FAREWELL GATHERING

A large and representative gathering met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Heartz, Bradalbane on Tuesday evening, 14th October to bid farewell to them prior to their departure to the United States and to present them with an address, also a case, pipe to Mr. Heartz and a well filled purse to Mrs. Heartz.

Mr. Thomas Bertram was appointed Chairman, who in explaining the nature of the meeting spoke in glowing terms of his esteem and regard for them. Mr. Hugh F. McKay read the address, while Mr. Arch Andrew and Mrs. (Hon.) Kennedy made the presentations. The recipients made a suitable reply as also did their daughter Mrs. Mobbs (thanking the people for their thoughtfulness to her parents. Short but well worded speeches were given by Messrs. George Stevenson, Arch. Andrew, John Hillman, Mack McInnis, Lefuta Wood, Alex McDonald, Walter McKenzie, John McLeod and John Mayne all joining in wishing the aged couple a pleasant visit and a safe return. After all had partaken of a splendid lunch prepared by the good ladies a very social evening was brought to a close by singing "God be with you till we meet again." Following is the address. To Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Heartz, Bradalbane. We your friends and neighbors of Bradalbane, Springfield and Pleasant Valley, having learned of your intention to spend the coming winter with your family in the United States, have met with you this evening to assure you of our best wishes for a safe journey, a pleasant time and a happy return with your children who are settled over here. We would at this time convey to you our appreciation of your sterling worth as members of our community for more than half a century. Especially to you Mrs. Heartz we speak of night in tender terms of the Hallowed Memories of these fifty four years you have been coming in and going out among us.

Notwithstanding your own household cares you have always been ready to give ungrudgingly of your strength and skill whenever the call came. More particularly in the sick room has your life been a shining example of Christian service; by thus following in the foot steps of your Master who came not to be ministered unto but to minister. You have some reward at least when we tell you how large a place you hold in the hearts of these gathered here tonight. Please accept these small gifts as slight tokens of our friendship and regard. Expressing the hope that your last days may be your best days and that our Heavenly Father may care for and keep both of you while you are absent from us is the prayer of all.
