A. The date of the last cheque was October 19th. The cheque was completed then. MR. GAUDET: Q. Who was expected to occupy the house? A. I don't know anything about that. THE ATTORNEY GENERAL: Q. When Mitchell came to see you did he refer you to Thompson or Dudley? A. I don't think he did. Q. He did not mention them at all? A. He said there would be other men here representing him. Q. Didn't he give you their name? A. If he did I forgot about it. Q. Well how did you know when these two men came that they were authorized? A. They had documents to show that they were. It was some kind of a letter I think, similar to what Mr. Jackson had when he came. MR. GAUDET: Q. Signed by Mitchell? A. I think so. Q. Thompson and Dudley, are they retired officers? MR. JACKSON: Dudley is; Thompson is an Amherst man. Q. Was he ever on active service? MR. JACKSON: I am not prepared to say, I don't know whether he was an army man or not. The other man came from Vancouver.

Nation-Wide Fame.—There is scarcely a corner of this great Dominion where the merits of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil have not been tried and proved. It is one of the world's most efficient remedies for sore throat, lame back and many other ailments arising from inflammation. Rubbed on the skin its healing power is readily absorbed, and it can also be taken internally.

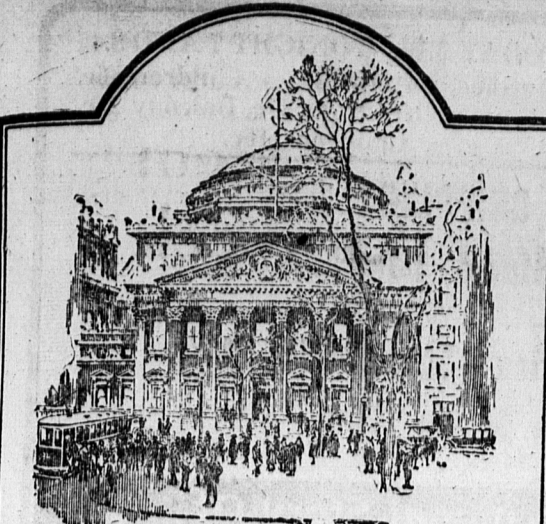

The Life Underwriters Association of P. E. I. Meet. The Life Underwriters Association of P. E. Island held a Convention in the city Monday night. The proceedings, opened in the Rose & Grey at 8.30, where the usual good meal, provided by Mr. Reddin, was much enjoyed by all present. Mr. W. G. Hogg, President of the Life Underwriters Association, and District Manager of the Confederation Life Association welcomed the outside agents in a few well chosen words. He was followed by Mr. H. A. Ebers, the Provincial Manager of the Mutual Life Assurance Company of Canada, who presented this Association at the big Convention held in Montreal during the latter part of August. Rev. E. M. Malone, incumbent of St. Peter's Cathedral, delivered an excellent address on the benefits of life insurance as a means whereby people of ordinary means may leave a small bequest to any church, organization or society. Mr. J. O. Hyndman, Provincial Manager of the Great West Life followed Mr. Malone with a few pointed remarks which were well received by the members. The meeting then adjourned in the body to the Prince Edward Theatre where the Manager is showing a picture issued by the Life Underwriters Association of Canada, entitled "What might happen." This picture is well worth seeing as it gives many a man a new outlook regarding the subject of life insurance. This film is to be shown at various points throughout the Island, and nobody should miss seeing it. The Life Underwriters Association of P. E. Island was formed in 1905 and it consists of those life insurance agents who have the true life insurance spirit at heart. The true life insurance agent looks after the interests of the insuring public FIRST, LAST AND ALL THE TIME.

Miss Elizabeth Rattenbury, R. N., left yesterday or return to Montreal, where she resumes her duties at the Royal Victoria Hospital after a pleasant visit to her parents in this city. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Harry Winchester, who will visit in Montreal and Toronto.

WEDDING AT CALGARY. On August 21st in the Divisional Headquarters, Calgary, Staff-Captain Bristow, conducted the wedding of Treasurer Langford of Drumheller Corps. After a portion of Scripture had been read by Mrs. Bristow, the Staff-Captain read the Articles of Marriage, and Commandant Meikle became Mrs. Langford. Commandant Meikle is retiring from the Field and marrying Treasurer Langford has been with the consent and blessing of Divisional and Territorial Headquarters, and the best wishes of all Field Officers who know her. Her faithful and devoted service in the different Corps in which she has been stationed has endeared her to many hearts. Mrs. Langford was born in Milton, Prince Edward Island. As a girl she met The Army gave her heart to God, and was later trained for Officership in St. John, New Brunswick. After spending a number of years as a successful Field Officer in the Maritime Provinces, she was transferred to Ontario and later to the West. Her last appointment, Drumheller, has gone forward with great success during her stay, and as she takes her place as a Soldier there, many will be praying God's blessing upon Treasurer and Mrs. Langford.—J. M. H. The Mrs. Margaret Meikle, youngest daughter of the late James Meikle, Milton, P. E. Island. (Patriot Please Copy)

PAYS $5,000 FOR A STOLEN KISS NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—A jury before Supreme Court Justice May in Brooklyn today ordered Louis Goodman to pay $5,000 for a stolen kiss he took from Mrs. Alice Mercer in October, 1921. Mrs. Mercer told the court that her landlord was in the habit of entering her room in her husband's absence, telling her he wanted to fix the radiator, and on one occasion she declared he kissed her before she could prevent him. She accused him of "highhanded, arbitrary oscillation."
