Bogus Millionaire's Exploits

SHOP from Holman's Catalog... SUMMERSIDE BUSINESS COLLEGE will re-open for the Spring term, on Wednesday, Jan. 2nd, 1924.

TO LET—House six rooms. Modern conveniences, Barn, Acre land adjoining if required. J. A. Brace, Summerside. 680-12-28-24.

SUMMERSIDE METHODIST CHURCH—Sunday, Dec. 23rd, 1923, Preacher, Rev. J. F. Denny, 11 a. m. Is the Church Justified? 2:30 p. m. Sunday School, 7 p. m. God and Mammon. Special to all business men. Monday night 11.15 p. m. Watch-night service.

FINE NEW RINK—Messrs McMahon Bros, have their new open air rink now ready for the effective work of Jack Frost. This rink is situated under the southern shade of the Tow and covers a space of 72 ft X 160 ft. It will have all modern appliances and can be flooded as required from the copious pumping pump. It is completely surrounded by a high close fence, gently bowing to the south, and the only exposure is from the heavens. Under the expert management of the proprietors, this source of recreative amusement should be patronized in rational measure by all lovers of ice sports. Young people are disposed to congregate, and when this congregated healthful recreative sport is a stimulant, not a deterrent to intellectual development, it should be encouraged.—Y.

POPULAR RAILWAYMAN—Conductor Harry Ferguson who runs the Western Limited Train from Summerside west passed through Kensington recently on his way east. His friends were all glad to see him once more and to realize that Horace Greider's admission is agreeing with him. But Greider surely knew that to go too far west would impel one to come eventually east, and we may assure that this is what happened Harry. But we doubt if any official on the road is more popular than he, and doubt, too, if many conductors can handle business in more acceptable manner. You may always rely on him to give you the best answer possible. In fact, one would almost conclude from considering his original resourcefulness, that he had once, at least, passed through the Emerald Isle. Whether this be so or not, the travelling public may rest assured that with Harry in charge of the train, the destination is sure to be reached with the passengers and train crew in the best of good humor.—Y.

ISLANDER DEAD.—His many friends were very much shocked at the sudden death of Mr. Joseph Campbell who died in Boston of pneumonia. The late Mr. Campbell was a man of high standing in the community in which he lived. He was loved by his family. His first thought was for his family, leaving no forgetting that he was a fathering shadow. Then came his wife's welfare, always caring for them with his tenderest love. He was one of those fathers that are seldom found in these days, mild, humble, kind and loving. His death will not be regretted by his family but by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. He leaves to mourn, besides his sorrowing wife, six small children. Sincere sympathy is extended to the family in their sad and sudden affliction.—May his soul rest in peace.—A.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TREAT.—A very pleasant evening was spent at the Home Bridge Hall on Friday evening, Dec. 21st. When the children of the Presbyterian Sunday School of that place gathered for their Sunday School treat. A splendid program, consisting of Christmas recitations, dialogues, etc., was rendered by the children to the delight of all. The hall was crowded by and capacity and "Brysonian" had a busy time delivering gifts and candy to the wards of one hundred children. Some of the older ones also were not forgotten. The Supt. of the S. S., Mr. George Dixon being the recipient of a nice fountain pen; and the Pastor Rev. E. Lockhart of a pair of gloves. While the program was being suitably rendered, much credit is due the teachers of the High School, Mrs. H. Frances and Miss. Ching for their efficient manner in which the children were trained for the recitation. Music, dialogue, and to Mrs. G. Jackson organist and Miss Johnston and others for their valuable assistance. The S. S. teachers and officers wish to thank these and all others who helped to make the affair such a success.

PERSONALS —Mr. Michael McDonald of East Battle was called home on Monday last week by telegram owing to the serious illness of his brother Mr. Joseph McDonald. The latter's wife was also called home from Boston where she was visiting.

Gurney, to bid farewell to their daughter, Miss Mary Gurney, who was leaving for Boston. A very pleasant evening was spent in music, singing and games.
