ONLY A MASK.

Many are not being benefited by the summer vacation as they should be. Notwithstanding much outdoor life, they are little if any stronger than they were. The tan on their faces is darker and makes them look healthier, but it is only a mask. They are still nervous, easily tired, upset by trifles, and they do not eat or sleep well. What they need is what tones the nerves, perfect digestion, create appetite, and makes sleep refreshing, and that is Hood's Sarsaparilla. Pupils and teachers generally will find the chief purpose of the vacation best served by this great medicine, which as we know, "builds up the whole system."

HE WAS PARALYZED

Unable to Walk or Raise His Hands to His Head.

A More Unfortunate Case Could Scarcely be Imagined Than a Husband and Father in this Wretched Condition.

OSHAWA, ONT., August 8.—The experience of Mr. Joseph Brown, an employee of the Oshawa Malleable Iron Works, should be a lesson to every sick person.

Some five years ago, Mr. Brown, who is a hard working, industrious, and sober man, began to feel a stiffness and soreness in the calves of his legs. This gradually increased till he had lost all power in his limbs and arms. He could not raise his arms to his head to save his life and for over four months he could not stand nor walk a single step.

All the doctors treated him and gave him up. Then he consulted a Bowmanville doctor who told him he could do nothing for him and advised him to go to the hospital in Toronto where they might be able to help him a little.

To the hospital he went in January, 1893, and remained under treatment for over four weeks. Twelve doctors told him he could not recover and that nothing could be done for him. He was getting worse every day and when removed to his house in Oshawa was like a baby unable to move.

His father-in-law, Mr. John Allin, had heard of Dodd's Kidney Pills and suggested that Mr. Brown try them. He did and he says:—

"I used altogether twelve boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and by the first of May I was able to start work again in the shop and I have never been sick or off work a day since."

"I am sure, I owe my life, health and strength to the great remedy, Dodd's Kidney Pills."

TBE CITRIC ACID (Natural Fruit Acid) in Sovereign Lime Juice is an excellent corrective for many summer ills.

CONDENSED WINE.

PARIS, Aug. 4.—The Paris Academy of Medicine has examined two remarkable discoveries. The first is that of Dr. Baudouin, who has succeeded in condensing wine as much as milk is condensed, a whole barrel being reduced to four gallons. S. SCHOOL LESSON.

LESSON VI, THIRD QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, AUG. 10.

Text of the Lesson, Lev. x, 1-11. Memory Verses, 8-11—Golden Text, I Thess. v, 6—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1902, by American Press Association.]

1. And Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, * * * offered strange fire before the Lord, which He commanded them not.

The opening chapters of this book tell of the different offerings, all typifying our Lord's one great offering, and of the consecration of the priests, the Lord accepting the atonement offerings by fire supernatural (Lev. ix, 7, 22-24). Now, right at the beginning of the ministry of the priesthood we see this sad failure on the part of two of Aaron's sons. "Every man at his best state (apart from God) is altogether vanity" (Ps. xxxix, 5).

2. And there went out fire from the Lord and devoured them, and they died before the Lord.

Thus at the very beginning of the priesthood Jehovah made it very plain that He would have a whole hearted service or none. So also at the beginning of the church story in the case of Ananias and Sapphira (Acts v, 5, 10) He showed unmistakably how He hates deceit and half heartedness.

3. Then Moses said unto Aaron, This is it that the Lord spake, saying, I will be sanctified in them that come nigh Me, and before all the people I will be glorified. And Aaron held his peace.

That they were to be a holy people unto the Lord is the oft repeated requirement from Ex. xix, 6, 22, onward. Jesus said concerning Himself and His disciples in His great intercessory prayer, "For their sakes I sanctify Myself that they also might be sanctified through the truth" (John xvii, 19).

4. E. Come near; carry your brethren, from before the sanctuary out of the camp.

Thus Moses commanded the sons of Uziel, the uncle of Aaron, and thus they did. But what about Nadab and Abihu? We never bury people, strictly speaking; we bury the bodies in which they sojourned for a season. It has been a great comfort to me to think of this since ever I grasped the fact that if my body ever has a burial I will not be there that day, but absent from the body and present with the Lord; with Christ, which is very far better (II Cor. v, 8; Phil. i, 21, 23).

5. Uncover not your heads; neither rend your clothes.

Thus Moses commanded Aaron and his two surviving sons. Mourning has ofttimes a large element of rebellion in it. This we must not tolerate, lest we find fault with God. We must abide on the Lord's side even though His chastening falls on those who are very dear to us. If we love our loved ones more than we love God, we are not worthy of Him.

7. Ye shall not go out from the door of the tabernacle of the congregation lest ye die, for the anointing oil of the Lord is upon you.

Because they were the anointed priests of the Lord, chosen to minister unto Him, they were to keep themselves wholly for Him. The Spirit says through Peter that believers are a holy priesthood to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God by Jesus Christ—a royal priesthood to show forth His praises (I Pet. ii, 5, 9). In Eph. iv, 30, we read that we are not to grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom we are sealed unto the day of redemption.

8. The Lord spake unto Aaron, saying, Do not drink wine nor strong drink, thou, nor thy sons with thee when ye go into the tabernacle of the congregation lest ye die.

The Lord had been speaking to Aaron through Moses, but Aaron by his submission and obedience has come into a place where the Lord Himself can speak to him. Some think because of this prohibition that this was partly at least the trouble with Nadab and Abihu, but in Num. vi, 1-3, we learn that it was part of the obligation of every Nazirite or specially separated person. That which tends to muddle a man's brain unites him to worship God, and as His people redeemed with precious blood we are to live only and wholly "unto Him who loveth us" and "do all to the glory of God" (Rev. i, 5, R. V.; I Cor. x, 31). A good word for the unsaved intemperate is, "Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards shall inherit the kingdom of God" (I Cor. vi, 10), and for the saved intemperate, "It is good neither to eat flesh nor to drink wine nor anything whereby thy brother stumbleth or is offended or is made weak" (Rom. xiv, 21).

10. And that ye may put difference between holy and unholy and between clean and clean.

They were, as a whole nation, severed from other people, that they might be the Lord's (Ex. xix, 5, 6; xxxiii, 10; Lev. xx, 20). In Egypt and the night they left Egypt the Lord put a difference between His people and those who were not His (Ex. viii, 23; xi, 7). In Gen. i, 3, 4, He divided the light from the darkness, and in II Cor. vi, 14-18, the division and separation are very strongly emphasized. By nature and by practice all are sinners, and there is no difference as to the fact, though there is as to the degree of guilt (Rom. iii, 22, 23).

11. And that ye may teach the children of Israel all the statutes which the Lord hath spoken unto them by the hand of Moses.

They were first to do, then to teach, and this is always the order (Mark vi, 30; Acts i, 1). Unless we ourselves are holy in our lives and separate from the world lying in the wicked one our advice to others will not have much weight, for we will then be like the Pharisees who say, but do not (Matt. xxiii, 3); but if, like Levi, we walk with God in peace and equity we shall turn many away from iniquity (Mat. ii, 6).
