Dorothy Dix Says—

HUSBAND, 54 WANTS DIVORCE Middle-Aged Infatuation Is Tragic, Unhappy Mate Is Warned

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I am a man 54 years old. I have been married thirty years to a woman whom I thought I loved. She has been a faithful wife and wonderful mother to our five children. But she wouldn't work in a defense factory and have fallen in love with another man. She has refused to give me a divorce. She is a very nice woman and I would like to have her back. Would it be advisable for me to leave the state and get a divorce so I can marry the woman I love? My daughter will surely support me in this. She will have the house and the car. I will never forgive me and will abuse me if I do.

MISERABLE PATER AND HUSBAND DON'T LOSE SELF-RESPECT

ANSWER—Don't you think that you are playing a very low game in your daughter's eyes? Don't you think that you are playing a very low game in your daughter's eyes? SWIFT'S WEEKLY FOOD HINTS

Martha Logan, Swift's famed home economist, makes these weekly, wartime cooking columns a regular feature of this page. Look for these valuable hints each Monday.

Picnic Platters

Swift's Table-Ready Meats are the perfect answer to the picnic problem. Very few of us have either the time or the inclination these days to make the elaborate preparation our parents considered essential for a picnic. And yet the occasional meal out of doors—even if it be only in one's backyard—is good for health, appetite and morale too. So if you feel the picnic urge coming on, just slip over to your neighborhood store and make your selection from the wide array there of Swift's Premium Table-Ready Meats. Add a crisp lettuce or two, a bottle of home made pickles; a paper container of potato salad—you can buy it to make your own, see panel—and a loaf of bread... and you're all set for an enjoyable outdoor meal with no more fuss or feathers.

- #### MARTHA LOGAN'S POTATO SALAD
- 1 cup celery finely cut
 - 1/4 cup minced onion
 - 1 cup French Dressing
 - 4 cups diced cooked potatoes
 - Salt and pepper
- Put chopped onions and celery in salad one hour in French Dressing. Add cooked potatoes and mix ingredients lightly... taste and season further if required.
