

Sigma Hensley MacDonald of the R. C. N. V. R. has returned to duty after spending leave with his wife and little daughter Sandra in Borden, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russel MacDonald, Carleton.

Mr. and Mrs. George Heffell, Carleton, have as their welcome guest Mrs. Heffell's mother, Mrs. Sarah MacKenzie of Tryon.

Mrs. W. B. Stewart has arrived from Barrie, Ont. to visit her parents Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Muttar, Carleton.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Stevenson and family, Carleton, have returned home after spending the week-end with Mrs. Stevenson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. MacDowell, Pleasant Valley.

Mrs. Charles Bell, with her little daughters, Helen and Kathleen, and Miss Marion Bell, all of Charlottetown, were recently overnight visitors to Carleton.

Mr. Bruce Dawson Uig, spent the week-end with relatives in Tryon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Lord and family of Charlottetown were visitors to Alberton last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Erle Thomson and Mr. Fenton Horat, Carleton, motored to Alberton on Sunday.

Mrs. Edgar Doull and Mrs. Fred MacQuarrie, Chelton, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Doull, Carleton.

The last of a series of social evenings held in Carleton during the winter, took place at the home of Mrs. Helen Bell early in April. Mrs. George Heffell assisted the hostess in serving lunch and the sum of $7.50 was realized for the Red Cross.

The death occurred in the Charlottetown Hospital on Saturday April 3rd, of Mrs. Joseph Blaquiere of St. Mary's Road, at the age of 69 years, following a serious operation.

Despite the best of medical care she passed peacefully away, fortified by the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church of which she was a faithful member.

Her loss will be most keenly felt in the home by her sorrowing husband and family, who will mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother. Besides her husband she leaves three daughters and two sons—(Lena) Mrs. Leo J. Morrissy of Roxbury Mass. (Dora) Mrs. Frank Martin of Picton, N. S. (Margaret) Mrs. Alley Gallant of Carleton, P. E. I. Andrew at home and William in Randolph, Mass. who was called home by the serious illness of his mother a week before her death.

The funeral, which was largely attended, was held Monday morning April 5th at 9 o'clock to St. Ann's Church, Hope River.

Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Father Dalton who also conducted the service at the grave.

HOLD HIGH THE TORCH OF FREEDOM

VICTORY

Nothing short of victory over the powers of aggression will ensure a just and peaceful order after the war. There can be no compromise with international bandits.

In that victory all of us wish to share.

Victory's price is high

Some have the privilege of fighting; all have the privilege of saving money to supply our fighters with modern engines of war.

Enormous sums of money must be raised for ships, planes, tanks, guns, bombs, shells and bullets.

Have a share in the victory by saving so—

Buy Victory Bonds and War Savings Certificates and Stamps—

Pay the necessarily heavy Income Taxes—

IN ADDITION TO
Keeping up your Life Insurance and Providing for your Future Independence—

Such a programme of determined, systematic saving is part of the price of VICTORY.
