ISLANDER PROMOTED - One of the most successful of our P. E. Island sons who has achieved success in the United States is Lorne J. Peters, son of Fred Peters, Rollo Bay. After a short visit to the home of his parents, Mr. Peters returned to U. S. A. to resume his responsible office of Assistant General Manager of the Boston Mutual, to which he was promoted one year ago; this promotion is the result of eight years of diligent, untiring and faithful service with "his company." The fact that Mr. Peters is the youngest man in the home office bears testimony of his energy, honesty and ability. Mr. Peters left home with only a common school education, but advanced himself through diligent application and perseverance at night school, until now he stands as an edifying example to us who believe in the superiority of Canadians; we know that a fuller criterion of his worth will result in his advancement to higher office, which is the hearty wish of his friends who are proud to know him.

JUDGE BELL - Richard Rundell Bell, attorney at law and until a few days ago justice of the peace, furnishes a fine example of real, honest to goodness success. One of the main ingredients of success, the world is beginning to realize, is friendship, which Judge Bell enjoys among many people. The foundation of true friendship is respect, and the human jelly fish who fears to have opinions of his own may lack enemies but he will have no friends. By his regard not only to the letter of the law, but to the broader questions of public policy, which press more closely in the courts of first resort than elsewhere, Judge Bell has won respect and affection. Los Gatos is glad that Judge Bell's retirement from the office of justice of the peace does not mean his withdrawal from the community. (The above appears in the Mail-News of Los Gatos, California, of June 25th. Judge Bell is a son of the late Francis Bell, formerly of West Royalty, and an uncle of Reginald Bell of Charlottetown.)

The people of this locality were saddened on Monday, June 29 to learn of the sudden and unexpected death of Lizzie, dearly beloved wife of Mr. Mack McPhail, Argyle Shore, at the early age of 39 years, from heart failure. She was of an unusually bright and sunny disposition, with a pleasant smile for everyone and by her jovial manner, made for herself a host of friends who will ever cherish her memory. She will be greatly missed in the community, where she was ever ready to lend a helping hand and where friends and stranger alike were made welcome in her home, but it is there, where she will be missed the most by her heartbroken husband and family of young children, who mourn the loss of the tender care of a dear mother and devoted wife. Her funeral which was held on Wednesday, July 1st, to Argyle Shore Cemetery, was very largely attended and was conducted at the home by her pastor, Rev. Ewen MacDougald, and at the grave by the L.O.B.A., of which so-

Long before the arrival of the Borden train, which was almost an hour late, Monday evening, the streets about the C. N. R. station were thronged with people who assembled to pay a silent tribute of respect to the late Rev. Patrick McQuillan, formerly of this city, whose remains accompanied by his sisters and four priests arrived from Halifax where he passed away on Saturday morning. The body was carried from the train by the following active pall bearers: Major D. F. Terney, Major C. C. Thompson, Major D. Field, Major W. J. McDonald, Capt. W. Smith and Lieut. Leo McDonald. They were preceded by the following honorary pall bearers: Messrs P. Fitzsimmons, Jas. Monaghan, Peter Trainor, W. J. Brown, Sixtus McLellan and Chas. J. Mitchell with six others selected from the clergy. The funeral cortege proceeded up Water Street to Great George St., to St. Dunstan's Basilica in the following order: Legion Band. Members Canadian Legion. Knights of Columbus. Honorary Pall Bearers. Honorary Pall Bearers (clergy) Active Pall Bearers. Undertaker, Mr. Frank Hennessey. Mourners. Arriving at the Basilica the body was received at the main entrance by His Most Reverend Excellency Jos. A. O'Sullivan and a large number of the clergy of the diocese. The remains were placed in the Sanctuary after which vespers of the Dead were chanted by the clergy, the final absolutions being given by His Excellency. At the conclusion the casket was opened and the large congregation which had assembled were given an opportunity of taking a last look at the beloved priest.

The body laid in state in the Basilica until this morning when solemn requiem high mass was celebrated by Very Rev. Dean McManus, Rector of St. Mary's University, Halifax, assisted by Rev. D. J. Summers, Deacon, Rev. Dr. Curran, Sub Deacon and Rev. H. H. Fleming, Master of Ceremonies. All of the clergy being from Halifax. Rev. Joseph O'Hara in a brief sermon at the conclusion of the Mass paid a worthy tribute to the deceased. He said he was there to ask for the repose of the soul of "Good Father McQuillan." He had occasion to be in Halifax only a couple of weeks ago and spent most of his time with Father McQuillan, who was a "true, noble Catholic Priest." He carried on the work of the Divine Master until the last moment. He had often visited here and his coming now to his home was sad for his relatives and friends. Father McQuillan was ordained about thirty years ago. He served in the Great War where he brought comfort and consolation to many of our boys. At the conclusion of hostilities he returned to Halifax where he brought joy to saddened hearts. He had told the rev. speaker of hearing 14,000 confessions of soldiers and now he is gone to receive the reward of good deeds done. To his sisters and relatives he offered sympathy and he would ask Our Lady of Sorrows, who knows what sorrow is, to comfort them. The good Father McQuillan was one of their own and he would ask them to remember him in their prayers, that God would grant eternal rest, be merciful to him and reward him. At the conclusion the remains were taken to St. Annes, Lot 65 where the services at the church and grave were conducted by Very Rev. Dean McManus.

The pall bearers yesterday morning were Messrs P. Fitzsimmons, Sixtus McLellan, Jas. Monaghan, Peter Trainor, W. J. Brown and Chas. J. Mitchell.

REVISITS PROVINCE - Mr. Edmund J. McNeill, President of the McNeill Ornamental Iron and Construction Company, of Baltimore, with his son, Mr. Charles McNeill, accompanied our very popular retired Postmaster, Mr. Joseph McCarey, on a too brief visit to the Island. They returned today by automobile. Mr. McNeill is a native of Grand River, Lot 14, and like many of our native sons, is giving of brain and brawn to the prosperity of the United States. Unlike many islanders who have gone abroad, Mr. McNeill did not acquire an education at the expense of this Province and then take it to other fields. He left school and home when he was a small boy and may truly be called a self-made man. Mr. McCarey describes his friend as one who evidently keeps new, the idea of making the world the better for his having lived in it. Aside from his business and cares of his large family, he is continually "going about doing good." This is Charles' first visit to the home of his ancestors and we extend to him and his father, the glad hand and we trust they are carrying away such impressions as will induce them to return frequently.

He sustained minor cuts to his face and a nasty bruise on his arm, otherwise he escaped without serious injury. S.

SLIGHT ACCIDENT - For such a large crowd there were practically no mishaps at the Northam races. One man, who accidentally put his hand through the windshield of his car, was rushed to the Prince County Hospital by the Provincial Police, as it was thought he had severed an artery, but it was found that the cuts were only minor ones. He was discharged the following morning. On the return journey a car was ditched on the Northam road, when it skidded in the gravel, holding up a stream of cars, which had left the race course about six o'clock. After a delay of about half an hour, the traffic moved on. No one was seriously hurt. Several cars appeared to have trouble one way or the other as there were a good many stopped on the side of the road both going and coming; but so far no serious accidents have been reported. S.
