Provincial Premiers Gather In Ottawa to Discuss Important Problems

The first major chore of Prime Minister W. L. M. King after returning from his holiday in the south was to call together the provincial premiers for a conference on a number of important questions, among them being revision of the British North America Act. The above layout shows the provincial premiers as they listened to the opening address by the prime minister, who is seen (CENTRE) flanked by Cabinet Ministers Lapointe (LEFT) and Dunning. At EXTREME TOP (LEFT) is Premier John Bracken of Manitoba; EXTREME TOP (RIGHT) Hon. L. A. Taschereau, recently re-elected premier of Quebec; BELOW, LEFT to RIGHT, Hon. W. J. Patterson, premier of Saskatchewan; Hon. William Aberhart, premier of Alberta; Hon. Wm. Patullo, premier of British Columbia; Hon. Mitchell Hepburn and Hon. Angus Macdonald, premiers respectively of Ontario and Nova Scotia, affectionally greet each other. They are the youngest premiers in Canada, Hepburn being 39, and Macdonald 45.
