FORT ERIE, Ont. (CP)—Mean thief note.

A Fort Erie woman reported that two evergreen trees growing beside her mother's grave had been chopped down by vandals.

LONDON, Jan. 9 (CP)—Tommy Handley, 53, one of Britain's top-ranking radio comedians and a favorite of the King, died today.

He collapsed shortly after lunch, apparently from a heart attack. A showman of more than 35 years' experience, Handley hit his real stride in the early years of the Second World War. When the BBC went under cover during the heavy German air attacks on Britain, Handley and a corps of supporters carried on valiantly. Members of the royal family praised him as a wartime morale builder.
