the absolutely safe treatment, antiseptic, adhesive, healing and waterproof. You get relief the moment you put one on. Then it protects the sore spot while it heals. Try a box to-day. Sold by shoe, drug, and departmental stores.

Mr. Grocer

Did you ever realize the more HICKEY'S TOBACCO you sell the more money you get back, because Hickey's is manufactured right here in our own city, and the money the employees get, you get it back in return for goods. So in more of HICKEY'S BLACK TWIST and HICKEY'S SMOKING TWIST you sell the better. It is up to every grover to push the sale of these splendid tobaccos and by doing so will keep the money circulated at home.

SUTHERLAND-MacMILLAN.—The marriage of Genevieve Mac Millan, daughter of R. M. and Mrs. Macmillan, to Mr. George M. Sutherland, son of the late Wm. G. and Mrs. Sutherland, took place at Montague, Oct. 8, 1922 at 6.30 a. m., the Rev. J. D. McKenzie officiating. The bride looked charming in a traveling suit of navy blue tricotine, with hat to match, and carried a shower of bouquets of pink and white chrysanthemums. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland, mid showers of confetti and good wishes, left on the train for Charlottetown, where they had luncheon at the home of the groom's mother. The happy young couple left on the afternoon train en route for their future home in Red Wing, Minn., where the groom has secured an excellent position with the Rest Island Fox Co. Prior to the marriage a linen shower was given to Miss Macmillan at the home of Mrs. W. Duke. An address and presentation was given to the groom in the Masonic Hall by the Royal Chapter, of which he was a valuable member. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful gifts, including several substantial cheques, linen, cut glass and silverware. The good wishes of their many friends for their future happiness and prosperity follow them.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

On Friday evening, the members of Eclectic Lodge, No. 73, L.O.F., waited upon Mr. Calvin McKinnon in their Lodge Room in Kensington to celebrate an event in his life of more than ordinary importance. The purport of the subjoined address read by Miss Ruth McArthur and Miss Mamie Sheen made the presentation—a beautiful and substantial Club Bag

ADDRESS
Mr. Calvin McKinnon, Kensington

Dear Sir and Brother:—We, the members of the Eclectic Rebekah Lodge, No. 73, hearing with regret that you are about to depart to the United States for an indefinite period, have assembled here this evening to bid you a kind farewell. You have always most willingly assisted the Lodge in every practical and effective way and your hearty and promotive co-operation will be prominently missed.

While we sincerely regret your departure, we feel confident that, in your new sphere of action, wherever you may be placed, you will win honor for yourself and reflect credit on the fair fame of Prince Edward Island. We wish you God speed and heartiest good wishes and we confidently anticipate that you will soon return and carry away with you a valued member of our order. While we certainly will regret thus to lose in numbers we certainly gain in prestige, since this disposition of members should be a strong inducement to join our order. Kindly accept the accompanying gift as a remembrance of your association with Eclectic Lodge.

Signed by the Members
Mr. McKinnon acknowledged the address and the present with due appreciation and showed, sua sponte, how deeply and sincerely grateful he was for this thoughtful remembrance. He vowed unbroken fidelity to his many friends in Kensington and keenly realized what an evident advantage it is to live a life as to be able to mingle in such associations.

Mayor Lockhart, Miss McArthur, Miss M. Sheen, Mrs. Elmer Bowen, Mr. Gordon Letch, Mr. Ralph Balderson and several other appreciating friends participated in the event. Mr. McKinnon leaves Kensington, bearing the silken threads of tender associations, which will surely eventually draw together in fancy texture and seem to hide but really more desirably show the auspicious event.—Y.

PRINCE OF WALES SUPPORTS PROPOSED CORNFLOWER DAY

LONDON, Oct. 23. — The proposed Cornflower Day on October 31, which is the eighth anniversary of the first battle of Ypres when all who served on sufficient loss of relative or friend in that salient are asked to wear a cornflower, has received warm support from the Prince of Wales.

All money raised by the sale of cornflowers will be used to establish a permanent hostelry and clubhouse at Ypres as a rendezvous for all British pilgrims visiting the graves and battlefields.

SCHOOL FAIR
ANNANDALE SCHOOL FAIR

The first School Fair comprising the districts of Elmwood, Green Bay, and Emyvale was held at Emyvale on Friday, Sept. 22nd. The people of these districts turned out in a glorious manner (a very large number being present) to witness a splendid line of exhibits and interesting classes of sports. The people are to be commended for the interest they have shown and the whole-hearted manner in which they worked for the success of the fair.
