We have a large stock of Dr. Sharp's medicines now. These medicines are sold under positive guarantee to benefit or money refunded. During the few months since we became agents for them we have sold nearly five gross of the "Restorative and Rheumatic Remedy." Only four people received no benefits from the medicine. The guarantee quantity of either is six bottles for $5.00. Single bottles $1.—"The two Macs," MacDonal & MacKinnon, Druggists, Cor. Gt. George and Kent Streets.

Jack Martin, representing an Upper Canadian wholesale paper house was in Sackville yesterday. As his business is chiefly confined to the Lower Provinces and Newfoundland he is thinking of settling in Sackville. He was looking at a number of houses while here.—Sackville Post.

JAMES FRAME, contractor, of Boston, spent Thursday in Picton. Mr. Frame is a native of Shubenacadie. For 50 years he has been in Uncle Sam's country and prospered. He is now on a holiday trip through Nova Scotia, Cape Breton and P. E. Island. While in Picton he was the guest of H. G. Ives with whom he journeyed from Sydney.—Picton Advocate.

In the discharge of a cargo of lumber for the Hillsboro Bridge a number of the pieces stuck end ways in the mud and for some days past it has been found necessary in order to dredge the dock for the arrival of the Manchester Commerce to employ a diver to remove these obstructions and with great difficulty the sticks have been taken away. The diver's work was greatly hampered owing to the soft bottom.

W. A. Cuming of Cuming Bros. photographers was in the city on Saturday. At present these gentlemen have their tent pitched at Cardigan but purpose removing to Montague during the coming week. At the last regular meeting of Calvin, L. O. L., No. 1127, the undersigned officers were appointed to present George Morris with an address before leaving for Moose Jaw, N.W.T.

TO GEORGE MORRIS,
DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—Before leaving our village to spread tidings of great joy in the Northwest we in behalf of the members of Calvin, L. O. L., 1127, desire to place on record and express to you the respect and esteem in which you are held by your brethren in common. We may venture to say with all those who know your character and enjoy your society, your high ideals of life, your zeal, ability, and integrity in your noble order that of temperance and church work. Your honesty in business where professions are reduced to practice, inspire us with hope that there is before you a career of usefulness, prosperity, honor and blessing. And rest assured sir, that we will ever watch that career with interest, joy in its success and hope to be partakers in some measure of its ultimate blessing.

Signed in behalf of L. O. L., No. 1127,
HUGH McCLURE, W. M.,
GEORGE SUTHERLAND, R. S.
Bradalbane, July 15, 1902.

To this address Mr. Morris made an appropriate reply thanking the Lodge for its kind wishes, and expressed the hope that he would ever prove worthy of their esteem.

Let Us Help You To Keep Cool.

That is our most attractive business proposition these days. We are very satisfactorily ready to help men enjoy the summer. There's no sort of reason why a little matter of six or eight or ten degrees of heat should "put you out of business." Summer comfort is only a matter of correct dress. And that is where we come in, in fine shape.

Comfort-making Underwear.

Is here in every quality. We have underwear at 20c, 22c, 25c and 32c per garment. We've better underwear in fine light balbriggan at a dollar per suit—and from that we go right up through a dozen grades to genuine Linen Mesh, the finest Summer Underwear in the world $4.75 a suit.

Why Don't You Wear a Colored Shirt?

These days when the heat coaxes you to see how many garments you can do without—the best goes first.

If you've a neat colored shirt and a belt, you don't want a vest until September.

Colored Shirts 80c, 1.15, 1.25 and up.

We have soft and stiff fronts—in popular patterns and we're expecting a new lot this week.
