ANNUAL MEETING CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY

ed during the year were placed in the Protestant Orphanage.

During the past four years a total of 28 neglected dependent children were made wards of the Children's Aid Society through the Juvenile Court and were afterwards provided for as follows:

P. E. Island Protestant Orphanage	13
St. Vincent's Roman Catholic Orphanage	6
Halifax Industrial School	1
St. Patrick's Home, Halifax	1
Left with their parents	4
Placed in private foster homes	2
Maritime Home, Truro	1

Yours respectfully,
W. W. MacPHEE,
Agent, Children's Aid Society.

On motion the reports of the Secretary and the Agent were adopted unanimously and a copy of each ordered to be forwarded to the Provincial government and the City Council.

Mr. L. W. Watson, Supt. of Neglected and Dependent Children delivered an address in the course of which he commended the condition prevailing at the two Orphanages and expressed the hope that arrangements would soon be made by the management of the Protestant Orphanage for the erection of a modern building. He also commended the work of the Society and the Agent.

The President, Dr. Conroy, delivered his seventh annual address, setting forth the aims and objects of the Children's Aid Society and the splendid manner in which it is performing its mission in this city. He spoke in complimentary terms of the members of the Board who assisted him, the Judge of the Juvenile Court; the two Orphanages and Agent of the Society for continued good work.

The Society has now no difficulty in placing delinquents as the Provincial government has agreed to a definite understanding with Reform institutions in Nova Scotia.

On Motion of Mr. Watson, the Society recorded its appreciation of the action of the government and City Council in increasing the grant to the two Orphanages.

Brief addresses were delivered by Dr. W.J.P. McMillan, Rev. Dr. Fullerton, Rev. Canon Simpson, His Honor Judge Martin, Mr. Donald McKinnon, Solicitor and His Worship Mayor Brown expressing approval of the splendid work done by the Society in the past which proved that it has justified its continued existence.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows:

President—Dr. Conroy.
Vice-Presidents—Rev. Dr. Fullerton and Rev. Maurice McDonald.
Solicitor—Mr. D. McKinnon.
Sec. Treas.—Mr. W. L. Cotton.
Board of Management (officers ex-officio):
Revs. Canon Simpson, Frank McPhee, J. P. A.

The General Guardian

IT PAYS to buy in this province.

FANCY TABLE RAISINS just arrived. Jenkins & Son. 1288

POWNAL RED CROSS.—Several well filled boxes, Christmas presents for the gallant boys at the front were packed by the Pownal Red Cross; amongst other good things were 13 pairs mitts, and 25 prs. socks.

BODY ARRIVES TONIGHT.—The body of the late Miss Mary Gaul, who died in St. Catherine's, Ont. on Sunday last is expected to arrive by tonight's express. One brother of the deceased lives in this city, Richard Gaul, a plasterer.

MR. RITCHIE IMPROVING.—Mr. George Ritchie of the firm of Carvell Bros. who was injured in a runaway accident several weeks ago, is now much improved and able to take short walks. His friends sincerely hope for his early complete recovery.

STREET IMPROVEMENTS.—The drain at the eastern end of Water Street, near the Railway Station is now almost completed. When finished it will be able to handle quite a bit of the moisture which makes this street more of a bog than a city thoroughfare.

CLEVER SLOGAN.—The publicity department of the central War Bond committee is issuing stickers bearing the following legend—"Count that day lost whose low descending sun finds in your hand no Victory Bond or gun." The design comprises an appropriate sunset effect.

SPECIAL DINNER AT KOZEY KORNER.—From six to nine tonight. Orchestra and dancing. Menu—Oysters half-shell, soup, cream tomato, roast, roast goose, apple sauce, roast duck, currant jelly, roast chicken, cranberry sauce, beet and celery salad. Vegetables—cream potatoes, mashed turnips, creamed carrots, fruit jelly, whipped cream, ice cream, cake, tea, coffee, cheese and crackers. 1291-11-20M11.

CHRISTMAS OVERSEAS PARCELS.—A committee will be at Zion church this afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock to receive contributions for Xmas boxes for soldiers overseas.

EXCELLENT CONTRIBUTION.—At the tea and entertainment provided by the hostesses of the "Foresters House," Pownal, recently the sum of $20.00, was added to the funds of the Pownal Red Cross.

HANDSOME SUBSCRIPTION TO VICTORY BONDS.—Among the many subscriptions yesterday was one from Mr. George A. Thompson of Montague for $6,000.—As Mr. Thompson is a shrewd business man this subscription should be a good pointer to the people of King's County to place their savings in Victory Bonds. The Guardian feels sure, Mr. Thompson would not have made this investment unless he was satisfied of the security and excellent interest returned.

PRINCE EDWARD THEATRE.—The big attraction at the Prince Edward Theatre yesterday was "June Caprice" (The Sunshine Maid) in "A Small Town Girl." Alone in a big city, the heroine falls into the toils of a stirring diamond robbery mystery, she helps get the thieves behind the bars and also wins her old lover. The fourth episode of "The Seven Pearls" proved a thrill from start to finish, full of thrilling surprises and tense situations. Creighton Hale, the hero, has certainly gained a large following in Charlottetown. The program was excellently balanced by a roaring comedy "Out again in Agate" in which William Franey kept the audience in uproarious mirth from start to finish. The complete show will be repeated this afternoon and twice tonight.

WHY ALL SHOULD SUBSCRIBE TO THE VICTORY LOAN

BY PROFESSOR H. L. STEWART.

The following is the statement on the Victory Loan, prepared by Professor H. L. Stewart, to be read in the schools of Nova Scotia.

In this month of November every citizen of Canada will be asked to entrust to the Government what money he can spare for the "Victory War Loan." One hundred and fifty million dollars are wanted. The rate of interest will be five and one half per cent. Everyone who can save for this purpose fifty dollars, or any multiple of fifty dollars, the more the better, is called upon on personal grounds, on moral grounds, and on patriotic grounds, to use it in this way.

Why? There are at least three good reasons.

1. To win the war Canada needs a constant stream of money just as much as she needs a constant stream of men. Soldiers do the fighting. But they can't fight without transport, without food, without weapons, without ammunition, and all this has to be paid for. Soldiers are killed, or wounded, or taken prisoner, and others have to be sent to fill their places. Food is consumed, the coal on ships is burned away, weapons are lost in battle or are worn out, ammunition is exhausted; all this wastage has to be again and again made good. We believe that if everyone here does his best we can repair our losses faster and longer than the Germans can repair theirs. But lack of money on our side would give the enemy his chance just as surely as lack of men.
2. There are many of us who are not able to go to the front. We may be too old, or too young, or too feeble or too much required for other duties. Must we then feel that we are having no part in the war? That we are doing no blow at all for hearth and home? Not so. If we restrict our luxuries or our pleasures, if we pinch ourselves in something that we would otherwise buy, and put the money we can save from this into the Victory War Loan, every dollar we use so is a stroke delivered by our own hand against the enemy just as truly as if we were fighting. It is thus a chance to "do one's bit," for every man, every woman, every child.
3. Does any thrifty person feel that he must keep his savings for a "rainy day"? There is no way in which he can keep them so surely and at the same time so profitably as by putting them into the Loan. For what we put there is not a gift; we lend it to our country in her need. And there is no better investment, there is hardly anywhere so good an investment in all the world. Perhaps never has such high interest been offered with such perfect security. It simply cannot be lost, unless the war itself were lost; and if that should happen the Germans would take from us by force far more than we are now lending our Government to stop them. Looked at in even the most selfish way the Victory War Loan is the best place our money could go for our own advantage.

Cassurers will call at each house to ask for what you can spare. If any house should be overlooked, all that is needed is to go to the nearest Bank, where you will get all directions as to what you must do, and all help in

EXEMPTION TRIBUNALS

The Laurier workers are shedding crocodile tears over the number of men that the Military Service Act will take away from the farms of this province. Here are the figures: Up to last night the number of applications for exemption dealt with by the tribunals was 933. Of these 40 were disallowed, that is 893 of the 933 applications were exempted. This shows, as has so often been said, in the Guardian that the intention of the Military Service Act is not to disturb the essential callings, such as agriculture, fishing, etc., and the Tribunals are carrying out the intention of the Act.

IN MEMORIAM

THE LATE HARRY LAPPIN.

The recent sad news of the death of Harry Lappin brought a painful feeling of regret to his many friends and early associates in this city. Deceased when quite a young boy left Charlottetown for the United States and was for a number of years previous to his demise engaged in prospecting in Alaska. Less than a year ago finding his health failing him he returned to Portland, Oregon, and entered a Hospital for treatment where he passed away on the morning of the 16th inst. in the thirty eighth year of his age. Deceased was a son of Mrs. Patrick Lappin, Hillsboro Street and the sad message which was received on Friday evening was a severe shock to Mrs. Lappin and family. Besides a sorrowing mother he leaves to mourn two sisters, Misses Mary and Margaret at home and two brothers James, Assistant Purser S. S. Northumberland and John of the I. C. R. Sydney N. S. to all of whom the warm sympathy of the community goes out in the hour of their bereavement. "May his soul rest in peace."

Whether used internally or externally this wonderful old family anodyne soothes—Heals—Destroys Pain.

THERE IS OFTEN A SLIP TWIXT THE CUP.—Yesterday afternoon a certain man was standing very peacefully and quietly on the platform of the railway station. According to those who saw him it is stated that his face wore that rapt expression borne by one whose cogitative mind is immersed in the cogitancy of cogitation. But while he stood a vegeful fate was overtaking him in the person of Sergeant Brantley, who when he caught his quarry, despoiled him to the extent of a bottle, the contents of which caused many an eager and covetous eye to be turned towards the sterner center. After the "Sarge" had annexed the bottle the bibulous wanderer was permitted to proceed on his journey and he left on the Murray Harbor train a poorer and sadder if not a wiser man.
