

He Knows
Talk with your doctor about Ayer's non-alcoholic Sarsaparilla. Ask him if he prescribes it for pale, delicate children. Ask him if he recommends it when the blood is thin and impure, and when the nerves are weak and unsteady. Ask him if it aids nature in building up the general health. Lowell, Mass.

All the machinery for the boring plant has been landed at the China Point wharf, and taken to Enniscorthy, where exploration for minerals is to be started. The timber for the balance of the plant has not arrived, but is expected in a day or two. Mr. Stover, the contractor, expects to have everything in readiness for starting the drill by next week.

At the cathedral of the Holy Cross, Boston, on Sunday Aug. 30th, Miss Anna E. Doyle formerly of this City was united in marriage to Anthony J. Riddins of New York. The bride was attired in an Alice Blue travelling suit with hat to match. She was attended by Miss Gertrude A. Pye of Brookline, Mass., the groom being supported by Robert A. Condon of Roxbury. The happy couple took the midnight train for N. Y. where they will spend a few weeks.

A large circle of friends in this Province and especially in this City will be grieved to hear of the death of Miss Gertrude Merry, daughter of James Merry, Weymouth Street, Miss Merry, who was for a number of years in James Paton & Co's store, was an exceptionally bright girl and a general favorite and her early death will be deeply felt by her comrades in the store and more especially in her home where she was so much loved. Two sisters—Miss Annie in Montague and Mrs. Haslam, Boston, are left to mourn also four brothers, J. J. of Moncton, Charles of Summerside, Fred of Newport, R. I. and Ernest of Boston.

On Sunday last Aug. 30 the Sturgeon Methodist Church, which has been undergoing repairs for the last few weeks was reopened with appropriate services. The morning service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Jewett the pastor's assistant, who preached an eloquent and appropriate sermon on "The Bulwarks of Zion." The church was again crowded in the afternoon to hear the pastor Rev. F. A. Wightman, who preached from Psalms 84.10. In the evening the church was taxed beyond its capacity to listen to Rev. Edwin Smith, who preached a splendid sermon on the Word of God. Rev. Ms. McPhee of Montague also took part in the evening service. The church has received a new roof and an exterior coat of paint while the improvements to the interior are even more apparent. The pews have been grained in oak and the wainscoting made to match. Other additions include a handsome border around the ceiling, new pulpit chairs and carpets for the aisles. The people have taken great interest in the work and it is gratifying to know that the expenses which amounted to about a hundred dollars have been entirely met.

The Island Condition Powder is always to the front, when it comes to getting stock in good healthy condition. Farmers and horsemen everywhere recommend it highly—Prepared and sold only by A. W. Reddin, P. E. I., Sunnyside.

The Merry Widow

Seems to be the craze in Ladies' Hats this season, but what genuine Merry Widow is going to wear one of those 40 inch hats that are being offered by milliners in large cities. But before your wife or best girl gets to enquiring how you know so much about it we will change the subject by announcing that we are selling lots of Maple Sugar because it is pure and the price is only 24 cents per pound.

Cleanliness is Next to Godliness

If you want your home thoroughly clean and healthy, have it done scientifically. Ordinary disinfectants give only a false sense of security. Microbes and bacteria lurk beyond the reach of the most particular housewife. I use only the latest proved method which is a perfect germicide and endorsed by a Board of Health and Health Officers.
