Cleanliness is Next to Godliness

If you want your home thoroughly clean and healthy, have it done scientifically. Ordinary disinfectants give only a false sense of security. Microbes and bacteria lurk beyond the reach of the most particular housewife. I use only the latest approved method which is a perfect germicide and endorsed by all Boards of Health and Health Officers.

His sister, Miss Elaine, will attend Edge Hill College beginning next term. Their father, Rev. J. M. Forbes, formerly of Alberton, P. E. I., will visit his former home this month, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Blanche.

The Methodist Church at Nashua, N. H., of which Rev. Mr. Ramsay is the pastor who is well known in this Province, was re-dedicated for worship recently. The service was conducted by Rev. J. C. Berrie, of Mansville, and Rev. Malcolm Orchard and attracted a large congregation. The church has been given a thorough overhauling inside and out and presents a fine appearance. It is worthy of note that the edifice is entirely clear of debt.

A few days ago a Guardian representative was shown a half bushel basket full of salt water trout caught at New Glasgow by two well known city chaps who are experts in casting the fly. The trout ranged in size from half to two pounders, and were caught in a morning and evening's fishing. The boys were in high praise of the treatment received from Hammond Binn with whom they stopped over night.

Last week a quiet wedding was solemnized at the residence of the bride's mother, 190 Lower avenue, Toronto, when Miss Kate Eaton Brecken, daughter of the late Rev. Ralph Brecken, D. D., and well known in this City, was united in marriage to Dr. William A. Black, of that city. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Paul R., was attended by Miss Vida M. Overland, of Erin, Ontario, while the groom was supported by his brother, Harold G. Black, of Pugwash. The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. Egerton R. Brecken, brother of the bride, in the presence of a few relatives and friends. Dr. and Mrs. Black left on the steamer Kingston for Montreal, whence they proceeded to Nova Scotia to spend three weeks before returning to reside in Toronto. Dr. Black is a native of Nova Scotia, being a son of the late Hibbert C. Black, of Pugwash.
