IN MEMORIAM

MONTREAL, April 21.—Canadian and Quebec are definitely out of baseball for this season, following a conference Saturday between Leo Dandurand and Harry Paine. The decision was reached to suspend operations for this year. It had been expected that these two teams would operate the Independent League a local pro. circuit playing on Saturday Sundays, but Dandurand is unwilling to devote any time to baseball this summer.

The Quebec magnate had been endeavoring to get in touch with the officials of the Green Mountain League with a view to getting the people of Quebec league to trail again, but numerous telegrams having brought no response, Paine was ready to call it quits for the season.
