THE LITTLE CARES.

The little cares that fretted me, I lost them yesterday Among the fields above the sea, Among the winds at play; Among the howling of the herds— The rustling of the trees; Among the singing of the birds— The humming of the bees.

The foolish fear of what may come, I cast it all away Among the clover-scented grass, Among the new-mown hay; Among the husking of the corn, Where drowsy puppies nod; Where ill thoughts die and good are born— Out in the fields with God! —Elizabeth Barrett Browning.

AN APPEAL TO THE WOMEN OF THE FIRST METHODIST CHURCH.—It having been decided that the Ladies of Canada will provide a Hospital ship to be presented to the Imperial Government, the ladies of the First Methodist church are invited to send their contributions to the fund for this purpose to Mrs. James Paton, 241 Prince St., or to Mrs. Paton's store, the money to be forwarded to the Vice-President as coming from the ladies of this congregation. The Committee trust that every lady will contribute, as any sum, small or large, will be gratefully received and duly acknowledged. Saturday will be the last day for receiving contributions.

INSTITUTE WORK.—At the last regular monthly meeting of the Cornwall-York Women's Institute held at the home of Miss Kathleen Macdonald, on August 3rd, a practical lesson in cooking was given by Mrs. Dunbrack, supervisor. The large number of members and visitors present showed the interest taken in this work by the ladies of these districts. After the demonstration the postponed business of the annual meeting was taken up. The President's address dealing with the work of the Institute for the past year and also the Financial Report of the Secretary were fully discussed, followed by the election of officers for the ensuing year. As the President, Mrs. George Macdonald, and Secretary, Mrs. David Scott, declined re-election, Mrs. Donald Murchison was appointed President, and Miss Mamie Robertson, Secretary. Directors, Miss Mallett, Mrs. D. White, Mrs. H. Murchison, Miss K. Macdonald, Mrs. Abbott and Mrs. Orman. Auditors, Mrs. David Scott and Miss Bertha Scott. Patriotic choruses and words of loyalty evidenced the deep feeling of all in the struggle now going on and there is no doubt the appeal for aid in hospital work by the Mother Country, will meet with a generous response from the Institute. A hearty vote of thanks to the Supervisor, Mrs. Dunbrack, and to the hostess, Miss Macdonald, brought to a close, a very successful meeting. The subject for discussion at next meeting will be "Pickling and Preserving," and will take place on Sept. 7th at York School.
