When your dealer, in filling your order for any of above goods, reaches for a substitute, STOP HIM! That is the time to do it.

There are many reasons why you should ask for the above well advertised articles, but absolutely none why you should let a substituting dealer palm off something which he claims to be "just as good," or "better," or "the same thing" as the article you ask for.

The buying public recognize the superior quality of well advertised and standard articles like Gillett's goods. The substitutor realizes this fact and tries to sell inferior goods on the advertiser's reputation.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

MAY 24. JESUS' DEATH AND BURIAL

John 19:17-42. Memorize vs. 39, 40.

GOLDEN TEXT: "Christ died for our sins according to the Gospel."—1 Cor. 15:3.

EXPLANATIONS: I. "It is finished." 28-30. What was finished? (1) His own sufferings were finished.

(2) The mission upon which the Father had sent him into this world was finished. The Father had given him a certain work to accomplish (John 5:36).

(3) The prophecies concerning the sufferings and death of the Messiah (into which angels and the prophets themselves had desired to look, 1. Pet. 1:11-13), were finished; it was the moment of his utter defeat.

(4) "A bone of him shall not be broken." 31-37. It was "the Preparation of the Passover," i.e., "the Preparation of the Passover" (v. 14; cf. ch. 18:28).

The next day would be a Sabbath, not the weekly Sabbath, for the first day of the Passover was always a Sabbath with the Jews whatever day in the week it came (Lev. 23:7).

This year it came on Thursday. The Passover Sabbath was a high day. The Jews would not endure the thought that their great day should be polluted by criminal hanging on a cross.

They were not at all sensitive about its being polluted by their own hands being stained with the murder of the Son of God. Jesus was dead already and his legs were not broken.

By this seeming chance the O. T. prophetic type of the Pascal Lamb was literally and minutely fulfilled (v. 36). But the soldiers will make sure that Jesus is dead indeed, so a spear is thrust into his side. Jesus is "pierced" according to scripture (Zech. 12:10).

And then a notable thing comes to pass: forth from that pierced side flows blood and water not blood only but blood and water. John is impressed by the fact and records it, though in the state of scientific knowledge then existing he could scarcely have understood its full significance. That water mingled with the blood shows that Jesus died of 9 Years Bad Leg. Healed By Zam-Buk. Mr. C. Johnson, of Poplar Hill Creek, Athabasca Landing, Alta., says: "About nine years ago a running sore commenced on my right leg caused by a ruptured blood vessel. As time went on it got worse and my sufferings were intense. I had a very sore leg indeed, and had very small hopes of ever seeing it healed, in fact I was told by several who had known such sores that I would suffer with it for life.

When I was almost in despair I heard of Zam-Buk and commenced using it. Other sores I had used caused me much suffering, but Zam-Buk soothed the pain, and although it appeared for some time to be doing no good yet I persevered and as soon as the leg wound became clean, it was only a matter of three or four days before it was healed."

Zam-Buk cures cuts, burns, pimples, ulcers, ringworm, itch, piles, running sores, blood poison, and all skin diseases. All stores and druggists, 50c. box, or from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

extravasation of the blood, i.e., of a broken heart (cf. Ps. 69:20). What broke that heart? Sin, your sin and mine.

This is the immediate thought of the context (vs. 28, 29). The Old Testament prophets, centuries before, had set forth step by step the sufferings the coming Messiah would meet in redeeming his people.

One by one Jesus had fulfilled the details of those Old Testament prophecies. The last prediction of the long list of sufferings and dishonor, which Jesus had doubtless often communed until they were indelibly printed upon his mind, is fulfilled, and with a cry of victory and relief he exclaims, "It is finished." (4) The work of atonement was finished. The curse of the broken law must be borne, and Jesus had borne it (Gal. 3:13; 2 Cor. 5:21; 1 Pet. 2:24). It is finished. There is nothing left for you or me to do to atone for sin. It is all done. "It is finished." Would that we might all believe it and not try to add anything to the finished work of Christ.

(5) The Mosaic law, as far as its claims on the believer are concerned, was finished (Rom. 10:4; Col. 2:14; Eph. 2:15, 16). Every claim of the Mosaic law was settled and the law itself done away by the death of Christ on the cross. (6) Satan's power was finished (Heb. 2:14, R. V. Col. 2:15; E. V. 2:15). The death of Christ on the cross was the death-knell to Satan's power. It seemed the moment of Satan's mightiest pro-

Buying seeds and buying a horse there is a similarity in the transaction. The pedigree must be looked into, it is important to know who raised the horses and blemishes and kindred troubles must not be overlooked. A poor horse is dear at any price, and this is doubly true of seeds, even if the seeds were to be had for nothing. Poor cheap seeds are very expensive to the grower, and there are seeds on the market, we could not be paid to plant. We do not claim, to have a large stock of seeds, but just seeds such as we are planting ourselves, and our extensive experience in the market garden business, places us at the head, in this particular. Many seeds are planted too early and they rot in the ground. This is the fault of the planter not the seeds. Such seeds as peas, beets, carrots, radishes, lettuce, turnips, spinach, onions, parsnips, cabbage, cauliflower, sweet peas, etc., can be planted whenever the ground is in fit condition—but tender seeds must be either started in a hot bed, or planted delayed until all danger of cold damp weather is past. Tender seeds such as cucumber, beans, squash, pumpkin, tomatoes, corn and many flower seeds should not be planted before the latter part of May. Farmers when in town and all who intend planting a vegetable garden, come direct to us, don't be misled by offers of cheap seeds in packets of any other way, cheap seeds are often dear at any price. In buying your vegetable seeds from us do not overlook that we have the very choicest mixture of sweet pea seed obtainable sixty colors blended together. Watch for our plant advertisement the latter part of this month. In spite of the cold late spring we have hundreds of thousands of vegetable and bedding flower plants.—J. J. Gay & Son. 5-6dwarwt.

Reserve Tuesday evening, May 26, for the grandest entertainment of the season to be given in St. Paul's Schoolroom. Watch for particulars later. 5-4sm31
