Once a doubtful luxury—now a necessity

Not over a decade ago the so-called "modern laundry" was regarded with considerable doubt for two reasons. First, the almost prohibitive cost to the consumer.

IN MEMORIAM

PIUS BUOTE

On the night of April 2nd, the Angel of Death visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Zachariah Buote, Rustico, and claimed as its victim, their beloved son Pius, at the early age of fifteen years.

hands could do, was done, but to no avail, God willed otherwise, and on the above mentioned date, his gentle spirit winged its flight to the Great Beyond, to meet his Creator.

Besides his grief-stricken parents there are left to mourn the following brothers and sisters: Emile, student at P. W. C.; Alice, of Charlottetown; Eva, Mrs. Lester Nicholson, also of Charlottetown; Alma, Ben, Raymond, Marion and Marjorie all at home.

REV. J. G. MCIVOR

The following resolution is taken from the Minutes of the Glengarry Presbytery of the United Church of Canada.

D. M. MacLeod, then presented the following resolution:—As members of Glengarry Presbytery we desire to express our sense of loss sustained by our Presbytery and our church through the death of Rev. John Graham McIvor, M.A. B.D., D.D., who passed away suddenly January 6th last at his home in Moulinette.

fine christian spirit:—We the members of Glengarry Presbytery would express our sympathy with Moulinette and associated congregation and pray that the God of all comfort and consolation will guide and bless the family of our brother departed.
