GERMAN WRITERS ADMIT JERUSALEM'S FALL A BLOW

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—Frank H Symonds in an article to the press says:

The other day a laconic British official statement announced the completion of the campaign in German East Africa. Its significance was little appreciated by a world whose attention was fixed upon Cambrai and the Russian revolution. And yet it marks the passing of one of the great colonial empires of modern times. When the war broke out German colonies occupied more than a million square miles of African territory, an empire in area larger than that lost by France under the Old Monarchy in the wars with Britian which preceded the Napoleonic era.

Bagdad, Jerusalem, German Africa —these are measures of the present struggle between the Briton and the German. We are entering the fourth winter of the war, a war which German statesmen and German scholars quite as much as German soldiers proclaimed was to be a contest between a Modern Rome and a contemporary Carthage, a contest in which the German should play the Roman role And after four campaigns no German ship sails the seas, every German colony is in British hands save for those occupied by Britian's, French and Japanese Allies; Germany's Turkish ally has lost Mesopotamia and the Holy Land; British armies occupy the roads to Suez and the Persian Gulf, and no single foot of British territory has now a German master.

If one could preserve an historical perpective in the midst of the crowded incidents of the present time it would be perceived that history is strangely repeating itself. Britian is doing to Germany now what she did to Spain, to Holland, to France Challenged by an ambitious rival, she has swept that rival from the seas, she has destroyed the colonial edifice of the new foe, and her armies are joined to those of half the civilized world in a fight upon German armies on the European Continent.

WORK WAS NOT CONGENIAL TO ADMIRAL

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Rear-Admiral Frederick R. Harris, recently appointed general manager of the shipping board's emergency fleet corporation, today asked to be relieved of that duty and returned to his post as chief of the navy's bureau of yards and docks. His request will be granted, and Charles A. Pier, a Chicago engineer, vice-president of the Emergency Fleet Corporation, will be named to succeed him. It is understood that Admiral Harris' reason for surrendering the task was because he did not find the work congenial.
