St. CATHERINE'S.—Though the late showery weather has much improved the crops, the hay crop will still be far below an average. We see very good fields of grass in the vicinity of Long Creek, the farmers of which place have adopted the plan of manuring their meadow lands in the spring.—Mr. and Mrs. Sweet, who have been on here visiting friends, left last Thursday for their home in Woodville, Mass. Mr. Sweet was delighted with our rustic scenery, invigorating climate and other advantages which combine to make his province the ideal spot of tourists.—Mr. A. McL. uchen is making extensive alterations and improvements in his dwelling house.—The tea held last Thursday on the beautiful grounds of A. C. Shaw, was a decided success. A large number of citizens took advantage of the favorable weather for a day's outing.—'Twas a pleasant sight to see the good old S.S. Southport steam up the river with her load of living freight. It so reminded us of the good old times when the government provided us proper steam communication with Charlottetown.—Mrs. Ann McEachern has returned from Georgetown, where she was on a visit to her uncle, Mr. Hugh McFadyen. This gentleman has attained the great age of 92 and is still a robust man with sight almost perfect.—Our annual school meeting was interesting and very business-like. Besides voting a large sum for permanent improvements and contingent expenses the rate-payers very generously supplemented Miss White's salary with the sum of $15. WEDDING BELLS.

Salvation Barracks Crowded Last Night.

THE Salvation Army Barracks was the scene of a pretty wedding last night when Mr. Henry Maxwell Chandler was united in marriage to Miss Florence Isabella Waughan. The articles of marriage of the Salvation Army were read by Ensign Miller, and Rev. D. B. McLeod, pastor of Zion Church, tied the knot. The bridesmaid was Miss Maimie Waughan, sister of the bride, and Mr. F. R-nouf supported the groom. The platform was beautifully decorated with greenery and house-plants. Suspended over the heads of the contracting parties was a floral bell. The bride wore the regulation uniform of the Army. At the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Chandler addressed the meeting, after which Rev. D. B. McLeod and Ensign Miller gave short addresses. The bride and groom were the recipients of a number of valuable presents, among which were a clock from Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cairns, a rocking chair from the employees of Mr. D. A. Bruce's tailoring establishment and a set of dishes from the S. A. Band. Mr. and Mrs. Chandler will live on Malpeque Road.

In Memoriam.

The funeral of the late Miss Katie Coady took place yesterday morning at 8.45. The pall bearers were:

Mr. J. P. Murphy, Mr. W. J. Brown, Mr. Chas. Duffy, Mr. Geo. Robinson, Mr. C. B. Perkins, Mr. Geo. Waller.

The coffin was literally covered with flowers, conspicuous among which was a large floral cross sent by the employees of F. Perkins & Co. among whom she was a congenial companion. The long procession moved slowly to the chapel where High Mass was celebrated, Rev. Dr. Morrison officiating, after which the remains were conveyed to the Cemetery St. Peter's Road followed by a large concourse of relatives and friends in token of the high esteem in which she was held during her life. Every sphere in which she moved was adorned by her genial disposition and estimable character.

The home circle who tenderly loved her, the friends who appreciated her hearty sympathy, and the church of which she was a faithful member, whose ranks she graced and strengthened, will miss her. But her memory is tender. Her works follow her and she being dead yet speaketh.

To grasp her hand was to read her heart, for her hand was always an open letter telling of a true heart within.

"We'll not forget thee, we who stay To work a little longer here; Thy name, thy faith, thy loss shall live On memory's page, all bright and clear."

"And when o'er-wearied by the toil Of life our heavy limbs shall be, We'll come, and one by one lie down Upon dear Mother-earth with thee."

Abscess Under the Arm.

Another permanent cure to the credit of B.B.B.

"In the beginning of the year 1897 I had a very severe attack of rheumatism. Sometimes I could not walk and had to be drawn in a chair.

"When I got better of that a large abscess formed under my arm and caused me a great deal of suffering as well as made me very weak. I had also sores in various parts of my body.

"Being advised to try Burdock Blood Bitters, I thought I would do so, and after taking it the abscess and sores all went away and have never come back on me since. I think B.B.B. a wonderful blood purifier and healer and write this that other sufferers may know of its great worth." Mrs. Philip S. Rice, Villa Nova, Ont.

AN HONEST CHEMIST.

Most druggists are honourable, and there is no need for you to deal with men who (because an imitation gives them more profit) try to sell you something else when Foot Elm is asked for. FOOT ELM positively cures tender, weaty feet. Scott and Jury Bowman, 245
