KENSINGTON

The Morning After Taking Carter's Little Liver Pills

Alberton

The regular County Court was held here on Tuesday, March 7. The only case to come to trial was that of Alvin Rayner vs. Frank and Lucy Kinch of Alma. The charge was laid by Alvin Rayner, that of enticing and harboring his wife, Frederick Tanton was counsel for the plaintiff while Health Strong, K. C. of Summerside, was counsel for defence. Judgment was reserved by Judge Shaw until next County Court session in June. The trial lasted through the day and well into the evening in an effort to complete it on that day. Owing to the unusualness of the case the Court House was packed to capacity with the audience.

It is expected that John T. Croft, Ph. D. of the Carnegie Professorship of Charlottetown will stop off here on Saturday evening. He will speak to the credit Union members at a meeting in the Callahan building after the arrival of the freight train here. He expects to continue on to Tignish by the train. He is visiting Tignish in the interest of Credit Unions.

The Albion Terrace Hotel was the scene of a banquet under the auspices of the Alberton Hockey Club. Numbered among those present were some of the Club officials, the Mayor of the town who acted as Toast-Master, and two of the clergymen. Altogether the attendants numbered about thirty. Toasts and speeches were in order. All-in-all it was pronounced a grand occasion.

Waldo Matthews, Postmaster at Alberton, recently returned from a day in Charlottetown where he was royally entertained.

James E. Wells, barrister of Alberton was in Summerside recently on business.

The bridge and auction tournament under the auspices of the Progress Union, got away to a good start on Friday, March 10th. Some thirty-two participants were in attendance making up five tables playing auction and three at bridge.

The rampant flu invaded the homes of many in this vicinity and it is the one who have not felt its heavy hand.

Friends of Elizabeth Clark of Alberton will be pleased to hear that she has returned home and is convalescing from her recent serious illness.—A

Senators Make Amendments To Legislation

OTTAWA, March 15—(CP)—Conservatives engineered two amendments before the Government bill to establish a three-man commission to administer the penitentiaries passed the Senate today. One amendment was accepted without division, and opposition Senators out-voted the Government 30-19 on the second amendment. The bill was ordered returned to the House of Commons as amended.

Opposition Leader Meighen raised the first objection when the House was in committee of the whole, studying a clause that read: "The Commission shall, under the minister, have the control and management of all penitentiaries and all prisoners and other persons confined therein and inmates thereof and over all matters connected therewith."

Senator Meighen thought the clause interfered with the prerogative of mercy reserved to the Governor-General on advice of his Ministers. Senator Raouf Dandurand, Government leader, accepted the opposition amendment which provided powers of the commission over prisoners should not interfere with royal prerogative or the retention service of the Justice Department.

Six words in another clause caused the division of the House. The clause dealt with appointment of guards, which was to be a duty of the commission. Senator C. E. Tanner (Con. Nova Scotia) said the words "upon recommendation of the warden" should be inserted, and his amendment was carried by a standing vote.

Only the two amended clauses raised discussion, and the remainder of the 84 articles of the bill passed.

when he entered "liberated" Austria one year ago and the Sudetenland last October.

Cold Greeting
His Third Reich troops received the coldest greeting they have had in Czech territory into which they have gone to fulfill the idea of a Greater Germany.

Prague's residents, without fear and contrary to repeated appeals made by loudspeakers set up in the capital's principal streets, loudly jeered and booed the troops. They threw snow balls at armored cars as they rolled into the city.

A platoon of Czech police kept the crowds in St. Wenceslas Square from springing at the three armored cars and their embarrassed operators.

Great War Veterans who fought for Czech independence under the leadership of the late Benes, wept without shame, as did their women.

Cries of "Pul! Pul! go back home" were heard.

The Czechs did not know exactly what sort of government they were to have, but they were acutely conscious of the fact that Hitler's troops had occupied the whole of their cherished Bohemia and Moravia.

Arrests Made
On the heels of the German Army came the Gestapo, efficient German secret police. A number of arrests were reported to have been made.

Several leading Czech political figures, among them Gen. Jan Syrový, Czech hero who for a time was Premier of the Republic in last September's crisis, were reported to have fled the country.

Among those reported arrested—though their names were not given—was F. Hajek, former personal press representative of President Benes, pillar of the Republic who resigned after Munich and now is a university professor in the United States.

Thousands of Jews and German political emigres were in hiding because they did not want to be seen in public and could not get across the frontiers, which were closed to traffic going both ways.

Germany's absorption of Bohemia and Moravia was the final crushing blow to the life of the last Republic which grew out of the Great War.

Measures In Effect
These were among the measures put into effect, swiftly today, as Czechs were placed under German rule.

Prohibition of all meetings and clubs, the motion picture theatres until further notice, and a curfew forbidding anyone without a pass to appear in the streets after 8 p.m. and ordering bars and restaurants closed at that hour.

Seizure of all Czech iron works (in which British capital is invested) and a number of Czech airplanes.

Orders to treat with severity any sabotage or disrespect of the Nazi swastika.

Patrolling of the streets by the German military and Czech gendarmes and police.

O'Leary and Vicinity

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bernard O'Leary, on the arrival of a bouncing baby boy, born on Friday, March 10th.

The citizens of O'Leary were more than pleased to see Hon. W. H. Dennis back to his old home town again over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Jardine were visitors to Bradshaw on Saturday last.

Mr. Harry McWilliams of the staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, had advised his vacation in Charlottetown.

Miss Doris Palmer, of Bloomfield, spent a few days in O'Leary on business.

A serious accident occurred in Lot 7, last Monday, when Harold Brown of that place, came in contact with a saw while it was in operation. He had three fingers badly mangled and cut. He came to Mrs. Turner's nursing home where he received medical attention and good care. It is expected and hoped that he will retain his fingers.

Fire broke out in the residence of Daniel Ramey, Unionville, on Tuesday, March 7th. They experienced difficulty in extinguishing the blaze which started in the partition beside a cement safe. The safe had a crack in it and it is supposed that it was by this means that the fire worked into the partition. Considerable damage was done by fire, smoke and water.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jelley, O'Leary, were visitors to Charlottetown, on Saturday last.

The Misses Muriel and Wanda Yeo of Lot 16 are visiting with their sister, Mrs. Bay Ellis and Mr. Ellis of O'Leary.

The young son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ramey of Mount Royal received a splinter in his foot on the 14th from the Prince County Hospital.

The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Spurgeon Harris, Unionville and left a baby boy.

The funeral service of Mr. W. P. McNeill was held in the United Church, O'Leary, on Sunday afternoon, March 12, 1939. The church was filled to capacity with friends and neighbors who assembled to show their respect and sympathy. The service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Duncan of the Baptist Knutsford church assisted by Rev. George Gough, pastor of the United Church. A very impressive sermon was delivered by Mr. Duncan. Messrs. Gordon Black, Alvin Webb and Bennett Haywood sang in quartet. "We Are Going Down the Valley One by One." The hymns sung were "Safe in the Arms of Jesus" and "Shall We Gather at the River." Honorary bearers were Messrs. J. Matheson, William Bernard, John A. Pate, Frank Platte, James McWilliams and Mr. George Bernard. The acting pallbearers: Messrs. Sanford Phillips, Forest Phillips, Sergeant Phillips, Dan Smallman, Gordon Adams and Gordon Black. The floral tributes were many and beautiful testifying to the very high esteem in which the deceased was held in the community. Interment was in the Baptist cemetery in Knutsford.

Two hockey games were played in O'Leary rink on Saturday night, March 11th. The first game was between O'Leary Boy Scouts and Glenwood boys. Score 5-5. The second game was between O'Leary Maroons and Tignish with the score 7-6 in O'Leary's favor.—O.

Children's Aid Society Meeting

At Summerside

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Management of the Children's Aid Society of Prince County was held in the Town Hall on Tuesday evening. In the absence of the president, Mr. Heath Strong, K.C., presided.

The secretary reported that he had received a letter from the Superintendent of Education regarding two children of school age in Summerside who had never attended school. The superintendent had advised him that the father claimed the children were being taught at home. The agent reported that four cases were reported before the Juvenile Court Wednesday one for theft of coal, another for stealing $5.00 from a milk bottle, and still another for taking a horse that had been left standing in a shed and driving it to the miller's farm, and another for theft of coal.

The agent reported that the boy found guilty of stealing coal last week by Judge Shaw of the Juvenile Court, was sent to the reformatory to be placed in a home in the country. Several boys were reported absent from school on account of lack of school books and clothing and the matter is receiving the attention of the Society.

The Agent expressed his opinion that in order to stamp out at least some of the delinquency the parents of these boys should be prosecuted as they were not looking after their children properly and so contributing to their delinquency.

CHAMBERLAIN

Mr. Chamberlain's critics accused him of showing Hitler the way at Munich.

The Prime Minister redeclared his government to the pursuit of peace to secure "the happiness of mankind." "Do not let us be deceived from our course," he said, "by checks and disappointments."

David Rhy's Grenfell, Labor, however, charged that Chamberlain's appeasement consisted of modifying central European disintegration, "has only given effect to it."

Warning that war is coming nearer, Mr. Grenfell declared that "the Prime Minister's simple faith and family piety has an understanding" of the Chamberlain, sitting opposite on the Government benches, remained impassive.

HITLER

give Bohemians and Moravians a large degree of freedom.

To Lead Directorate?

This source said a directorate, perhaps with Emil Hacha at its head, would be formed to represent the Czechs. Hacha, who was on his way back to Prague from Berlin after the midnight conference in which he capitulated to Hitler and placed Bohemia and Moravia under the Fuehrer.

The government spokesman said that the Czech culture would be fully guaranteed. Schools would be Czech, with perhaps a requirement that German be taught.

Czechs, the spokesman added, would not be drafted into the German Army, although a volunteer corps might be formed for them. Police departments and local officials may be permitted to remain in office. Henlein asked the whole Bohemian administrative machinery, including police, postal, railway and state affairs employees, to continue work.
