The officers and members of Port Jole Encampment No. 46, I. O. O. F. of this City, were "at home" to the Grand Junior Ward, Bro. F. A. Currie and Grand Point View, Humphrey Lockhart, of the Grand Encampment of the Maritime Provinces of Canada on Saturday evening last in Odd Fellows Hall. They were accompanied by Past Grand Master Esbrook and a degree was conferred on Saturday evening of Mount Carmel Encampment of Montreal.

The Grand Officers were received with the honours of the order, after which interesting and instructive addresses were delivered by the Grand Officers and other members present, the guest speaker being Grand Junior Ward Currie. His address was listened to with interest and the speaker of the advancement in interest and the increase of membership being being enquired by the Encampment Branch in the Maritime. The Grand Scribe, in his usual happy manner, spoke of the pleasure it was to him to be accompanied by a degree team whose honor it was to confer degree in this Capital City.

The next order of business was the conferring of the Past Master's Gold Medal degrees on a number of candidates. The visiting team proved to be most efficient in the conferring of a most impressive manner, winning the plaudits of those present. The symbols and ritualistic requirements of both degrees was most effectively portrayed. These degrees were advanced by the Odd Fellowship, and are intended to be in a special class from an instructional point of view.

After the conferring of the degrees, the assembly sat down to enjoy refreshments prepared by the Master Chief of the Order, Bro. D. F. Bishum. The stew was a masterpiece of culinary art, and every banqueted with sandwiches, cake and coffee which made a happy finish for a group of members of the National Anthem, evening's task. At the conclusion of the refreshments a short period of fellowship was observed by the members to get together, talk over old times, discuss the work at hand, and various other things of interest. The meeting was considered to be one of the best ever held in the interest of the Encampment and was presided over by Chief Patriarch, Bro. George S. Ryan, who, with a few minutes of business, ranged for the meeting. The Encampment members are looking forward to another such meeting, and they hope to have an opportunity to welcome other visiting members, and treat them with Island hospitality.

WEEKLY RATION FASHION for a twosome

SUN.	MON.	TUES.	WED.	THUR.	FRI.	SAT.
Roast Shoulder of Lamb	Cold Roast Lamb	Egg & Noodle Casserole	Lamb Pie	Meat Patties	Fish	Boiled Tongue with Cranberry Sauce
3 lbs. 2 coupons				1/2 lb. 2 tokens

Taking for granted that last week's ration budgeting left you with a credit of two tokens, this week's first dinner might well feature a small roast. Parting with two coupons in one fell swoop is not ration rashness when you get in return three pounds rolled shoulder of lamb. It should nicely take care of three dinners, inclusive of a guest or two. Good companions for the roast are a savoury dressing and a rich brown gravy. For Monday it can be sliced cold and on Wednesday a lamb and vegetable pie is a tasty remark. Suggested Tuesday fare is an egg and noodle casserole—hard cooked eggs on a bed of noodles topped with a mellow cheese sauce and buttered crumbs, the whole given an oven heat treatment until bubbling and browned. Two-token value for Thursday is half a pound of hamburger for meat patties. Unrationed fish is a foregone conclusion for Friday. Being tokenless on Saturday is no cause for frenzy, for unrationed meats offer a variety of choice. A pickled tongue gently simmered and served hot with a taste-tantalizing and seasonable cranberry sauce can be a happy highlight in the week's eating. And it will also start you on another week by providing a Sunday meal.
