INSTITUTE MEETING.—The regular monthly meeting of the Lakeview Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. S. J. Rose on Feb. 18. After the roll call which was answered by quotations from favorite authors, and the regular business of the meeting had been taken up, a short recitation was carried out, including recitation by Misses Bertie and Mildred Rose, a reading on the Union Jack by Miss Pearl Ching and the reading of the paper "Convent Kitchen." The members are still busy knitting for the soldiers. Fifteen pairs of socks have been forwarded to Mrs. Hynd. There is still yarn left for a number of pairs. For the March meeting the subject will be "How the Institute may be a help to the community" and "Planning the Spring sewing."

DAIRY WORK.—The Red Point Dairy Association reports a good season with well satisfied patrons who are rejoicing over the best returns for their milk in the history of the factory, $1.62 being paid per 100 pounds and one pound of cheese net 93.5 cents gross. Average fat 9.73 per cent, gross. Value of cheese per lb. 18.82 cents net 15.75 cents per lb. The patrons are looking forward with bright hopes for the coming season. Michael McNinis, who is taking a course at the Sussex Dairy School, is engaged as maker. The people are just beginning to realize that a well kept dairy cow is a real money-maker. Seed is regularly bought co-operatively with good satisfaction from wholesale houses, and time is imported by the car from St. John, N. B. Lambs and wool were sold on the same plan; all the eastern institutes joined under the mutton and wool growers association for the sale of lambs with very satisfactory results. A bonus was given for the purchase of three registered bulls which have been bought and are good ones placed as follows: Shorthorn at Greenvale, Ayrshire at Red Point Holstein at Baltic. Seven Yorkshire sows have been placed, all of which are registered, a good start has been made with Shropshire and Leicester sheep.

Cure Children's Colds
By External Treatment

MOTHERS WILL FIND NOTHING SO SPEEDILY AND RELIABLE AS OLD TIME "NERVILINE."

It's really a shame to upset a young child's stomach by internal dosing, when external treatment will so promptly break up a cold. When your boy comes in after play with his feet soaking wet, his throat hoarse and sore, his little chest tight and congested, just apply Nerviline. Give him a vigorous rubbing over his throat, and put lots of Nerviline on his chest and rub it right in. To make Nerviline penetrate more quickly cover his chest and throat with a hot flannel bandage. This treatment "WON" fail. Your boy will be feeling better in half an hour, and you will have the satisfaction of knowing you have worried off perhaps a cold, or gripe, or illness that might have laid him up. Nerviline is mighty good for preventing colds and for breaking up a bad one, too. For general family use it cures all sorts of external aches and pains—you simply can't beat it. Try it for earache, toothache, neuralgia, sciatica, lame back, rheumatism, or lumbago. Wherever there is congestion, inflammation or pain in the joints or muscles, Nerviline will cure mighty quick. The large 50c family size bottle is so economical, so useful, it should be in every home. There is also a small 25c. size. Dealers anywhere sell Nerviline.

STORMY TIMES IN ABYSSINIA

LONDON, Feb. 17.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press).—Abyssinia has been having a stormy time since the death of Emperor Menelik, in the past few months the new Emperor has been deposed, civil war has broken out and several battles have been fought between the factions, in one of which nearly 25,000 men were killed. The new ruler is Empress Zauditu, a daughter of Menelik. "An account of happenings in Abyssinia has just reached London from Europeans living in the capital, Addis Ababa. One letter says:—'Lidj Jeassu, the young Emperor who succeeded his grandfather Menelik, had gradually come under Turkish influence and had in many ways offended the Christian population. The legations of the Entente powers in September sent in a joint protest and this was followed a few days later by a meeting of the ministers which declared the Emperor deposed and enthroned in his place the Princess Zauditu with Ras Tafari as Regent and heir to the throne. "Things were quiet for a few weeks while the deposed Emperor's partisans were gathering. Then suddenly Mikael, ruler of Wollo and the most powerful in the country, declared himself in favor of the deposed Emperor and marched against Addis Ababa. The first battle was fought some distance outside the capital, where the government army of 5,000 men under Ras Sul Seged was virtually annihilated and Seged killed. There was a good deal of excitement in the capital, but the legation was slow in appearing and the new Empress had time to mobilize a strong force which, under the personal command of the war minister met the enemy on October 27. The battle lasted all day and resulted in the enemy's complete rout. The Empress' side had 110,000 killed out of 60,000 engaged, while the enemy is said to have lost 15,000 killed. "The manner of fighting was primitive. At first the fight was with rifles, but becoming tired at this they threw these weapons aside and dashed at one another with scimitars and spears."

BILLY SUNDAY'S OBJECT LESSON

Before 13,000 men and women who cheered and cheered and cheered again Billy Sunday last night brought to a climax his fight against booze. Instead of waving the flag over the circle of boys wanted by the gin mill as raw material, he yelled to Brewster to pass up a suit case. From it he extracted a bottle of whiskey, "bought for me today in Boston at a cost of $125" and stood it on the pulpit. Then he took out: One package of shredded wheat. One package of Toastles. A quart bottle of milk. "I'll keep a baby alive 24 hours," Billy shouted as he held it up; then, unfastening the whiskey bottle, he exclaimed, "Whereas this cursed stuff contains poison enough to kill ten babies." One package of Uneceda biscuit. A small parcel of potatoes "they're very scarce," he commented, "but thank the Lord, I managed to find a few." One pound of butter—"it cost 44c, and it's paid for." Two leaves of bread. A parcel from which he took and held up to view two samples, saying: "Here is something I've quit eating; they're too rich for my blood; they're eggs and the dealer tries to make folks believe that they're worth 8 cents apiece—not for me at that price." And the audience shouted with laughter.

More Evidence.

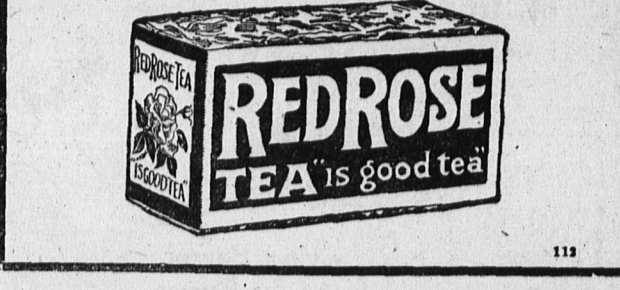

That did not end the demonstration Sunday continued: "The bottle of booze costs $1.25 by the bottle. It contains 24 drinks. At 15c a drink that makes $3.60, which is how most booze hitters buy it. Hand me that hamper, Brewster." And up came a big basket. From it Billy took, unwrapped and exhibited: Two pounds of beefsteak, 72c. A package of Bermuda onions. A peck of apples—"for the child ren." 25 cents worth of soap. A package of rutabasa turnips. One pound of coffee. A paper parcel of "sinkers." One pound of lima beans, and one pound of prunes. When the cheering audience had grasped the significance of the exhibit Billy seized a hammer and smashed the bottle of whiskey on the pulpit carpet, saying: "If I don't do that, the dirty gang would start the story and send it up and down the land that I'd been buying booze for my own use." EIGHT TEAMS TIED IN SIX-DAY RACE

CHICAGO, February 17.—Eight of the teams in the six-day bike race were tied at the end of the 70th hour. They had travelled 1291 miles and five laps, with two teams (Ohr-Grimm and Carman-Lawrence) one lap behind. The riders are more than 135 miles behind the record.

Mrs. Able Says:

PEOPLE ask me why my tea tastes so good. First, I use freshly drawn water. When boiling briskly I pour it over the leaves, allowing the tea to steep, not boil, five minutes. Next, I pour the tea off the leaves into another pot. In that way you get the flavor of Red Rose Tea in all its fullness and richness. Try it. In sealed packages only.

DEAN RUSSELL CALLS KAISER A MADMAN

NEW YORK, February 17.—Twenty-five hundred professors and students of Teachers' College, Columbia University, yesterday heard Dean James E. Russell, head of the school, a man steeped in the learning of German life, denounce Germany's Emperor as a madman and his nation as a neighbor broken loose from the moorings of civilization," says the Herald. Dean Russell holds the degree of Doctor of Philosophy from the University of Leipzig. "This is not the time for propaganda nor the time to speak alarmingly," he said. "It is the time for quiet thought and the time to measure our strength and possibilities." "No one can accuse me for lack of sympathy for German education, serenity and efficiency. I have more friends in Germany than in England, France, Russia and Italy combined, and I have a deep sympathy for the German people. But I would never bring myself to react the German military system. I myself have seen German officers proud men carrying babies that they might pass on the sidewalk. "It seems as though one of our neighbors has broken loose from the moorings of civilization and is destroying humanity under the leadership of a madman. A people numbering seven and a half millions have been trampled upon of whom hundreds of thousands must perish in a few weeks if it goes on. Millions of people on the eastern front have been subjected to similar treatment. "God helping me, I am not willing to sacrifice that for which my forefathers fought and died, just to save my skin whole. I will not suffer that madman to go further, no matter in what guise he comes nor what language he speaks."

25 CENTS DESTROYS YOUR DANDRUFF AND STOPS FALLING HAIR

Save your hair! Make it thick, wavy and beautiful—try this!

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die, then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderrin tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderrin from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance, and incomparable gloss and softness; but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of the downy hair—new hair—growing over the scalp.
