Races are conducted on the three heat plan—every heat a race, which makes for more thrilling races—and give the spectators a better run for their money.

A Special Train leaves Charlottetown with race horses and passengers at 1.00 o'clock A. M. Proportionate low fares from intermediate points—Returns after the races.

This promises to be the biggest and best of all the big races held at New Annan. The keenest kind of racing is practically assured.

SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS

W. Scantlebury, (Acrobatics); Charlottetown Pipe Band; Fari-Mutuals; Midway; Will Harvey, (Violin); Robt. Weeks, (Step-dance); Special boxing bout; Several young ladies in special Highland dances. All the attractions which have made New Annan Races famous in the past—and then some.

Burlesque boxing bout between K. O. Joe O'Brien and the champion of the South Sea Islands.

Meet your friends at New Annan Races. See good racing and good special attractions. Something doing every minute. Never a dull moment.

If day proves unfavorable races will be held next day following.

Cars parked free outside racing oval—charged 50 cents for parking inside.

Admission 50 cents. Children proportionate rates.

Grand Stand 25 cents. Meals 50 cents.

J. J. MCKINNON, Proprietor.
J. FENDERGAST, Secretary.

BUMP, BUMP, BUMP!

Everything perfect until the left rear tire punctured. Driving to the dance in Joe's new roadster. Dressed for a summer evening's fun. A mile from the service station. No light but the stars. Fumble for the jack and wrench. Trouble with the jack. Ring-nuts drop into the dust. Half-hour to change the tire—and what a mess their clothes were in! Now Joe carries a safe, convenient, portable Eveready Flashlight to use when changing tires, examining the gas supply, tightening loose electric wires, reading road signs and maps. It is a permanent part of his car equipment.
